its not just platonic

by gh53h54w2

Summary

what is mydei, (23M, beta) supposed to do when he is in love with phainon (25M, alpha), but phainon only cares and looks at omegas (??, ??) to help with his rut?

hire a shady online bitching to solve the misfortune of not being an omega, and then suffer his heat alone because phainon still doesnt love mydei, of course!

Notes

hit a man with my car the other day and have to go to court for a bit and maybe jail.
if uploads are slow im sorry. im busy lying under oath probably.

Chapter 1

“Sorry, Mydei.. My rut is coming up in a few days, so I’ll be busy again..”

The soft touches, the gentle nuzzles, and the obvious scenting were always there.. Even if Mydei couldn’t smell it, he knew Phainon had been trying to get his attention in the way an omega would look at him if he did those things.

Maybe he could even sweeten his scent to entice Phainon, lean into him and beg the alpha for more..

But Mydei never did.

Of course he didn’t.

He was just a beta, after all. Those scenting attempts meant nothing to him, he couldn’t smell any of it clinging to him, even if his friends always said he smelled heavily of Phainon.

“Ah, alright.” Mydei mumbled, looking to his phone instead as Phainon stopped in his tracks - seeming almost uncomfortable by those words but Mydei was used to this by now.

Used to Phainon having his ruts and going off with people to where Mydei couldn’t follow. He was just a beta at the end of the day, and he knew Phainon didn’t want to do anything like that to his best friend.

“We can reschedule! I promise I really would love to go with you!” Phainon chirped out happily, looking so energetic and excited that Mydei almost felt sick over it. Over the fact he couldn’t honestly match that energy always being displayed towards him currently..

Reschedule.

That had become something of a habit lately, Phainon was a rather extroverted and friendly alpha - as such, his ruts kept getting triggered back to back. He even refused to tell Mydei what the doctor had said about it, so Mydei was left in the dark about most things involving the alpha that was his best friend.

He couldn’t help Phainon with his rut, couldn’t smell him, and wasn’t even someone Phainon wanted to talk to about it..

He really was such a useless friend to Phainon.

“Don’t worry about it.” Mydei shook his head slowly, forcing out a hollow smile as his eyes flitted between Phainon and the omegas calling out Phainon’s name.

Those people were more important, that much was obvious as Phainon’s head jerked to the side to look back at them - waving to them immediately over them trying to get his attention. Attention Mydei knew he wasn’t interesting enough to keep on him - he had come to terms with that recently as he watched Phainon’s expression sour when he looked at Mydei again.

“Mydei..” Phainon trailed off - but the yelling of Phainon’s name behind him didn’t stop, “Ah, I have to go! Text me about it, okay? I’d love to go! I promise!”

Phainon was already leaving - pausing slightly.

“Mhm.” Was all Mydei hummed out in reply.

Mydei wished Phainon would stay - wished he would say Mydei was enough.

But he wasn’t.

He was just a beta - he couldn’t sate Phainon, nor could he keep up with him.

“Don’t look so sad! I promise, okay?” Phainon smiled at him, a soft thing - not one of his blinding smiles he gave to everyone else. This one was duller - more controlled. The one he used towards Mydei only, probably because he had no interest in him. Had no need to impress him.

“Alright.” Mydei sighed in reply, it was the only way to sate this man anyway - even if he did feel like nowadays the alpha was just forcing himself to hang out with Mydei anymore.

They were childhood friends, but Phainon practically lived in a completely different world from Mydei nowadays.

“Hehe, It’s a date! See you around, Mydeimos!” Phainon told him with a fierce nod as he turned away swiftly. Always in a hurry to meet up with his omega friends.

“Right.”

A date.

Ironic how much Mydei wished those words were true, but as Phainon quickly scurried away to go talk to the omega that had been waiting for him - he knew it never would be. Not as he stood there and watched the way Phainon softened and smiled at them, watched him grin and laugh. He couldn’t be that type of person to Phainon.

He was just a beta who was an alpha’s best friend - no one that Phainon would look twice at like the way he was looking at those omegas.

Mydei leisurely looked at his phone again, he felt odd every time he considered it. But what other choices did he have?

His eyes moved across the screen as he stood in the shade, giving his phone a heavy once over every time he read the text on it. A bitching service. Paying someone to knot him over and over again during sex until he became an omega..

He dreaded it.

He had saved himself for Phainon - hoping one day that Phainon would be able to fall in love with a beta, but as he flitted his eyes upwards to the distant figure of Phainon disappearing.. It was a hopeless dream, he had to admit that now.

Phainon would never look at him like he looked at those omegas, he didn’t want to have sex with Mydei, or even kiss Mydei.

Mydei wasn’t even in the same realm over romance with Phainon, instead, the man only ever looked at omegas and spent his ruts with them time and time again. It drove Mydei insane to know he would never be a choice, not even an option to consider for Phainon.

He was just a beta.

Even as he stood there and stared at the service, considering the money that was burning a hole in his pocket.. Was he really willing to get turned into an omega for an alpha that might still not even look his way?

He might just not be Phainon’s type - forever squared away as just his best friend all their lives. But if he did this, he would at least have some chance.. Wouldn’t he?

Phainon might actually do a double-take.. He would be able to smell Phainon as well, and be able to know what scent everyone was jealous he had covering him constantly.

Mydei breathed out a sigh, looking upwards once more, feebly praying Phainon would be there - that he turned around to spend his rut with a beta instead.

He hadn’t.

As Mydei tapped the screen into the omega bitching service, he came to terms that he was alone in this venture.

Phainon wasn’t sure how much longer he was supposed to keep this up. Forever, probably? He just felt like he was going insane every time he relapsed into another rut, he couldn’t even get satisfied no matter how many people he slept with, and in turn it would just start another rut soon after.

He truly felt like he was becoming some type of alpha player due to it all, but that's not what he wanted.. He knew the cause and how to fix it, every time he saw his best friend he felt that familiar pit in his stomach forming. He knew.. He knew how much he deeply and utterly loved Mydei. How much he longed to mate with and spend his days and nights adoring that man..

But that wasn’t mutual.

He wasn’t stupid, he knew from the way Mydei moved away from him and didn’t return his doting affections that it wasn’t mutual.

Phainon couldn’t help it.

Everything in his instincts as an alpha made him purposefully leave things around at Mydei’s apartment, trying his best to mark his territory, to let everyone know this beta was his and his alone.. Even if Mydei didn’t realize it.

He didn’t blame Mydei, though, he never could blame Mydei.. Mydei couldn’t smell it all, he was thankfully a beta so he was safe from all the normal struggles of alpha and omega life. Phainon was glad for that! Even if he couldn’t have Mydei in the way he wanted, even if he feared hurting him, and even if he couldn’t give him a mating bite..

He was happy that Mydei could live a rather peaceful life without all of the drama that came with the secondary genders - instead only giving Phainon rather blank looks and stares when he moved to scent him.

That was nice too!

The way he could scent Mydei and it would stay on him for so long without fading due to having no heavy scent of his own to cover it up. It made Phainon alpha purr in pure satisfaction every time Mydei still smelled of him throughout the day, lingering and persistent.. Unknowingly showing to everyone that he had an alpha that wanted to claim him.

That he was Phainon's, and having no shame at all towards it.. It made Phainon so giddy.

That's why his ruts were becoming a nightmare.

"Is there an omega who you deeply desire and are around a lot to trigger these ruts repeatedly?" The doctor had once asked, and Phainon had no actual answer to offer. No omega's scent drove him insane, he was rather well collected, even to those in heat.

He moved it out of his mind for that reason.

Until he got home from that appointment, of course. Where he could smell him. The beta that came over often and lounged around - it was fading now, but that distant heavy scent clung to Mydei's favorite pillow he used when he was over. The pillow that Phainon didn't let anyone else use - after all.. He had perfectly kept it there to collect the man's scent steadily.

It always made his gut twist over it, so anxious and desiring, practically making his skin crawl with feverish want towards Mydei..

Omega?

No, he only wanted Mydeimos, a precious beta.

And that, that was why his body had taken up being a living nightmare for himself now - no matter how many omegas he had sex with, it was only a means to an end. Praying it would end his rut and let him be free again to breathe for just a tad bit..

But it never lasted, it was getting worse and worse, even. Maybe because every time he saw Mydei, his stomach curled horribly. A reminder that he would never have him, and Mydei didn't look at him like that - only appearing more and more annoyed at his repeated ruts.

Phainon wished they weren’t happening just as much as Mydei did, trust him! And yet, they were almost weekly now. His doctor was very worried about him, but what was he supposed to do..? Tell Mydei he had always been in love with him and to stop having ruts they needed to have sex pronto?

No way.. He couldn’t ruin their friendship like that, he had to just.. Deal with this. Deal with his one-sided love and just hope and pray to whatever god would listen that his ruts stopped. That he got a chance to just relax a little again..

This was his own issue.. He couldn’t dare to drag Mydei into it, he had to just.. Keep meeting omegas and taking them home, praying that he could push their heads into the bed and try to imagine Mydei beneath him instead of whoever he took home that day.

But it was getting harder and harder, every moan jerked him back to reality of it all - he was merely a horny alpha that kept sleeping around.. Mydei didn’t want him.

He would never want an alpha like that.

“Mm.. You smell odd today, Mydei..”

Mydei jerked his head upwards to look at the man sitting across from him in the study hall - his eyes looked so soft and fond when Mydei met the gaze. But were those emotions truly there for Mydei?

.. He seriously doubted that nowadays.

Mydei only looked down again, focusing on his book on the table idly, not truly reading a word of it as he tried to ignore that gaze burning into his skin; “Do I? I didn’t do anything different.”

“Yeah.. Hold still.”

Mydei was used to this.

The way Phainon would rub his wrists all over him - sometimes even rubbing his body or the rest of himself on Mydei to scent him.

It’s not like it mattered, Mydei knew it was odd to be scented and claimed like that to most people - but it most certainly meant nothing with Phainon.

Phainon didn’t want to claim him, the smell probably was just actually bothering him, if anything. That rang true now as Mydei stayed focused on his calculus, trying his best to ignore the way Phainon’s hand was creeping upwards to rub at his neck. Across his useless scent glands slowly.

“Do you have no shame?” Mydei hissed out as he looked up at Phainon - glaring at the man who now was beaming while withdrawing his hand. Clearly a bit happier now that he had scented Mydei to smell like himself - but for once in Mydei’s life..

It frustrated him.

His back hurt.

He had been knotted twice by that man last night and he still couldn’t smell Phainon, he couldn’t smell whatever Phainon was annoyed or hated the scent of. He knew Phainon was smelling that alpha who had been in his bed last night helping him find his ‘true self’ in the words of that alpha, but he couldn’t smell it yet.

It was frustrating.

“Nope! You smell odd! I just want to help you smell nice!” Phainon informed him with a soft smile, nodding a few times as if to agree with himself.

But Mydei only gritted his teeth, feeling that creeping desire claw its way back inside of him.

He didn’t know what that meant.

“And smelling like you makes me smell nice?” Mydei grumbled out, knitting his brows together before moving to sniff at his own shoulder, keenly aware of icy blue eyes that watched his every move.

Nothing.

Nothing but the smell of his own laundry detergent.

Phainon was silent for a moment, obviously watching Mydei to study his reaction before perking up as Mydei’s eyes moved to meet his; “Hehe, yep!”

“Is my own scent that bad?” Mydei immediately asked, almost curious over it because he couldn’t really recall what Phainon ever thought of his scent.

Just that.. Phainon always wanted to cover it up - so it must be distasteful in his opinion.

“What? No no! No! It’s just.. Very distant! It smells nice, though!” Phainon was quick to damage control, making Mydei doubt his words just a bit. As if he didn’t want to hurt Mydei’s feelings by admitting his scent disgusted him, “I just can’t smell it under.. Whoever is on you.”

“Whoever?” Mydei immediately echoed as he blinked his eyes, tilting his head slightly to look at Phainon. So he smelled like someone else?

Phainon didn’t seem excited by that at all however, only narrowing his eyes slightly as he seemed to almost deflate; “Mn..”

That wasn’t a denial or confirmation - if anything, it sounded like Phainon was trying to run from answering the question. Silly, really, considering Mydei would know if he was close enough to anyone to get their scent on him..

“I smell like someone?” Mydei echoed out, mainly to pressure Phainon into explaining him and his thoughts. That worked, evidently, if Phainon’s brief scowl that mellowed out quickly told Mydei anything about his current thoughts on the matter.

Phainon huffed a breath of air audibly, clearly perturbed the more he thought about it. “.. An alpha. I don’t know them, though.. Unfamiliar.”

Unfamiliar alpha..?

Oh.. That’s..

“Ah.. Don’t worry about them.” Mydei mumbled out with a small cough to clear his throat, trying to ignore the sweat threatening to form as he thought about it. That had to be the man that had knotted him still on his skin, insane to consider when he thought about the fact it stuck to him throughout a shower..

Though, it did make sense.. The man did orgasm inside of him multiple times, he was probably drenched in the alpha’s scent and just couldn’t smell it. Kind of embarrassing to consider.

Phainon only seemed somewhat worried as he pursed his lips before obviously chewing at his gums, only for a brief second before speaking again; “.. Are they your friend?”

That.. Was a humorous question, one that Mydei barely had an answer for as he gave a laugh loosely; “You could say that.”

“Wh.. What are they to you, then?” Phainon asked with a small laugh, clearly curious about someone he didn’t know, and Mydei sighed because he knew he wasn’t asking out of possessiveness. He wasn’t jealous of Mydei smelling like another alpha, he was just wanting to know the new person.

“Well.. You have someone to help you with your rut, I have someone to help me with my issues now too. That’s all.” Mydei mumbled as he moved to stand up, not even shocked over the wide-eyed look Phainon was giving him. Mouth agape and stuck staring at Mydei as if he had just said something so vile.

But it was hardly anything that bad in his opinion.. He was just being honest.

His issues were that he wasn't someone Phainon cared to spend his ruts with, he wasn't someone that Phainon even considered on the same level as omegas for romance.

And someone was helping him with that issue. That wasn't a crime.

".. What?" The ghost of Phainon's voice barely was able to crack out, struggling to find any footing and Mydei could do nothing but sigh over it. He didn't expect Phainon to understand him, after all, Phainon had his own secrets he was refusing to tell Mydei. It was only fair that Mydei got to make this choice of becoming an omega for himself in secret.

"Don't worry about it, Phainon. Anyway, I have to go now, see you around."

"Mydei!"

Mydei stopped his feet at that, hearing that ever familiar voice jar gim out of his own thoughts as he clicked off his phone and tucked it away - instead moving his hand to the strap of his bag as he turned slightly. Just enough to look at the speaker that beamed at him as he walked over.

"Oh, hey." Mydei greeted flatly, blinking at Phainon as the man only grinned widely at him, seeming so smug over something already.

"I got that movie you wanted to see the other weekend! I'm free this weekend, if you're up for it?"

Oh.. Suddenly Mydei's phone was cursed to burn a hole in his pocket as he stared at Phainon, as he considered who and what he was just talking about..

Mydei could only sigh over it, "Sorry.. I have plans this weekend."

Phainon visibly deflated at that, looking more upset than the time Mydei had to tell him he knocked Phainon's toothbrush into the toilet on accident (why did Phainon leave the seat up, anyway?).

"You.. Have plans already?" Phainon murmured out quietly, knitting his brows together before moving to cross his arms over his chest. Looking more like a scolding parent than a best friend that was wanting to hang out as his eyes slowly narrowed into Mydei's skin.

Mydei could only hum and flitter his eyes away, instead focusing on the nice open summer air that was warmly about them, "Yeah."

Phainon was silent for a moment before pressing out a laugh, one that instantly demanded Mydei's attention back onto Phainon; ".. Really? Introverted Mydei who always refuses to go to parties with me has plans without me?"

Mydei had to give him a blank look over that, it was true he hated parties and high energy events - he would much rather be at home with a book in hand and falling asleep on his couch than at whatever event Phainon wanted to drag him along to.

Well.

Used to. Phainon long since stopped trying to make Mydei go out with him ever since his ruts started to happen almost bi-weekly, probably now invited omegas just in case the worst happened while he was there.

"Yeah, with a friend." Mydei muttered at those thoughts, trying his best to blink away his doubts - there was still the slimmest chance that Phainon may change his tune towards Mydei once he's an omega..

.. But it’s not like Mydei’s personality would change that much to match, he would still hate going to parties and things of that sort. It almost felt hopeless every time he deeply considered what he was doing and who it was for.

“A friend..?” Phainon’s slow question roused Mydei from his derailing thoughts, instead making golden eyes meet blue inquisitively, “That alpha from the other day?”

“.. Yeah.”

Phainon stared at him.

Unmoving for a few moments before tilting his head to the side, as if he was truly and deeply considering that ‘yeah’ to the very depths of his core for some reason.

“H..Huh.. What are you guys going to be doing?” Phainon asked rather languidly, as if he was pushing himself to even bother caring about what Mydei was doing.

Phainon was a good friend, of course he cared about Mydei not hanging out with him, but Mydei seriously doubted that the man wanted to know that badly. If anything, he was most likely going through a list of other things he could be doing with that time while not on his rut.

Thus, Mydei could only shrug his shoulders lazily - somewhat glad that he wasn’t chaining down Phainon with his choice in movies this time; “Don’t worry about it.”

After all, they liked completely opposite genres and swapped who got to pick the next one each time, this was probably a blessing in disguise for Phainon every time he wasn’t forced to suffer through a movie he hated while sitting too close to Mydei on the couch.

“You told me that last time..” Phainon muttered with a rather audible and dramatic sigh, one that made Mydei give a small chuckle over that soft of reaction.

“And I meant it. It’s nothing that could concern you.”

Phainon was silent at that, only standing on the pavement from their college idly, staring Mydei down as if his face would explain anything.

“.. You smell really odd again today, you know that, Mydei?” Phainon eventually said, making Mydei jerk his head backwards slightly out of blatant shock - because out of everything he had been expecting Phainon to say, it certainly wasn’t that.

“It’s fine.” Mydei mumbled out, shaking his head. It’s not like he could smell the alpha on him, even if he fully knew why he would smell like that man. It didn’t bother him, and most people wouldn’t blink an eye over it - some people even sometimes assumed Mydei was an alpha himself due to always smelling like Phainon. Not like this situation would be any different.

“But.. Is it fine?” Phainon seemed to disagree however, instead taking a step closer to Mydei - shaking his head as if to show how he already disapproved of the answer being ‘yes’.

Not like that would stop Mydei from giving his review of it regardless; “I can’t smell it, so it doesn’t matter.”

“I’ll fix it for you then..” Phainon immediately countered, moving towards Mydei with an arm outstretched.

Mydei was used to this, used to Phainon rubbing himself incessantly onto Mydei. Scenting. That was supposed to be a claim, supposed to be romantic and dreamy, to be loved and cared for by an alpha.. But Mydei couldn’t even delude himself into thinking it was anything but Phainon hating the smell Mydei was carrying around.

“See.. This is much better, Mydei..” Phainon murmured as he rather obviously sniffed at Mydei, scooting even closer to sniff his shoulder where his hand had been pressing into Mydei’s clothes.

But..

He didn't.

Mydei didn't 'see' that it was better, he couldn't smell whatever Phainon had done to him at all - it was merely a foreign concept that never left the back of his mind every single time Phainon scented him. A piece of the man he loved that he couldn't experience, not even as a friend.

Mydei sighed over it, blinking away those repeating thoughts uselessly; "If you.. Say so."

Phainon only energetically nodded at that, much like a puppy in his nature as he nodded at top notch speeds, "I do! Hehe.. Maybe we could hang out during the week, then?"

"Maybe." Mydei mumbled out, creasing his brows as he tried to think of what nights he was.. Busy on.

But Phainon didn't seem very accepting of that as he gave a sharp laugh, "Haha.. That's not a yes! I wanted a yes!"

It happened a lot of the times where Mydei had to tell Phainon no, or he just wasn't even an option. But he had never been someone that couldn't hang out, he always had his days open and free for Phainon especially. So the idea of him being busy was strange, he could admit it.

Mydei sighed over those thoughts; "I have to check his schedule."

Phainon blinked languidly, almost as if he was trying to figure out what the hell Mydei was saying before shallowly laughing slowly; ".. His? Are we inviting a third friend, haha?"

Mydei shook his head rather abruptly, there was no way in hell he would be inviting the man he hired to turn him into an omega to hang out casually; "Well.. I mean in case I'm busy.."

"Ah.." Phainon said, sounding rather defeated, "Okay.. I see.."

Though, his actions were the strangest ones yet at Phainon side-stepped slightly, just enough to get a side view of Mydei before moving to grab at his hair, just enough to pull it upwards. Why? Mydei had to fight the urge to jerk away as he instead only slowly raised one eyebrow over the action, cat-like eyes watching him keenly.

“What are you doing?” Mydei inquired, because he had no earthly idea what the man could be trying to conjure up now, what the hell was his damage? But Phainon only kept his eyes focused ahead as he seemed to be messing with Mydei’s hair.

“Nothing.” Phainon eventually decided as he released Mydei’s hair - combing through it with his fingers to fix it back apparently, “You’re okay, right, Mydei? Nothing.. Is bad between us, right?”

Mydei knocked his hand away at that, pressing out a laugh to try to relax the alpha who was assuming he was being replaced as a friend or something, “I’m fine. The same as I’ve ever been.”

“Ah but you.. Right. The same Mydei as always! Right!” Phainon tried to perk up, smiling at Mydei as he moved away again - seeming more and more like he was trying his best to put on a facade. One that Mydei couldn’t be bothered to try to figure out the meaning behind, nor did he think there was any deep meaning behind it.

“You’re the one acting weird.” Mydei fired back at those words that sounded unconvinced, and Phainon gave a laugh at that.

Mydei wasn’t sure of that - something about Phainon’s tone sounded hollow, forced out even, as if he was struggling to even consider saying those words. But that was fine, since well..

“I don’t think you’ll ever meet him.” Mydei grumbled out, moving to comb a hand through his hair before latching onto his braid at the side of his head idly.

Phainon gave a loud whine over that, almost seeming insulted by it, “What? Why not? I can be friendly and charming! I won’t bite!”

“Just.. Don’t worry about it.” Mydei mumbled in reply quietly, he wasn’t sure how to tell Phainon how he knew that alpha - or if even could. His face felt scorching when he even considered the fact he had been paying that alpha to knot him and breed him until he became an omega.

It felt dirty, it felt wrong - he wasn’t sure if he could confess to such a thing before it just.. Happened.

He couldn’t hide from it when he was finally turned into an omega, but for right now.. He had to avoid Phainon’s eye contact for the last scraps of his self confidence and sanity..

“I’m worried about you..” Phainon eventually caved and said with a heavy sigh.

But Mydei couldn’t help but wave it away idly,“I’m fine, I promise. This is for the best.”

“For.. The best?” Phainon quoted, sounding almost choked as if the topic was a struggle for himself, “If you say so.. I won’t stop you but I’m here for you, you know? Anything you need, I’m here and if I’m not, tell me and I’ll always come running.”

Phainon could say the sweetest things - so tender and kindly, music to Mydei’s ears. But it only made his stomach do flips uncomfortably. Phainon would do anything for him, but Mydei couldn’t even help him with his rut and other alpha tendencies?

He couldn’t even smell the way Phainon smelled and scented him with - or the way the other alpha smelled.

He was still just a useless beta when it involved Phainon.

“Thanks.” Was all Mydei managed to choke out, trying his best to ignore his creeping feelings of inadequacy yet again. They had been rampant lately with no way of stifling them - how could he?

Every time he saw Phainon with other people it just reminded him where he stood - some type of odd social outcast when people talked about how nice Phainon smelled. His best friend, the man he secretly loved, and he couldn’t even do the bare minimum for him.

He was still useless.

Mydei wasn’t surprised.

Not at this point.

Phainon:
Mydeimos!! ٩(^ᗜ^)و ´- Bad news.. I started my rut surprisingly again this morning! I won’t be able to watch the movie at your house today.

Phainon:
Can we reschedule?? I really do miss my best friend.. I’m so sorry for being flaky lately haha.. (つ ᵔ ᵕ ᵔ c)

Phainon:
I’ll make it up to you! I prommy!

Make it up to him?

Mydei had his own problems to worry about, much, much worse ones as he sluggishly moved around his apartment - scrounging for anything he could find.

It was too much.

There were too many smells in the air, so many that Mydei had never smelled in his life before - and the worst part was the wetness seeping out of him and down his legs.

His entire body was burning, even as he moved through his own apartment looking for things - he felt so itchy and uncomfortable. Even though he had already discarded his clothes he was wearing. But it was as if his body was losing its self-control, going absolutely haywire..

Mydei knew what it was.

He had heard about it so many times, and seen it happen a few times to startle people.

He was going into heat - there was no way he wasn't with how he had immediately woken up and started rummaging for anything that smelled like Phainon. But even that made him upset and made whines bubble out of his throat.

Because what.. Did Phainon smell like?

Even as Mydei found Phainon's clothes - he wasn't sure if this scent was right. There was something distant like vanilla, but Mydei washed all the clothes Phainon left around his apartment already.. He intended on giving them back after all.

He could only pray it was enough to nest like omegas apparently did, to comfort himself as he felt his emotions beginning to spiral in distress. A new freefall that he hadn't experienced before - he had long since come to terms that Phainon didn't want him.

So why?

Why was he still stumbling around his apartment while sobbing, tears rolling down his face all the while trying his best not to think about how badly he wanted that alpha to comfort him and tell him it would be okay..

Phainon wouldn't.

Phainon didn’t want Mydei.. Even if he was an omega now, even if he was in his first heat, Phainon already had chosen his partners for his rut he was currently enduring apparently.

And Mydei.. Mydei would have to just suffer his first heat alone.

That was fine. He had already come to terms that he may be changing his secondary gender for an alpha who didn’t want him at all, getting knotted over and over again only praying one day it would be Phainon instead.

But now as Mydei tucked articles of clothing that Phainon had left behind on his bed, all clean and washed by Mydei to help Phainon out - he knew it never would be.

He didn’t even know as he slowly lowered himself onto his bed if it was Phainon scent, or the alpha that had been knotting him’s scent that welcomed him. All he knew was he numbly found his phone, trying his best to ignore the agony brewing in his body and the distraught emotions rising up as he reread Phainon’s texts.

Best friend.

That’s all Mydei ever would be to him, someone that couldn’t help with his rut, and wasn’t worth seeing during it.

Mydei:
Don’t worry about it. I’m busy too.

Phainon:
Ah! Really? Can I ask what with? Your bestie is always nosy, you know!! ヽ(。> ᵕ <)ノ

Mydei:
It’s nothing you need to worry about.

Phainon:
That makes me worry even more! You're usually such an open book! My dearest bestie Mydei is hiding something from me??

Mydei:
Don't you have a rut to be thinking about and handling with some omegas?

Phainon:
(╥〰╥) I really wish I didn't.. I'm sorry..

Mydei didn't feel like replying to that, instead moving to toss his phone to the side lazily.

It was useless to him, no alpha would be coming to aid him - no one would hear him cry or whine.. He was alone in this mess he made for himself. All he could do was curl into a ball and grasp at one of Phainon's black shirts slowly.

Cradling it gently to his face, sniffing at it in a mess of emotions.

Everything on it was so distant, he had become an omega to smell, touch, and love Phainon. And he had gotten none of that - he was nothing but a fool. They weren't even dating, they had never even kissed, and yet for some reason Mydei really thought he would be given a chance with Phainon if he merely changed his secondary gender?

Idiot.

What else could he do now but use that shirt to cover his face, dab his tears that were ceaseless, and let out another full-body wracking sob consume him?

“Mydeimos! Have you-” Phainon immediately paused, abruptly halting his words to give a bizarre expression - so blatant in his obtuse amount of shock towards it, “You smell.. Really odd?”

“Do I? I’m just tired..” Mydei mumbled as he numbly sat there - it wasn’t a lie.

His entire body ached from how unsatisfied he was, he really was going to need to buy some dildos or something to be able to put up with his heats alone, because that was agonizing.

What was even more agonizing was the way he now knew it for a fact - this was Phainon’s scent.. The vanilla was there, only slightly, but even the slightest sniff his way told Mydei the bulk of the scent Mydei had been smelling during his heat.

.. Was the alpha who kept knotting him before.

That.. Was upsetting, but if anything.. He tried not to smell Phainon - trying to ignore it in favor of remembering he would never have this alpha. He didn’t need to try to sniff him and see how much he would enjoy his scent.

Phainon wasn’t his, besides.. Mydei could smell the other omegas on Phainon already.. That was enough of a reminder of where he would forever stand with Phainon as any.

“It’s.. You smell..” Phainon leaned forward slowly, squinting his eyes towards Mydei, “Who have you been hanging out with? An omega I don’t know?”

Something about that question made Mydei’s skin crawl and itch - Phainon was teasing. Of course he was. But the way Phainon always seemed so eager to meet new omegas drove him insane.

.. He was an omega now and this man still didn’t think of him - he never would.

“Are you getting a whole new friend group without me?”

Mydei looked at Phainon at that question, staring at the alpha who had sat just a bit away, the alpha who was giving him that weak smile like always.

He didn’t know what to say.

He didn’t have many friends, let alone ones Phainon didn’t recognize the smell of - and Mydei..

Mydei didn’t want to just be another omega added into Phainon’s collection, he didn’t want to just be another thing to use on his rut, even if he craved Phainon and his attention.. He knew Phainon didn’t want him, even if he did become interested in him due to him being an omega..

It still wouldn’t be the same way Mydei wanted him as loyal mates..

It was hopeless.

Mydei could only grit his teeth and look away, downwards in his growing distress - praying his homework would distract him enough from Phainon’s scent today.

It was warm.. Soothing almost, one that Mydei really wanted to drink in.. He wanted to ignore it all the same for his sanity on the other hand.

“Haha.. Not in a very talkative mood today?” Phainon asked, and an instant pang of guilt found its way worming into Mydei. He shouldn’t be ignoring the man he wanted as his alpha but this..

This was too much..

“.. Mydei? You..” Phainon trailed off, and Mydei snapped his head upwards when he heard the sound of Phainon’s chair moving, “Are you.. Are you okay? You..”

“Pardon me..” Mydei jerked at that, barely able to stop himself from flinching away from Phainon’s touch as he gently grabbed onto Mydei’s arm. Not hard, merely enough to keep him in place.. And the worst part of how, was how Mydei wanted more of that touch.

More of those calloused hands touching everywhere on him, anywhere that they wanted to map out on his skin. The way they were warmed to the touch made Mydei grit his teeth - hard. He could only will the last of his sanity to snap his arm out of Phainon's gentle grasp. Barely even registering the way the alpha had been sniffing at him feverishly.

"Oi, I didn't say you could sniff me." Mydei grumbled out as he tried to jerk away from Phainon, narrowing his eyes over the way the alpha had stopped sniffing at him. Even if he had yanked his arm free and tried to angle himself away - Phainon only leaned in more to sniff. Lowering himself slightly to Mydei's seated position.

"Mydei?" Phainon quietly started in a confused tone - one that seemed so very stunned at the revelation he was slowly unraveling, "Mydei you smell.. So odd?"

Mydei keenly watched Phainon before raising a brow, eyeing the snowy haired man as he straightened himself out, "So what?"

Phainon moved at that, just to cross his arms a tad and place a hand on his chin as he stared downwards at Mydei, looking very concerned.

"You smell.. Almost like an omega? I can't smell your normal scent at all.." Phainon murmured, sounding more and more baffled as every single word left his own lips. And Mydei could only slowly shrug, shaking his head over it before flicking his eyes away from the alpha. To anything else.

What was he supposed to say but the truth as he watched Phainon sit back down across from him at the table?

"That happens when you get bitched, I guess."

Silence.

There was a heavy and dreadful silence that hung in the air after those words, so daunting and relentless in its existence that Mydei couldn't help but look at Phainon again. Searching the alpha for any clues into his thoughts and feelings on such a matter.

".. Huh?" Was the intelligent reply he earned as soon as his own eyes met cerulean blue ones that were merely remaining on him. So blatantly stunned that it would have been cute, if not for the topic at hand between them both..

Mydei blinked at those eyes, "What? I thought it was just easier if I was honest."

Because honestly, that did sound easiest, but apparently it wasn't.

Not as those blue eyes only seemed to widen in shock, or maybe horror - Mydei didn't know as Phainon remained there silently, staring at him with such an aghast expression that looked to deepen as every second passed them by.

"You're.. Someone.. You're an omega?" Phainon's voice cracked as he asked that simple question, and Mydei couldn't really blame him for it. Not really. Not when he considered what that meant and how Phainon probably was having to think about it and realize his friend had been sleeping around with some alpha.

But that didn't really matter, did it? Phainon slept with omegas all the time for his ruts..

Mydei huffed at his own thoughts before shrugging his arms lazily, "Yeah."

"Y.. Yeah? You're being so casual about this? You.." Phainon trailed off, looking more and more upset as he tried to understand it all, "You let someone.. An alpha.."

"Yep." Mydei agreed without him even finishing, because of course he knew what the man was going to say. What else would he ever say? Mydei didn't mind, though, not really. If Phainon was in shock, he didn't blame him. After all, he didn’t really give off any signs that he was going to do this besides wistfully watching Phainon run off to have sex with people.

Phainon remained silent for a moment, appearing as if he were going through every emotion known to man before giving an odd garbled noise. One that Mydei found himself widely blinking at a Phainon’s hands met his own face before groaning into them as he dragged them down his face.

“Was.. That what you kept being busy with?” Phainon eventually inquired after the display, making Mydei blink several times at the rather odd reaction. Did he just.. Really not want Mydei to be an omega? Was he that disappointed over this situation?

Mydei didn’t know, considering the fact he had never seen Phainon give such a reaction like this one.

“Yeah.” Was the flat reply Mydei gave - because even if Phainon was flabbergasted and upset, it’s not like Mydei could just.. Undo it? He was now stuck with this secondary gender, and at the end of the day, at least Phainon could walk away from him if he wanted to.

Mydei was stuck with this fate however.

Phainon only moved to card a hand through his bangs, brows knitting and furrowing with him rather obviously biting and gritting his teeth together. “And you didn’t come to me to..”

Mydei blinked at that, staring at the way Phainon seemed to be grooming himself now, still rubbing at his hair before moving to scratch at his chin incessantly.

This was clearly a topic he didn’t enjoy at all..

“To?” Mydei pressed regardless of that, because what did he want him to say? What did Phainon hope he would have come to him for?

To make him an omega? There’s no way he could have asked his best friend for that, especially now that he knew Phainon seemed rather unhappy with it. Wasn’t it for the best that he had gotten someone random to do it instead of ruining their friendship?

“Nothing. I just.. You wanted to be an omega?” Phainon shook his head loosely before sighing as he spoke, and Mydei could only tilt his head at this.

Phainon smelled good, it was almost distracting as Mydei got more and more whiffs of it - almost like his pheromones were ramping up over this conversation they were having. Was it that much, really?

Mydei had to ignore, had to try to ignore the way he had almost assumed Phainon was being territorial about him. There was no way that was the case, and Mydei really wouldn’t be able to say for sure regardless. Instead, he only shrugged his shoulders again; “Yeah.”

“You.. Never told me about that? Haha..?” Phainon nervously asked, and Mydei had to bite back the urge to laugh. He wanted to be an omega for Phainon in specific, how on earth could he have told him that? The alpha wasn’t even dating him, he didn’t need that added stress and guilt.

Mydei instead had to swallow down the lump in his throat as he moved to cross his arms, only to somewhat tightly hold himself for a brief moment. It didn’t last long as he instead moved a hand to mess with the braid at the side of his hair idly.

“You have your own omegas and issues, I didn’t want to bother you with my stupid issues. So I found my own alpha to help me.” Mydei mumbled out and the silence between them both was almost palpable as Phainon only sat across from him.

Staring.

Mouth opening and closing like a fish out of water before he finally choked out a very scant amount of words; “Your.. Own alpha..”

“Yeah, it’s fine.” Mydei informed him with a yawn, a nervous thing that his body had happen because he may have been holding his breath a lot currently. He didn’t really know.

Phainon remained appearing distressed before he seemed to perk up; “Any.. Anyway.. Your issues aren’t stupid, Mydei! I.. I..”

He didn’t remain like that for long, as if that facade crumbled as soon as he thought about the situation again, returning to borderline scowling as his blue eyes focused on anywhere but at Mydei.

“What?” Mydei blankly asked over how Phainon was wilting and decaying currently, fighting everything possible all at once. But Mydei had no idea why, it wasn’t Phainon’s issue, it was Mydei’s. He didn’t need to worry about it, Phainon had his own health issues going on and Mydei had no right to make it even worse.

Of course he didn’t tell Phainon about his petty lovesick problem towards him, how could he? He had been a horrible friend, and the least he could do was not include Phainon into all of that.

“Nothing.. I’m.. Glad you’re happy now.” Phainon mumbled out, voice rather quiet as he tried to still remain supportive before audibly sighing. “You.. Are happy now, right? With.. Your alpha.. And being an omega for him?”

Mydei lifted his brows at that rather curiously as he watched Phainon’s hand settle on the table in front of himself. Only before tapping idly on the wood there, as if he was doing yet another nervous habit that Mydei wasn’t aware of.

“You remembered they’re a ‘he’?” Mydei asked slowly, finding that rather humorous for some reason, because on earth had Phainon cared to remember such a useless detail about someone he wouldn’t meet?

Phainon stared at him with a rather stoic poker face before breathing out a heavy breath of air, one that sounded like he was either amused or frustrated - Mydei couldn’t tell, “.. Yes.”

Mydei scoffed at that admission, “Impressive. I’m fine. My first heat alone was rough, but I think I’ll be fine now.”

“Your first heat.. Alone? Why were you alone?” Phainon seemed almost distressed immediately - hands pressing against the table as he leaned closer with creased brows knitting together, “Where was your alpha that did this to you? Why were you alone?”

Mydei could only groan as he leaned more into his chair, sliding down it a bit lazily as he closed his eyes, “Doesn’t matter. I wanted to be an omega, and now I’m getting the full experience of being one.”

Suffering through a heat alone was for sure something he would be experiencing a lot now in his life. He didn’t know why he jumped onto this idea in hindsight, especially since he wasn’t a cute, small, and tender omega that alphas would adore to dote on. He was tall, strong, and much too firm in his muscle mass..

No one would ever want him as their omega, and their children’s mother, and for some reason - the idea of that made his mood instantly sour horribly.

“I.. I would have helped.” Phainon hushedly uttered out, making Mydei blink at those words as if he could see them in front of his face, eyes moving to focus on him again.

.. Helped?

Helped Mydei with his heat? That sounded ridiculous, Phainon would have way more fun with any of his regular omegas, no matter how much Mydei did want to enjoy a heat in the arms of this alpha specifically..

Besides..

“Nonsense. You were busy with your own omegas and your rut.” Mydei pointed out with a small laugh over the thought of Phainon daring to leave his comfortable cutesy omega for time with Mydei. It just wouldn’t happen.

Phainon stared at him in utter silence for a few moments before slowly chuckling, a low and quiet noise, “That was.. Your first heat was during my rut?”

His voice was odd, sounding almost scratchy and hollow, as if he was terrified of the answer. But what was Mydei supposed to say to comfort him for bailing on the movie? That was fine, it wasn’t as big of a deal as Phainon was making it to be. They were both busy with their own biological issues.

“This weekend? Yeah, so don’t feel bad about flaking on me. I was busy anyway.” Mydei said with a lazy shrug, nothing but the truth as he spoke but Phainon seemed.. Wholly unconvinced as his entire face screwed up into one of.. Odd emotions.

Even worse, was the new smell that Mydei was facing, one that made him blink and look around almost confusedly.

It was so very bitter and heavy in the air, it was almost choking him - was this the scent of someone upset that people always mentioned smelling horrendous? Worst of all, he couldn’t even really pinpoint it due to all the smells of people overwhelming him still. He didn’t know if he could ever get used to this, really..

“You.. Had your first heat while I was in my rut?” Phainon asked, making Mydei’s head snap forward to blink at Phainon. The sight of him.. Was just as baffling as Phainon seemed to be absolutely scowling at him. Almost disappointed or nervous looking.

“Yes?” Was all Mydei could utter in reply, because what the hell did Phainon expect him to say? No? Even though he just explained that?

“I..” Phainon seemed to sway slightly as he leaned back into his chair, looking almost stunned as he still remained staring at Mydei, “And you were.. Alone?”

“Are you okay? You already asked me all this.” Mydei asked, but with those words Phainon stood up rather quickly - his chair making a horrible noise as he shoved it out.

“No.. I think I need to go for now, honestly.” Phainon murmured, more to himself than to Mydei as he hurried picked up all of his things again - not much studying to be discussed that happened between them.

Had Mydei.. Angered him somehow? Upset him? But Phainon was also on his rut? It should have been fine that they both were busy, right?

“Alright?” Mydei questioningly replied as his eyes only flickered around to watch Phainon pick up everything - not even sure what to feel as that man paused to look at him, expression wholly indecipherable as he seemed to mix between them.

“I.. I’ll text you later, okay?” Phainon promised, and Mydei really wasn’t sure what to say to that, not with the speed that Phainon was trying to leave. Trying to do his best to get away from him at top speeds, it was absolutely absurd to think about. And Mydei couldn’t wrap his mind around it at all.

“Okay.. Take care.”

Phainon was absolutely avoiding being anywhere near him.

That much was obvious - especially considering how Phainon saw him in the hallway and immediately turned away.

That was an insane thing to him. He knew becoming an omega would change their friendship if it didn’t make them mates - but he didn’t think his scent would become so rancid that Phainon couldn’t even handle being around him anymore.

He had heard about Phainon leaving to throw up right after finding out Mydei was an omega now, and Mydei couldn’t even hold it against him.

He had taken a gamble, and now the only person he had ever wanted to call his was disgusted by him - wholly and completely. Phainon hadn't wanted him as a beta, and now he wouldn't even speak to Mydei as an omega.

Just Mydei's luck, really.

Now he had to really face the music and come to terms that he would have to find an alpha to spend his heats with - or suffer alone. Honestly, as he moved to sit down at the ever familiar study hall he couldn't help but set all his books down and tap in his passcode.

He for sure wouldn't look at any toys while in public, but it sure was a creeping and gnawing thought to. Instead, he moved to his contacts slowly - leisurely to debate if he really was willing to find an alpha..

Could he really manage to settle for anyone but the man he made himself an omega for?

That sounded really farfetched..

"Mydeimoooss.." The voice Mydei knew as well as his own started, quietly and behind him - drawing Mydei to look over his shoulder immediately, blinking at the white haired man quickly shuffling to his normal seat across Mydei.

An absolutely dopey grin on his lips as they met eyes, one that only continued as he settled his stuff on the table as well - clearly intending on sitting here.

".. Phainon?"

"I've been looking for you!" Phainon chirped out, looking almost too happy as he spoke those words - something really good must have happened to him. Mydei couldn't say what that was considering he was starting to have completely mixed feelings every time he saw Phainon.

His newfound omega self desperately wanted to crawl into his arms and be pampered, but his logical self already knew that wasn't going to happen considering the reaction Phainon had given him the other day.. And today. And that alone made a sinking feeling of dread ever-present known to him.

Mydei couldn’t help but shake his head with those thoughts, and the very fact of, well..

“Have you? It looked like you were doing the opposite when you saw me, actually.” Mydei pointed out with a brow arching upwards, leaning on the table just a tad to try to understand the alpha.

Why was he bothering playing pretend with Mydei? It really didn’t make any sense in Mydei’s head.. He knew they had been friends for such a long time, but if his new scent was that horrible to Phainon - Mydei didn’t want him to suffer.

“Haha..” That laughter was the most forced and anxious sounding noise Phainon had ever made towards Mydei. It really wasn’t aiding the ‘forcing himself to be around Mydei’ situation in Mydei’s head as Phainon continued, “Nope! I just remembered I had to do something first!”

Right.

At those words, Mydei crossed his arms over his chest before leaning away - back against his chair to get a wide stare of Phainon.

“And throwing up after you found out I’m an omega?” Mydei inquired, because that had been haunting him to his very core. Because who on earth wanted to smell so awful that it brought your own best friend to vomiting their lunch?

Not Mydei, and yet, that had been his fate apparently.

Phainon cleared his throat at that, looking almost embarrassed or nervous yet again as his eyes darted away, evidently trying his best to look at anything but the disgusting omega sitting across from him. His eyes eventually flitted back at a few breaths of silence, just enough to give yet another small anxious chuckle.

Was that a nervous habit Phainon had? Mydei didn’t know that Phainon had any quirks like that, apparently he didn’t make Phainon anxious or worried before now..

“Ah.. You heard about that?” Phainon murmured, more to himself than an actual question - but Mydei had every intention of replying. And asking for more details about it.

“The timing lined up perfectly. Do I smell that bad?” Mydei mindlessly asked, he really did need to order some scent blockers now that he knew this about himself - and he didn’t even try to hide the way he moved one of his hands idly to rub at his neck.

At those overactive scent glands almost numbly - his new problem in this world - and he tried his best to ignore the way those icy blue eyes silently stared and keenly watched his hand rub at his neck.

“No.. No, no.. Gods no..” Phainon eventually managed in an exasperated tone, huffing out a rather audible sigh before giving a soft pitiful laugh, “It’s just we haven’t been able to watch that movie you wanted to watch still! Are you.. Free this weekend for our date?”

“Sure.” Mydei answered without much of a second thought, only before giving a sharp bark of laughter over the idea of going over to Phainon’s house right now, “We can watch it over at my place if you want to avoid me stinking up your apartment.”

If he was trapped around this woody-odd-vanilla scent constantly, he might actually go insane. Or worse due to his new biology, but the idea of either happening made him shake his head before blinking at wide blue eyes.

“What!? No no, I have a bigger TV! Of course you can come over!” Phainon told him much too energetically, as if he was more offended by Mydei’s idea than Mydei himself was, “Also, you don’t smell bad, silly.”

Silly.

Was it silly to think that when he had already made Phainon throw up from his scent alone? He didn't really think so.

"If you say so.." Mydei sighed out regardless of his own feelings, because at the least, he didn't want to disappoint the alpha due to his own self-inadequencies. He could probably just stop by the pharmacy and pick up a decent amount of scent blockers and the likes before going over.

Hell, even take them with him just in case it still wasn't enough.

"I do! I'll buy lots of your favorite snacks and we can cuddle on the couch like old times!"

Something about that made Mydei feel glee.. As if his inner omega was purring at the thought of being pampered by this alpha but.. Phainon had other omegas. This affection wasn't for Mydei personally, it was just because they used to do it as an alpha and a beta.

But it wasn't that simple anymore, was it?

Now they weren't just two friends sharing a couch together and Phainon being a friendly alpha to drag Mydei closer to him - now Mydei was an omega.. He could accidentally be trying to sway Phainon with his scent and not even realize it with how inexperienced he was.

"I don't know." Mydei eventually muttered out, trying his best to reason out all his paths he could take to avoid it - but it was still.. Risky? Nothing he would blame Phainon for, of course, he just didn't want to hurt their friendship either.

Phainon only blinked at him, once, twice, maybe three times - Mydei lost count before the man uttered one thrilling word in reply; "What?"

"Really, I'm not good at controlling my pheromones yet.." Mydei grumbled out, shaking his head languidly.

"That's okay! I don't bite." Phainon told him gently, trying to sound reassuring but those words only made Mydei tilt his head to the side - staring at the man he wanted to bite him more than anyone else in the entire world.

The whole not biting thing was part of the issue, in Mydei's opinion.

"Er.. Maybe a bad joke, but you can trust me, Mydei! We've been friends for years, I'd never do anything to you!"

I'd never do anything to you.

Right..

Mydei wasn't an omega, not in his eyes. He was still just Mydei, his childhood friend that couldn't be anymore than that.. And Mydei had gotten himself turned into an omega for this man.

How could he have been so stupid to take such a risk like this?

Phainon seemed uncomfortable as he gave a small chuckle, "Uh.. Unless you.. Wanted me to?"

"What?"

"Nothing nothing! Your scent is just.. You're.." Phainon waved his hands defensively before giving such a very loud sigh - one that seemed more distracted than anything as he knitted his brows together, blue eyes searching Mydei ceaselessly. "You've always been so stoic with your emotions on display, but now your scent gives it all away."

Oh.

Mydei's scent must have changed while dreading the fact he had doomed himself to a life of suffering, huh?

Mydei huffed out a sigh before moving a hand to ruffle through his own bangs, trying his best to disperse his derailing thoughts. They were still friends, they were just friends, and Mydei shouldn't have assumed that was going to change just from his secondary gender changing. He was a fool for it, and it wasn't Phainon's issue.

“You seem upset, is what I’m getting at..” Phainon quietly continued as Mydei’s prolonged silence continued, taking it as a sign to keep babbling it seemed while Mydei was busy drowning in his own useless thoughts. He really was such a useless best friend to Phainon.

Mydei sighed at that; “I’m fine, we can watch it at your place. I don’t care.”

Only the effect of his words was instantaneous as Phainon visibly perked up over those words, “Yay! I’ll make sure to spoil you!”

Spoiling him? Was it because they were friends, or Mydei’s newfound predicament?

But Phainon only gave him a lop-sided grin over that lazy reply, “Hehe.. It’s a date, Mydeimos!”

Mydeimos felt himself and his own newly found omega self keen over that word.

Date.

And as days passed..

Mydei had been looking forward to it - really, he had been. But as he awoke, he had to quickly come to terms that there was no way he could possibly see Phainon today.

Why?

Why did he get another heat today?

He had really wanted to hang out with Phainon like they used to, it was so unfair.. And he had done all of this to himself, doomed himself to handling these heats alone, and whining sobbing into Phainon’s scentless old clothes weakly.

He hadn’t even cleaned up his awful and shabby nest from his first heat - why would he? Phainon’s clothes were comforting, not nearly enough, but it was nice to have something of the man he would never have for himself. Even as his hands moved to fumble and find his phone, he had to remind himself of that.

Phainon wasn’t his alpha, this wasn’t his problem. Mydei had done all of this to himself willingly, and if he had to suffer through them alone as karma for his stupid choice, so be it.

Mydei:
I cannot come over. I’m busy today. Sorry.

Phainon:
What!! You cancelling on me of all people is a new one.. (>﹏<)

Phainon:
Busy with what? Do you need help?? I’m strong, you know! I can lift most things with ease! ≼(ˋ•ᗜ•́)≽ I can come over there instead if you want!

Phainon:
My entire day is free! Just let me know! I’ll get driving right now if you need me to, Mydei~ ८(• ̫ •)ა

Mydei:
It’s nothing you need to worry about.

Phainon:
Huh! You know, the last time you told me that.. I found out later you were suffering through your first heat alone!!! So now I’m even more worrrieeeddddd… (つ ºㅿº)

Mydei:
Ironic. Yes, It’s that.

Phainon:
What? Seriously? I was joking..

Mydei could feel the disappointment radiating through his phone, so fierce and irking that he gave a sigh. He truly was nothing but an annoyance to Phainon now - barely even childhood friends at this point. More like just strangers trying to keep their friendship alive out of guilt and being chained to the past.

And that probably was why Phainon was trying to hang out with him when he hated Mydei's new scent - it most likely drove him insane.

Guilt, and maybe pity towards Mydei's situation somehow.

Mydei:
Yeah. Sorry to inconvenience you. We'll have to reschedule, I'll talk to you in a few days, maybe.

Mydei tossed his phone to the side at that, instead curling up again.

Another heat.

This wasn't supposed to happen, but apparently it was his body catching up due to the lack of heats to his current age. Insane.

What was more insane was the way his phone began to ring and vibrate like someone desperately wanted his attention - Mydei couldn't be bothered however. Not as he slowly just remained crumbled on his bed, on top of a mess of Phainon's old scentless clothes. The only comfort they brought was in knowing they were his, it didn't smell like him.

It didn't help Mydei.

It couldn't soothe the ache in his body and the want, all he could do was slide off his boxers and throw them off the bed lazily before crashing down again. Just enough on his side to creep a hand behind himself.

Wet.

He was so very wet back there due to his own slick, it still made him shiver as the pads of his fingers ghosted the tight ring of muscle there. Mydei wasn't even sure if he was supposed to be embarrassed or thankful with how easily he could press two of his fingers into himself, slipping inside warmly and tightly using his own body's lubricant..

Insane.

Mydei moved to grasp at his bedsheets, trying his best to angle himself to be able to sniff any bits of Phainon he could possibly get as his fingers slid deeper inside.

Useless.

It was so useless, there wasn't anything that told him Phainon was here - it only smelled of that other alpha so deeply. That only made the ache in his entire body so much worse when he considered this was what his life would be life. There was no Phainon in his bed, only this stranger's scent that wasn't comforting at all to him - he was going to have to settle.

Settle and find an alpha willing to share his heat with him, if he wanted any of his sanity intact. But even that was a big ask, he would be getting many heats to catch up to his new biology.. He couldn't make someone suffer through that for him.

There was no winning.

Mydei was alone in this sea of torment and struggle, going beneath the waves endlessly as he tried to figure out solutions. And none of those solutions would ever help. It didn't matter, anyway.

It wasn't enough, his answers for the problem he forced on himself, or those two fingers lodged into his ass twisting and curling into him. It wasn't enough, only giving him kitten licks of pleasure when he hit the spot he was aiming for was rubbed slightly. Agony.

It all was agony, unending and ceaseless, he wasn't even sure how long he kept doing that for being moving his free hand to cup at one of Phainon's shirts. Dragging it closer in a feeble attempt to smell more, anything.

And he got nothing in return, from his past heat and sleeping in the messily made nest, there was nothing of Phainon left. Much like their friendship assuredly was now, not a bond between them to be spoken about with how they both seemed intent on avoiding each other biologically.

“Mydei..?”

That voice made Mydei freeze, two fingers still knuckle deep in his ass pausing completely as that familiar voice spoke out to him.

No.. No way.

That was the only sane thought Mydei had as he slowly turned his head from his curled sideways laying - just enough to meet the eyes of the man he desperately wanted and craved standing in the doorway.

“Are those my clothes?” Phainon asked in a hushed yet shocked tone, and at those words Mydei’s eyes immediately flitted back to his other hand, jerking to instead throw that shirt across the room ashamedly. No longer sniffling into it, now just focused wholly on the man in the doorway..

And.. Those fingers still in his ass - but he didn’t know what to do, was he supposed to pull them out and try to cover up? His logical brain said absolutely, but another part of him wanted to woo this alpha, to spread himself and put on a show, to be filthy and whine and weep even more. Even if the tears already wouldn’t stop as he sniffed loudly once more, already missing that black shirt.

“No, no.. Not important, I’m here, Mydei..” Phainon instead quickly pivoted as he moved to the bed rather swiftly, almost looking distressed as Mydei pulled his own fingers out of himself nastily.

He wanted to die.

To hide away from Phainon - he was stark naked with his own fingers previously in his ass on a pile of Phainon’s clothes. He was pathetic. What was he supposed to say? He even had been snuggling his face into Phainon's old clothes as well, and that alpha saw it all..

"Phai-.." Mydei tried to begin, only able to choke out a small sob as he really did realize who was here, the only alpha he wanted to be here.. But he had just had his fingers up his ass, he couldn't face him like that, instead clumsily dragging himself to an upwards sitting position. Embarrassing, he couldn't imagine how he looked as he felt slick oozing out of himself still.

Only, Phainon didn't seem to wait at all, instead moving into Mydei's bedroom abruptly quickly and crawling onto the bed to wrap his arms around Mydei, "Yes, Mydei.. I'm here, It's okay.."

So sweet and quick with his movements, instantly dropping everything to rush to Mydei's side.. It wasn't hard to see why so many omegas wanted Phainon. It wasn't hard to see why Phainon was already gone before Mydei had even changed his secondary gender; he had just been too blind to see it.

"No, I can't.." Mydei found himself murmuring as he could still smell them on Phainon, even with the man seemingly giving off such a deep and soothing pheromone to try to calm the weeping and sniffling Mydei.. He could still smell the omegas Phainon already loved.

"Can't what? It's okay Mydei.. You can.." Phainon trailed off, struggling almost to find his words; it seemed as he only moved a hand to comb through the back of Mydei's hair with shaky hands, "Just use me for today."

Use.. Him?

Mydei didn't want to use him, he wanted to keep him forever and have Phainon belong only to him. He wanted to kiss and cuddle this alpha on a daily basis - he wanted so many things that every time he thought about it only more tears pricked at his eyes and began to flow.

Because Phainon smelled like so many different omegas, Mydei couldn't even truly place his own scent.

It hurt, this alpha wasn't his.

Use him for today.

Just for today, and never again.. That was the cruel reality he was subject to, wasn't it?

Mydei didn't even need to ask if the thoughts made him sob even more as Phainon seemed intensely focused on wrapping him into his arms. Tugging him close and moving a hand to rub a small circle at the base of Mydei's spine leisurely.

Anything to comfort him, it seemed. How pathetic was Mydei to wish it wouldn't end?

"It's okay.. I'm not him, but I'll do my best.." Phainon murmured softly, and that was confusing as all hell to Mydei.

He's not him? Who on earth was he talking about?

"H-" Mydei couldn't even get out his confusion, instead a whine ripping from his throat as soon as Phainon tried to pull away even slightly, finding his arms moving on their own to wrap around the alpha.

"Mydei.." Phainon started with a heavy and audible sigh, seeming to melt back down into Mydei's arm - only to fully move deeper into Mydei's grasp, nuzzling his head into Mydei's shoulder slowly. His hands creeped to Mydei's hips timidly; "Can I.. Help you? God, you smell so good.."

Mydei smelled.. Good?

Was that just a feat of being in heat if his pheromones usually disgusted Phainon to the point of throwing up? He had never smelled a heat himself, so he had to assume that this was the only route of logic as Phainon's grip on him only tightened, pulling him forward slightly - just enough to have Phainon nose at the scent glands on his neck.

Mydei whined over it, feeling himself keening into it - desperately wanting that man to bite down onto him and claim him as his own, instead Phainon only shakily sighed out a loud noise before pulling his head away to look Mydei in the eyes.

“I really will do my best, okay? I promise it..” Phainon genuinely seemed to mean it as he furrowed his brows, trying his best to look very serious but Mydei still only saw his best friend. The love of his life staring him in the eyes, how.. How was Mydei supposed to stay strong when all of his senses just wanted that man in any shape he could possibly get him?

“Please.. Help me.” Mydei whimpered out, feeling all the more pathetic as those words left his lips. He never had ever thought he would be begging for anyone to have sex with him, and yet..

Phainon was cute, the way he immediately shook his head up and down so very quickly, the way he seemed to perk up and look excited. It made Mydei’s head feel almost dizzy, was he practically guilt tripping him into having sex with Mydei due to his heat?

“Yes.. I can do that!” Phainon beamed out instead as he moved about on the bed just a bit, hands never leaving Mydei’s hips as his eyes wandered lower almost languidly as they went. Most likely because Mydei wasn’t the normal type of omega he was used to, he wasn’t petite and cute, he was everything Phainon didn’t look for, really.

“Uh.. With my fingers, or do you want me to use my mouth, or, uh..”

“Is your dick broken?” The words left Mydei’s lips before he could even really process them himself, feeling instantly ashamed over the way he had watched Phainon’s eyes widen over the words.

“Well.. No, but..” Phainon awkwardly flitted his eyes away, clearly uncomfortable by the request and Mydei couldn’t blame him, not at all as he felt those tears burn and prick at his own eyes.

He wasn’t Phainon’s omega, he was just saying such debauchery boldly, it was unlike him. He could only sniffle and try his best not to cry. To hold himself back from mourning their swiftly crumbling friendship at the hands of Mydei.

“I get it.. If you don’t want t-”

“No, I want to! Gods, I want to.. Lay down!”

‘Lay down’.

That sentence was clearly a demand as he interrupted Mydei, a hand flying to the middle of Mydei’s chest before shoving him back down onto the bed rather roughly. So much so that the breath was nearly knocked out of him as he blinked, tear filled eyes trying to stare at the alpha who was already spreading Mydei’s legs apart to make room for himself between them.

“Just, are you sure? You’re in your heat. I don’t want you to regret it..” Phainon asked, but Mydei was already oozing out even more slick from the way Phainon’s eyes were so unabashedly staring towards Mydei’s lower region. Was he sure? He had done this to himself just for this man, of course he was sure..

“Please.. I’m begging you.” Was the quiet plea that fluttered from Mydei’s lips instead, weak and pathetic, just like how he was doomed to keep feeling today it seemed, especially as he visibly watched Phainon seem to swallow at that. Just before wetting his lips and making his blue eyes dart around the room, clearly in thought.

“Okay.. Do you have condoms?”

Ah.

Well.. He wasn’t really sexually active, considering he was a virgin until the bitching service.. And the whole point of that was to not use condoms..

“No..” Mydei grumbled out, still watching that man blink and try to solve whatever riddle was happening in his head.

“N.. No condoms? But I..” Phainon immediately trailed off, seeming heavily distracted as he gave a cough to clear his throat before bringing his eyes back to Mydei, “What if I struggle to pull out? I could get you pregnant, Mydei..”

Struggle to pull out..? God, Mydei really wanted him to struggle, to breed Mydei full and fully satiate his omega. As such, he couldn't help but scoff loudly, "So what..? Just take off your clothes already."

"S.. So what? Mydei, that's a big choice to make while on your heat, you aren't thinking clearly." Phainon was saying that, sure, but Mydei was merely laying there watching Phainon tug his shirt off while speaking, before copying with his fingers moving to his pants quickly. As if he was trying to convince Mydei of rethinking while actively indulging in it.

Mydei couldn't help but snort derisively over it, huffing as he narrowed his eyes and watching as Phainon paused at his pants; "I would.. Be thinking more clearly if the alpha in my bed would do something.."

Phainon made a small noise, a whine almost that Mydei could not clearly understand the intentions behind at all, "But.."

Right.. Phainon really didn't want to get Mydei pregnant, he probably did not really want to have sex with him at all - so the idea of having sex and a pregnancy scare must be too much for Phainon. It made the guilt eat Mydei alive easily as Mydei blinked out more tears for some reason over the thought.

Over the realization of what he needed to say to at least get any relief from the ache he felt towards this alpha in his bed.

"I'll.. Abort it if you're against me having your children that much."

"That's.." Phainon trailed off before shaking his head, eyes moving back down to focus on tugging down his pants as he moved away slightly, just enough to give himself room to fully remove them and his underwear. "You don't have to do that Mydei.. I'd be a really good dad.."

"Then knot me and show me." Those words left Mydei's mouth before he himself could stop them, only to jerk his head back slightly as Phainon turned fully towards him again with his fully nude body on display now to match Mydei.

Large. Large and girthy, those were the only words that Mydei could think of when his eyes found purchase on Phainon's cock. Maybe as thick as a soda can, and Mydei didn't even know how many inches that was.. Too many, probably - it made him swallow back whatever saliva was forming in his mouth at it. At least the smell of his heat had given Phainon an erection already so that was solved..

"What a demanding omega.. But that's to be expected of my Mydeimos, huh?" Phainon murmured as he gave a low chuckle, moving to settle between Mydei's legs once again. Only before sitting on his legs mainly, just enough before moving to tug Mydei's ass closer and slightly upwards - apparently for a better view of what he was doing.

Not like it mattered as Mydei jerked slightly over how much different it felt to have two fingers slide into him when it wasn't his own. Much better, more pleasurable, but it still wasn't what he wanted - not by a longshot.

"Stop.. Just put it in.." Mydei grumbled out, trying to hold his voice steady as tears threatened to choke him with every word - this was miserable..

"I don't want to hurt you! Let me loosen you up.." Phainon growled back as his fingers didn't stop twisting and bending inside of him with a third finger joining, clearly not aiming for pleasure, no. Phainon was doing just what he said, trying his best to loosen Mydei up to take that monster cock between Phainon's legs.

But Mydei would rather it spear him open painfully than this agonizing slowness Phainon was making him suffer through, he just wanted to have that dick rearranging his guts than this pathetic fingering attempt from a clearly heat-driven-insane alpha's clumsy fingers. And at this point Mydei wasn't sure if it was his own inner desires wanting this from Phainon, or his heat talking.

"You think I haven't been fingering myself open enough before you were here? Seriously? You walked in with my fingers in there.." Mydei hissed at him, because this was not enough at all, no matter how much he enjoyed Phainon's gentle care - he didn't want it.

“My fingers are bigger than yours..” Phainon argued back regardless, and Mydei had to huff in annoyance just a bit as he felt a fourth finger push into him - nothing he couldn’t take. And nothing that was truly going to compare to the length of that cock between Phainon’s legs that was teasing him.

Especially as he could see it already beading precum and dribbling down his shaft, clearly excited by the omega waiting for him, yet.. Refusing to just put it in and ruin Mydei ruthlessly.

Mydei couldn’t help but groan over it, clenching his eyes shut as he leaned into the bed below him even more - trying just to focus on the scent of Phainon.. At the least, it was calming to know this alpha was here for him, even if the mere thought of how he wouldn’t be here for long made Mydei bawl easily yet again. He could delude himself just a little with every bend those fingers gave to his insides.

“I..” Phainon eventually muttered out, and Mydei snapped his eyes open to look at the alpha as he felt all of those long fingers leave him, “It’s hard to think straight, but I think you’re ready..”

“Stop thinking, put it in, and start thrusting inside me then.” Mydei instantly retorted, narrowing his eyes as he glared at the alpha between his legs, the alpha that seemed almost stunned by those words before shaking his head.

“R.. Right.” Phainon murmured, and Mydei only found himself swallowing as he watched those slick covered fingers move to Phainon’s own cock to pump it leisurely, just a bit.. Before dipping once more to Mydei’s hole, rubbing his things at the outside area and causing the omega to shiver.

Shiver with the knowledge that Phainon was collecting his slick to lube his cock up, having to recoat to cover it all as he evidently refused to hurt Mydei too much.

Though, It seemed Phainon’s patience was failing him as he moved closer, hands moving to readjust Mydei. Forcing his legs to rest on Phainon’s shoulders, and that made Mydei already blink over it. Not to mention the way a hand left Mydei's legs, apparently to guide that monster to Mydei's entrance.

No much flair was given from that point on as he felt Phainon rub his own tip against Mydei's hole, and Mydei wished he hadn't felt himself sputter out more slick over the cock pressing against him..

"Fuck.. It's going in.." Was all Phainon hissed out as he pushed his tip past the abused rim there languidly.

But Mydei didn't need to be told that, not as he felt himself stiffen over just how much Phainon was pulling him apart to fit even the tip in - so much more painful than anything else he had felt, even the other alpha's knot wasn't as thick as this. Mydei's breath was caught in his throat as he moved his hips slightly.

It was too much, too big, too thick, and yet Mydei only wanted more of it, feeling his own cock leaking so much more precum onto his own chest as Phainon moved him. Just enough to start bending him, clearly with intention as the alpha groaned with every inch that slipped into Mydei's wet warmth that clenched onto him hungrily.

"Relax.. You're really tight.." Phainon mumbled, and Mydei couldn't help but huff out a small laugh over it - eyes flitting up to meet dilated blue ones that were staring at him. Of course he was tight compared to the thing spearing him open, and even though Phainon said those words, it wasn't as if he had the mercy of stopping.

Still pushing the head of his cock into Mydei, forcing him open with every inch as he groaned deeply out of his own pleasure, clearly enjoying claiming Mydei's warmth. What was more, was with every inch that was pushed into Mydei, Phainon bent him more and more into himself.

"This position-" Mydei tried to choke out, feeling himself clench as he even thought of the name of it. A mating press.. A position that Mydei only hoped Phainon would make good on, and make it live up to its name..

Phainon hummed at those words softly, swaying his hips to grind the bit of his cock that was buried inside Mydei as he spoke; “Is it not good? Should we change it?”

“No.. It’s good.” Mydei tried to force himself to reply, “It’s just..”

‘It’s good’ seemed to spur Phainon back to guiding himself into Mydei as he moved to lean over the omega more, looking.. Intensely focused as Mydei clenched onto every inch being shoved into him. Too big.. Too much.. Too good..

Mydei gave a shaky breath as he tried to focus again, eyes only moving away from Phainon’s face to focus on where Phainon had them connected since Phainon was folding him enough for a view of it.. Only.. Half of his cock was inside.. Yet Mydei felt so full already..

Mydei had to swallow harshly and flicker his eyes to look at Phainon’s face again, trying not to think about how smug Phainon appeared, “You.. Seemed against getting me pregnant, now you put me in a mating press..”

“Mm..” Phainon laughed, a quiet and gentle thing before moving a hand to brush back Mydei’s rather sweaty or tears filled bangs, only before wiping at his cheeks tenderly, “You told me to prove I’d be a good father..”

Phainon bent down more at that, only to press a kiss lightly to Mydei’s forehead, “I can’t have you trying to slip away when I’m pumping you full of our kids, can I?”

That only made Mydei sob more, sobbing over the way he knew these words weren’t for him, these actions weren’t for him. This was an alpha drunk off Mydei’s heat pheromones, he didn’t want children with Mydei. He didn’t want love with him. He was just helping Mydei with his newfound issues as his best friend..

“I want..” Mydei barely whispered out the words, but apparently it was loud enough as Phainon’s hand remained on his face. A thumb gently stroking at Mydei’s cheek soothingly, not even seeming phased by the amount of tears that kept flowing from Mydei.

“Yes?” Phainon pressed Mydei onwards, much like that cock burying itself deeper into him still. But the pain was ignorable in favor of the agony his entire body and mind were feeling as well.

“I want to be bred..” Mydei choked out, feeling the burn of more tears leaving his eyes with the confession- a pathetic and mortifying thing that just wouldn’t stop today.

“I know.. Your heat wants it so badly.. I’ll do my best..” Phainon told him, only snapping his hips into Mydei - enough to stuff Mydei full on Phainon’s cock and cause him to gasp a whine out over the sudden jolt of being filled up. A clear sign that Phainon was probably losing himself to the pheromones of an omega in heat that was having sex with him..

.. Right?

Mydei didn’t really have any experience in that field, and could only assume so as Phainon readjusted himself now that he was fully inside Mydei. Moving to lay his elbows down at the sides of Mydei, enough to cage around him as he leisurely and timidly slid out barely and back in.

“What did.. That other alpha do with you?” Phainon asked as he lowered his head, enough to bury his face in Mydei’s shoulder as he stayed only barely sliding in and out of Mydei - obviously just warming up as Mydei remained sniffling his tears back over it.

The.. Other alpha?

It hurt his head to even try to imagine and remember that alpha again, it was only a sore reminder that he would have to settle with a different alpha again later. That this was merely a one time gift from Phainon, and he wasn’t his alpha.

He never would be.

“.. Just doggy.” Mydei mumbled, he didn’t want to do anything else, and he hadn’t wanted to look that alpha in the eyes either. At least if he did that he was able to imagine it was Phainon, even though now he knew they were way different size wise..

“How many times did he knot you?” Phainon asked, still keeping his head buried into Mydei’s shoulder as he spoke those words. Words that made Mydei knit his brows and close his eyes even more over. Trying to cease his crying that kept threatening to kick it into high gear when he had to think about that man again.

“.. Three.” Mydei managed to admit, feeling those tears leave him even as he kept his eyes closed, trying just to focus on the few sparks of pleasure he felt with every slow drag of that cock in and out of himself. It wasn’t enough, but if he was good and willing, he would get more, right?

“Alright.. Well! Let’s start, shall we?” Phainon seemed to perk up instantly, making Mydei blink his tear filled eyes open to watch that man lean away from him, staring down at him with a rather endearing looking smile on his face. Lop-sided and carefree, the Phainon Mydei loved and adored..

The thought only brought out even more weeping from Mydei, “Please..”

Phainon didn’t need to be told twice it seemed as he moved to drag his cock out further, only to hip-shatteringly thrust it fully back in roughly. So much so that Mydei couldn’t dare to hold in the whine that tore from his throat over that monstrous thing crushing back into him relentlessly. Especially with how Phainon seemed intent on going as fast as possible.

So fast that Mydei couldn’t help but jerk every time Phainon slammed into him, his entire body twitching from the roughness and the pace.

But it’s not like Phainon had any mercy left for him as he gave a small laugh, “Don’t squirm.. I’ll satisfy you, Mydei.”

Squirming? It’s not like Mydei was trying to move around, his entire body was merely shaking from the intense pleasure of being full of Phainon’s cock. What else was he supposed to do besides whine every time Phainon pushed into and against his prostate?

“Your nipples..” Phainon huffed out after a few more thrusts, not slowing his pace of pounding into Mydei at all - and Mydei wasn’t even sure he heard him right between his own sobbing that was rampant. His.. Nipples?

“Inverted.. I always thought it was so cute..” Phainon continued on, and that only made Mydei slam the back of his head into his pillows more. He finally had the man of his dreams nine-inches (or so Mydei assumed) deep inside of him, constantly pounding him deliciously and he was rambling about thinking his nipples were cute?

“But now I’m worried..” Phainon hissed out as he slammed deeply into Mydei, ripping a harsh cry and moan from Mydei’s lips as he snapped his eyes open to stare upwards at the man relentlessly plunging himself into Mydei. “Will I have to rub them to make them come out and be perky for our kids to drink milk out of every time..?”

.. What?

“I’ll start practicing now, Mydei..” Mydei barely had time to register his own thoughts as a hand found its way to his pectorals, harshly cupping at it and massaging it testingly. Only for the briefest of moments before seemingly finding a place to keep the muscle there cupped and his index finger digging into his nipple.

“Wait-” Mydei tried to whine, only to be silenced with a rough thrust against his prostate, clearly telling him not to say much, that he was just supposed to take the pleasure he was given. And how could he try to refuse again as he arched into that touch, feeling the burn of his tears only pick up from how maddening it all was.

Phainon didn’t even seem to care, only lowering himself down more, wild icy blue eyes meeting gold as he keenly watched Mydei, licking at his own lips slowly, “I wish I had been the one to bitch you..”

Mydei could barely stop himself from jerking his entire body as Phainon pinched at his nipple that was now erect apparently, roughly tugging at it. Still dragging his cock ruthlessly over Mydei’s prostate in a practiced pace as he hummed, clearly enjoying the sight of a struggling Mydei beneath him.

Mydei couldn’t stop the tears that formed over it - over how delicious it felt and how delirious his mind was now with his swimming thoughts, every tug only going straight to his twitching useless dick sputtering out precum and his uncontrollable insides trying to milk Phainon’s cock for all it was worth with every inch he shoved into him repeatedly.

“You’re so tight, clenching down on me with every thrust..” Phainon muttered as he shallowly gave a laugh - a hollow and jagged sounding thing as it left his lips, “I wonder what you felt like as a beta.. I’m getting jealous all over again..”

Mydei tried to ignore it, tried his best to ignore every word out of Phainon’s mouth as he shut his eyes hard - trying to ignore those words and the sight of his best friend spearing him open ceaselessly. It was too much, it was everything he ever wanted and it was too much for that reason.

And Mydei could only whine and blink his eyes open as both of Phainon’s hands found their way onto his face firmly, tight enough to hold him in place as Mydei tried to understand what was happening.

Not like he had long to process it as Phainon’s tongue met his cheek, dragging upwards and causing Mydei to close his eyes again. Especially as his tongue seemed to lap against his eyelid multiple times before swapping cheeks and repeating the process. What was worse was how Mydei still couldn’t stop his pathetic crying.

Even with his eyes closed the tears were escaping him, he shouldn’t be crying and whining as he was getting his ass plowed, and yet with the jolts of pleasure new tears formed. At this point he wasn’t even sure if it was from overstimulation of finally being full and pleasured, or if it was due to just how upset he still was.

Phainon wasn’t his alpha. He was just trying to help his friend, this was nothing to him, no matter the sweet nothings he whispered and muttered during sex.. It was just due to Mydei's pheromones that he certainly didn't have a handle on, let alone during his heat..

Not like his thoughts made much sense right now either as Phainon only continued licking at him, his hot tongue dragging against his skin every second thrust inwards as he bottomed out repeatedly into Mydei.

"I can't.. I'm gonna cum, Mydei.." Phainon whispered so very close to Mydei's ear that it burned. Even more so as he felt Phainon's hands slide around him, practically locking him in place as Phainon curled around him - hips still snapping to push himself in and out of Mydei up to that swelling knot at the base of his cock that teased Mydei every time it met his entrance.

Phainon didn't let up at all, only harshening his movements if anything. It felt like he slammed into Mydei even rougher, whining out an odd noise as he seemed to fully reach his climax over his ruthless pounding. And Mydei could only squirm slightly as his body twitched with pleasure with every deep thrust, eyes focusing on that bulge that formed every time that Phainon shoved himself fully in.

Only, Phainon pushed in slowly after dragging himself out, pausing there..

The flood of warmth after Phainon paused that Mydei felt filling him was familiar, what was familiar was the way Mydei found himself whining and keening for more of it. He could get pregnant, this could actually make him have a child.. And yet, he was wiggling slightly to try to get Phainon to shove his knot in, to make that alpha make sure he was knocked up.

"Stop moving.." Phainon growled at him in a voice so unlike his normal one that Mydei.. Did just that, pausing at his eyes uselessly blinked back his tears of distress over the anger laced into those words. Was he.. Annoyed he came inside of Mydei?

It didn't work. His stupid attempt to stop his tears fell flat on his face as he had to come to terms with the realization of why Phainon was so irked. He didn't want to cum inside, he had talked about pulling out, he didn't want to accidentally get Mydei pregnant and his omegas finding out.

“It’s alright..” Mydei tried to soothe that alpha, even if his heart hurt and made his entire head spin, he could only try to choke out sweet words, “I won’t.. I won’t tell anyone you’re the father if that’s your worry..”

Phainon didn’t reply to that, only groaning as he nuzzled his head into the crook over Mydei’s neck even more, his cock still twitching and sputtering deeply inside of Mydei. Probably losing his mind to the bliss of using an omega to work out some stress, even if it would cause more stress later for both of them.

“Or I’ll take the pills or abort it, if you want..” Mydei told him, feeling himself breaking down as his eyes only stared at the ceiling, trying his best not to focus on the alpha breeding him and the happy feelings that were stirring inside of him with every bit of cum that was pushed into him. It didn’t matter. This wasn’t what Phainon wanted..

“You..” Phainon mumbled into Mydei’s skin hotly as he buried his head even further into the omega’s neck, “You didn’t cum, Mydei..”

Mydei blinked his eyes at that, trying to stop his crying as he even tried to figure out what that meant. What did that matter? Sure, it was his heat and he desperately wanted to cum, but being bred felt so good and pleasurable, it was as if his own omega was being sated knowing he was being filled with children currently..

“You’re in heat and I’m cumming before you..” Phainon murmured as he pulled slightly, just enough to give a rather upset expression to Mydei - looking like a kicked puppy more than a man whose dick was pulsing and still pumping cum into Mydei.

“What do I do..?” Phainon asked, still holding eye contact as Mydei blinked out more tears, trying to even think of the answer.

But Mydei only wanted one thing from the alpha that was currently teasing him with something so delicious..

“Knot me then..”

“Sorry, I-” Mydei tried to apologize for the demand immediately after saying it, for even saying he dared want such a thing - but the abrupt force of that knot instantly being pushed into him made him choke on his words. Mydei could barely even breathe as he felt his body being forced open to adjust for Phainon’s knot, blinking out tears for a whole new reason as he considered how much bigger his knot was than the man who made him omega..

Mydei couldn’t help but whine and grip as the sheets, feeling Phainon’s hold on him tighten to hold him still as that knot popped into him roughly. Mydei sickeningly wanted to purr as he felt a new thick spurt inside of him, more liquid being pushed into him as Phainon’s body seemed to realize he had an omega ripe for breeding. Even if Phainon’s mind hadn’t wanted such a thing.

“It’s okay! I’ll fix it, I promise! I’ll make you cum..” Phainon rambled, seeming almost as if he was talking to himself more than Mydei as he let out a quiet groan, still enjoying his orgasm inside of Mydei, “Stop being so upset with me, it’s okay..”

Mydei couldn’t help it, he could only whine and sob today it seemed, especially as he considered how much he was enjoying being bred by Phainon.. He wanted this.. But Phainon didn’t. This wasn’t supposed to happen, he wasn’t supposed to be getting bred by Phainon right now and the alpha was just.. Driven by the pheromones of his heat and the access to a warm slicked hole.

Phainon slowly leaned away at that, just to lean back on his legs a bit - still unable to move much more than that due to the knot that hadn’t gone down and Mydei had to fight a content sigh over seeing the sight of his own stomach now that Phainon wasn’t clinging onto him. The bulge that already existed due to Phainon’s oversized dick now seemed..

.. Larger. As if he truly was pumped absolutely to the brim with Phainon’s seed to breed him thoroughly.

Phainon didn’t seem to care about that however, instead moving a hand to press against Mydei’s abdomen - right above the shaft of his dick softly, almost testingly.

“Wh-” Mydei started, confused, about immediately giving a whine of a moan in reply as he arched into the touch, feeling the sparks of pleasure as Phainon grinded into him slightly. Fingers digging into Mydei’s stomach and pressing into his skin deeply, as if trying to massage something beneath the skin there. Something Mydei didn’t understand, but certainly wasn’t going to complain over when it felt so good.

Sparks of pleasure jolted through him as Phainon continued grinding, his hand working to massage up and down his own cock that was buried deep inside of Mydei.

“Is there good?” Phainon asked as his hands pressed into Mydei’s stomach, digging into the skin that was already stretching to make room for Phainon’s cock, “Harder? Rougher? What feels best, Mydei?”

Mydei didn’t know what to think or what to try to tell him, only able to arch into those touches and whine out garbled noises over how good it felt to have Phainon make his insides rub against his cock inside of him. Insides twitching every time Phainon pressed down roughly, just enough to make his prostate feel some stimulation with the movements and being squeezed into Phainon’s dick.

“Tell me, please.. I need..” Phainon murmured, still not pausing his incessant and rather rough kneading into Mydei as he tried to move his cock slightly, “I need to make you happy..”

Happy? How was Mydei supposed to be happy? Even if he was fighting his own drool back from pleasure, it didn’t stop those thoughts from flooding his mind every time he looked at Phainon. Those thoughts of his omegas and how he didn’t want a child with Mydei, how all this cum inside of him being used to breed him was just a waste.

How was he supposed to not immediately burst into more tears when he considered such a thing, even if sex felt so good, how? He didn’t have an answer, instead only weeping a bit more as his eyes trailed his bulging stomach that Phainon was still lovingly massaging.

“You’re emotional due to your heat, you know..” Phainon softly cooed as he removed a hand to instead wipe away Mydei’s tears gently, making golden eyes meet with blue ones that had much too much adoration lurking within them for Mydei’s own sanity, “That’s probably why you can’t stop crying, but you smell really upset.. Even with how good your heat smells, I can find the distraught under it all..”

“I just.. Want to cum..” Mydei lied, throwing his head back away from that hand and trying to stifle his sobbing, he should have figured Phainon could smell and realize how upset he was in his own thoughts. He had pheromones and scents now, he couldn’t just easily lie and be stoic anymore. And he hadn’t been able to cease his tears either, so that really wasn’t helping.

Even if he was full and happily bred, it only made him feel more upset if he looked at who was doing it - so maybe.. He just needed to stop looking. Zone out. Try to imagine it was just a knotting dildo he had ordered instead of the love of his life that didn’t love him back.

“That’s.. All, huh? I’m sorry..” Phainon mumbled as Mydei felt that hand return to his abdomen, roughly pressing and massaging his skin there against the bulge of his buried cock, “I’m such a lousy alpha for you..”

Phainon pressed down roughly, digging his knuckles into the skin before repeating it, almost as if he was trying to work the kinks out of Mydei’s muscles but instead. It only sent delicious sparks of pleasure up Mydei’s spine, so much that Mydei wanted to squirm away from it - embarrassingly feeling his own cock sputtering out precum over the squishing of his prostate into Phainon’s shaft inside of him.

“Here..” Phainon hummed out as he kneaded that spot relentlessly, clearly able to tell from the way Mydei was trying to escape him by wiggling and the twitching and clenching of his insides that the pressing there was his favorite, “You like it here.. You clench a lot when I press and rub here, does it force me into your prostate?”

“Stop-” Mydei tried to whine out, only feeling Phainon pressing more, deeper, rougher, quicker - as if he was trying to vibrate Mydei’s prostate from the outside and he began to jerk up and down swiftly as well.

“No.. You said you want to cum.. Cum from this.” Phainon growled at him, making Mydei jerk his hips slightly - only to moan another heavy noise over the friction it caused to run through his veins. He was trapped, stuck there and being forced to take the pleasure Phainon wanted to give him, forced to be roughly grinded into and used..

And for some reason, it was more addicting than anything else he had ever experienced - the thought of Phainon using him alone pushed him over the brink embarrassingly. Mydei slammed his head into the pillows, whining out incomprehensible words as he felt something hot spilling onto his own chest as his body jerked and spasmed over it.

Phainon didn’t stop his movements however, if anything, it was as if he sped up, making Mydei blink open his blurry tear filled eyes that were struggling from his recent release as well. Only able to sniffle and try to calm himself as that over-stimulation started, going from intense pleasure to now almost painful as his insides were still pressed repeatedly into Phainon’s shaft.

“Phainon..” Mydei tried to whine, blinking back to dots that were obscuring his vision as he tried to focus on the way his cock was still painting his chest white, covering his crimson tattoos messily.

“So pretty..” Phainon murmured as Mydei looked up at him, trying his best to understand what the man was on about as Phainon contently sighed, “I always wanted to see this..”

Phainon did pause his massaging and jackhammering with his hand, instead gently dragging it upwards to rub soft circles into the bump where Phainon’s tip was assuredly buried. A small purring noise escaping Phainon that Mydei had to blink wet eyes over.

“Our children are here.. Doesn’t that make you happy?” Phainon told him as his hand only continued to tenderly rub at the skin, “You feel so good..”

“It’s..” Mydei trailed off in reply, their children? Phainon.. Didn’t want those with Mydei. He was most certainly losing it due to Mydei’s heat pheromones, probably threatening to start his own rut, or already had. Mydei didn’t know enough about omegas and alphas in those fields to be able to say for sure.

“My knot is going down.. It’s okay.. I’ll pump you full again, I promise.” Phainon only rambled out as his hands slowly left Mydei’s abdomen, instead slowly returning to his hips to hold Mydei still, clearly satisfied by the way Mydei had now cum and was laying there panting heavily.

Though, Phainon did move one hand to Mydei’s cock, just enough to rub the slit of it roughly with his thumb, “Good boy.. Such a good omega..”

What was Mydei doing that even made him a good omega besides the way he had leaned into that touch, feeling those delicious sparks of pleasure working him back into a painful hardness swiftly? Mydei didn’t know, only able to watch as Phainon brought that thumb up to his finger and licked it slowly - keeping eye contact held as he seemed to grin smugly over the taste of Mydei’s semen.

“That’s not enough for your heat though, is it? Just one orgasm?” Phainon innocently asked as his hand returned to the bed, just before slowly bending Mydei once more, folding him into the mating press again. And that.. Mydei had the realization that his knot had gone down - that he was slipping in and out with some of his cum oozing from Mydei as well.

“W-Wait..” Mydei tried to ask him to wait, to pause for Mydei to have a moment to recover from his orgasm, but he knew it was useless as he was pressed into the mattress again. Useless, because he also wanted to keep being bred, and useless because from Phainon’s eyes alone it was clear he had given in to his instincts.

“No.. Be a good omega for me.” Phainon muttered back to him, eyes narrowing as he locked Mydei into the position, elbows resting on the bed at the side of Mydei and staring him down.

Only to roughly drag his cock out and snap it forward swiftly, instantly making Mydei feel those tears creep into his eyes again over the stimulation, “Phainon!”

Mydei’s hands immediately found their way to Phainon’s back, curling around him as the alpha started up that brutal pace - much faster and deeper than the first time, and Mydei had to hold in the yelp that brewed in his throat as Phainon licked a stripe messily up the side of his neck.

“So good.. I always wanted to hear that..” Phainon murmured as he moved to nuzzle his head against Mydei’s softly, “Moan my name more..”

Wanted to hear.. What? An omega whining like this? Didn’t that happen all the time to Phainon?

Instead, Mydei could only manage to moan over the pressure of that cock jackhammering into him roughly, every deep plunge making his entire body shake over the stimulation in his veins, “Phainon! It’s too soon!”

It was too soon, the way his cock seemed to bounce and slap into his chest was only adding to the friction, making Mydei whine over the bulging in his stomach every time Phainon bottomed out. Not even pausing at all over those words, if anything, moving harder, trying to be deeper inside Mydei.

“No.. You can cum again, be good and hold still.” Phainon informed him, not seeming bothered at all with the way Mydei’s claws were tearing into his back as Phainon only continued to plow into him. Phainon’s head was still rubbing into the side of Mydei’s, not seeming to care over the way Mydei was whimpering and whining over every rough plunge into him.

“It’s alright.” Phainon soothingly hummed as Mydei only gripped at him harder, holding on for dear life as that alpha abused his hole thoroughly, “My good omega.. You wanted to be bred, now take it..”

“You’ve.. Lost it!” Mydei growled that out, but he was loving this. Every thrust was rubbing against his prostate so deliciously that he could feel the drool forming and leaving his mouth, he couldn’t stop himself from trying to roll his hips to meet Phainon’s - chasing any licks of pleasure he could.

Phainon gave a soft and soothing laugh at that however, his pace not slowing as he spoke, “Never had it with you involved, really..”

“You’re not upset..” Phainon only continued on in between the slapping of their skin meeting and the whines of Mydei with every burst of pleasure into his spine, “I can smell it.. You want this just as much as I do..”

It all felt like too much, and not enough. Mydei’s entire body ached, and yet only wanted to get more of this - to never let it end while Mydei still couldn’t stop his annoying crying. Sniffling and choking on his own tears as his insides squeezed and struggled to make room for this alpha.

.. His alpha?

The thought alone made Mydei moan obscenely, squirming slightly under Phainon as he considered such a thing. He wanted it so badly, to be Phainon’s omega and have this happen to him every heat, to be loved and cherished by this man in a whole new way. It was an addicting thought.

“You like that? Being told you’re getting bred, or me calling myself your alpha?” Phainon asked, and Mydei couldn’t stop the way his body twitched and convulsed around Phainon’s cock over the idea of it, the desire to milk his alpha’s orgasm fully, “You keep tightening, even if you're not talking, your body is saying enough.”

“Phainon…” Mydei barely uttered, struggling to even catch his breath with how Phainon’s dick seemed intent on punching it out of him with every thrust into him.

“Admit it, my cute omega.”

Mydei couldn’t admit anything - not as he came immediately from being called Phainon’s cute omega, whining loudly as he arched his back into that cock not slowing at all. Still fucking into him with the loud snapping of Phainon’s hips hitting Mydei’s ass - plowing him into his very core ceaselessly.

“You’re cumming again, sweetness..” Phainon noted as he gave a small yet satisfied sounding laugh, only making a deep vibrating noise as he continued thrusting - one that made Mydei realize Phainon was purring mid-intercourse, “Does it feel that good to be roughly pleasured?”

Of course it did, what kind of question even was that?

Mydei debated growling at him, but as Phainon only continued his pace he was rendered unable - only leaning his head back and gritting his teeth as he tried to recover from his orgasm, tried to recover from the over-stimulation that was ramping up with every thrust. Every wet slapping noise of Phainon pushing in and out of him.

It was all too much, Mydei’s hands left Phainon’s back to instead try to grip at the bedsheet for stability, anything to get his mind right.

“So much crying and cumming, you need to stay hydrated to make milk for our children..”

Mydei didn’t even know how to unravel those words, instead blinking out more painful tears as he let out a deep whine as he felt that familiar feeling starting again.

Phainon was cumming inside of him.

“You can start with my own milk hydrating you inside.” Phainon told him, slamming his hips forward to force his knot inside as well, and Mydei could barely stop the stars from dotting his vision over his own orgasm and the fullness that almost made him nauseous. And yet, his secondary gender only felt pleased.

The omega in himself.. Was pleased that the alpha of his dreams was cumming again inside him, breeding him nicely with their children and talking about their kids and caring for them..

“You’re babbling so much nonsense..” Mydei finally managed after a few moments of merely feeling Phainon pumping deep inside of him, trying to recollect himself from his own messy orgasm as Phainon seemed to lean away slightly.

Mydei's eyes slowly met Phainon's - narrowing as the white haired man looked much too pleased and smug over the current situation, "You're still awake.. I'll keep going until you aren't, Mydei."

Mydei.. wasn't sure if that was a threat or a promise at this point. His legs were still shaking as they rested Phainon's shoulders, still feeling like they were numb and raw from just how rough Phainon had been going even while the alpha was merely remaining still, sitting there while he bred Mydei.

"Once this knot goes down again, I'll keep going.. Okay?" Phainon promised with a small hum, only making Mydei pathetically whimper over the idea of more of this. Was he the one in heat, or was Phainon full-swing in his rut now? Mydei didn't know, but considering his tears and how much he wanted to be bred, it was probably both..

"It's too much.." Mydei tried to say, whining those words out as he felt a hand move to massage his stomach, less bent on pleasure like before and more so just soothingly, as if to rub their unborn children yet again..

"Nope! We're only on knot three!" Phainon told him with such a beaming smile that Mydei couldn't help but whimper over it, biting at his gums over how he wanted it.. But..

Mydei only found himself moving a hand to rub at his eyes, praying he stopped this annoying ass sobbing soon, "I'm too full.."

"Cute.. So whiny and honest with your emotions with your new secondary gender.." Phainon noted with a quiet hum, "I need to breed you until you're fully sated."

Mydei was already sated, but a part of him wanted this - to satisfy this alpha who he loved so dearly, to let him have his fun in whatever ways he desired. As such, Mydei only let out a sniffle, a pathetic noise as he creased his brows.

“You won’t have heats for a while once you're pregnant, isn’t that nice?” Phainon asked as Mydei felt him sliding out once again, drawing a whine from Mydei’s lips easily as the fullness left him, fullness that surely would come back in just a moment as he felt warm liquids oozing out of him to follow that cock.

The omega in him almost mourned them seeping out, only, Phainon slammed back in - ripping a sharp moan from Mydei’s lips and a curse. But he was pleased all the same, keening into the way he knew it would shove cum deeper into him again, making sure he was bred to have their children..

“So wet inside from all my cum and your slick.. You feel so good..” Phainon muttered to himself mainly as he continued his thrusting, almost sounding giddy as his blue eyes only focused on where they were connected now. Clearly bent on focusing his efforts on making Mydei nice and pregnant like the omega wanted.

And that made Mydei only tighten around him, whining as he let the alpha do as he pleased and breed him deeply - every thrust driving him more and more insane with the ebbing pain of over-stimulation while drunk off the pleasure rushing through his joints every time that cock pushed into his prostate roughly.

“More.. Keep giving me more, Mydei..”

Mydei wasn’t sure what ‘more’ even meant, all he was doing was laying there and being a pliant hole for Phainon to get off in, squeezing and milking his cock with every thrust like a good omega should.

“Not talking much, huh?” Phainon asked with a quiet little laugh, “That’s fine..”

“Suck on them.” Phainon growled as he pushed two fingers into Mydei’s mouth, and that was annoying. Not because it angered Mydei, but because both of them knew Mydei had an oral fixation and that it was being used against him as he immediately obeyed.

His tongue worked to rub on his long thick fingers as they only pushed further into his mouth, showing no signs of pausing as Mydei gagged slightly on them as Phainon pushed into him roughly below. Mydei couldn't help it, the way he wanted to moan as those fingers threatened to slide into his throat. Almost mourning the way Phainon ran out of length.

What was worse was how his hands were on Phainon's wrist now, holding him there while the alpha continued fucking him ruthlessly. He didn't want those fingers to leave his mouth, keeping them nice and steady as he sucked on them and whined around them, but it didn't last long before he tried to remove them.

Only Phainon disagreed, shoving them back in as he gave a small laugh, "Good boy, cumming from just choking on my fingers, such a good omega.."

He was cumming, that was why he wanted them out of his mouth as he choked around them, struggling to get a grip on himself as he squirmed slightly. Hips jittering with every movement those fingers now were doing inside his mouth, bending and curling as if he was being fingered. Yet.

Mydei only whined more as he felt Phainon slam into him again, so roughly and painfully that Mydei was blinking back tears from gagging and the pain of being knotted.

"I'm so quick to cum inside of you.." Phainon murmured as he removed those fingers from Mydei's mouth with a heavy sigh, making Mydei blink his blurry vision to watch Phainon lap at his own fingers - cleaning off Mydei's drool and slobber from them with his own tongue, "I just want to breed you so much.."

Mydei couldn't help it.

Not the way he shut his eyes over that, nor the way he immediately fell asleep.

“Good morning, Mydei!”

Mydei had to sling himself upwards at that, or well - tried. The hand that splayed itself onto his chest and forced him back down halted those thoughts.

“You fell asleep with the third knot entering you! How do you feel?”

Fell asleep.. Or passed out?

Mydei was pretty sure it was the latter, but as he stared there and refused to even look at the man that had pleasured him to exhaustion he didn’t know what he felt. He was arguably.. Numb. His body ached and was throbbing, his insides felt odd and abused, his legs felt like jelly, but mentally he was completely numb.

“.. Tired, and sticky.” Was what he settled on instead, shaking his head rather slowly, squeezing his eyes shut, to try to stop the ache he felt in even those eyes. Probably from the amount of tears he shed all night long. All intercourse long, but it felt useless as an arm slowly crept across his chest gently - obviously moving to hold onto Mydei tenderly.

But Mydei.. Didn’t want tender moments from Phainon. Alright, he did, but not.. Not when Phainon had other omegas waiting for him.

“Mhm! I bet!” Phainon hummed out softly, making Mydei’s face burn over just how wet he still was between his thoughts and his ass.. Wet with his own slick and Phainon’s cum, just more sins to be written down for Mydei.

He wanted to cry again.

“.. I need to pee.” Was instead what left his mouth as he blinked at the ceiling, immediately rolling away from that hand that had been gently moving against his chest. Shuffling so swiftly off the best with a heavy sigh leaving his lips as the full weight of how exhausted his body was.

“Oh! Do you need me to carry you there? I-”

“No.. I’m fine.” Mydei growled out, throwing a look over his shoulder at the rather baffled looking alpha, not caring to read into it as he dizzily stood on his feet before trying to move to the bathroom, feeling his body wobble over it.

“You’re.. Are you sure? You’re limping..” Phainon asked as Mydei quickly made his way to his bathroom, sounding more and more distressed as he sat on the bed, and Mydei didn’t dare look at that alpha as he made it to the bathroom.

“I’m fine.” Mydei hissed back as he shut that door behind him, locking it immediately as he felt it. The disgusting amount of cum creeping down his legs as Phainon’s spent seeped and oozed out of him due to standing up, and the sickening part was how he felt almost upset to feel it go. His omega wanting to push it back inside of himself.

But he couldn’t.

Phainon hadn’t been in the right mind, he didn’t want Mydei or to breed Mydei, it was the heat doing that to him and maybe spurring on a rut in Phainon - he didn’t know.

All he knew was he had to take a shower, clean himself out.. But how could he as he turned on the water as hot as it went, feeling the ache in his bones from being pounded be so painful as they ebbed at him.

Miserable.

He was so very miserable, that much was certain as he only found himself slowly crumbling in the shower after closing the glass of it behind him - sitting down to just let it wash over him instead of trying to clean himself out. Every time he was awake now, it started so quickly; those tears falling from his eyes annoyingly. What was he supposed to do but hold his head in his hands and weep?

He had done this to himself, bought a bitching service to make himself an omega, got the alpha of his dreams, and it had only made him so much more miserable. His relationship with Phainon was doomed to dissolve so easily due to this, no one does platonic three-knots-deep breeding..

“Mydei.. Are you okay in there? I didn’t know you were going to take a shower, too..”

Was he okay?

Of course, not as he only sat in the shower with his knees almost pressed to his chest - almost. He had half a mind to hug them but he was still an adult, he couldn’t just actually curl into a ball and cry in the shower, could he?

Well, he had to admit he was already halfway there, but that didn’t mean he wanted to admit such a thing..

He couldn’t even muster up a reply as he sat there letting the water wash over him, praying it rinsed away Phainon’s scent and Mydei’s sins. He had always wanted Phainon, and yet.. He didn’t want to hurt another omega, he didn’t want to cause someone else pain for his own selfish wishes.

How could he do anything but sniffle and sob a bit more at the realization? Choking himself to stay as quiet as possible so the alpha at the door left him alone.

“I.. I would have taken care of you still, if you wanted..” That worried sounding alpha only continued after a few moments of silence between them both with only the water to fill the air.

“No need to do it in the shower alone instead..”

Do what in the shower alone? Sob and whine on the floor? Where else was he supposed to do it when the rest of his home smelled of Phainon so heavily right now? Even the scent of him made Mydei feel almost sick - how could he have done this to someone’s alpha? Lured him in with his heat and had him knot him and breed him?

Did his heat really make him lose his mind that much? Was he truly that lost during such a thing?

He felt like he hadn’t stopped crying while awake in hours, the only respite had been the few minutes or hours of rest he just got..

“I didn’t know you weren’t fully pleased yet.. Come back to bed, I’ll help you.” Phainon spoke out again, sounding more and more distraught with every single word, but Mydei only wanted to enjoy his long-ass shower. He wanted to shut out the reality of it all as he sat there and sobbed into himself.

Was that too much to ask?

“Mydei.. Please answer me.”

Apparently so if the door handle being shaken told him anything of the impatient alpha sitting outside the door whimpering - the air smelling so oddly sour and bitter.

“I promise I can do better this time..” Phainon tried to barter, but he had already done great and enough, there was nothing Mydei wanted from him. Nothing Mydei wanted that Phainon was willing to give him, at least.. “I’ll behave..”

Behave?

If anything Mydei was the one that couldn’t behave right and for once was considering that maybe Phainon was right - that his heat was dictating how rampant and fried his emotions were. He wouldn’t normally squander himself off into the shower and turn it on to weep, he would face the day regardless of his feelings. Not crumble beneath the pressure of it all.

“If you want I’ll just lay there..” Phainon spoke after a few moments of silence, only the shower’s water to stretch between them both, “You can do as you please with me.”

Do as he pleased to Phainon? He wanted to love and cherish Phainon, not use him and leave like Phainon wanted him to do. It all sucked so painfully badly, so harshly, his head was pounding now as he tried to just angle his head under more of the water.

Maybe he could drown himself if he tried hard enough..

“Mydei?” That dog outside his door called again, sounding more and more distressed as every single second ticked on and Mydei did feel guilty. He did, even as he whimpered and sobbed into the water, he felt guilty for shutting him out. For not speaking to him.

“Please, Mydei.. I can hear and smell you..”

But he just was hoping Phainon would go home, text his omegas that surely would be missing him deeply. Stop playing with Mydei’s stupid heart and just go, his heat was solved, Phainon could leave him and if Mydei was lucky, they would never talk about this day again.

“You have a willing alpha right here, I’ll be good.. Whatever you want, I promise. I’ll show more self control..”

Self control. Wasn’t more self control just.. Going home? Forgetting all about this? Both of them moving on and never talking about it again? Mydei downing some morning-after pills and avoiding getting pregnant to the best of his abilities or getting an abortion down the line?

Both of them had failed in self control, and Mydei wasn’t angry, if anything. He was just.. Disappointed in himself for inciting it all to happen, for not being stronger, for wanting it, for wanting Phainon.. He could only manage to move a hand to his face, messily shoving his bangs back with a tired sigh. He was really tired of crying when he thought of anything negative for two seconds too long as well..

“Mydei.. I’m going to break the door down, okay?”

Mydei had to pause his sobbing for a brief moment, blinking instead to think about those words as he tilted his head towards the door curiously. Surely.. This wasn't so important as to break down his door? He could cry in his own home in his own shower.. There was no need to break down the door?

Those thoughts certainly didn't matter to Phainon as Mydei immediately heard extremely loud thumping, eyes only blinking as he stared at the door uselessly. Blinking water drops out of his eyes as he merely watched the door shudder.

"Wh-" Mydei eventually tried to sputter out his confusion as he watched it happen, eyes only widening as that familiar door snapped off the hinges with another loud thud, "My door!" The words left Mydei instantly, staring at the man who didn't even seem to care at all about it.

"It's alright, I'll pay for it.." Phainon muttered quietly as he stepped around the toppled over door, only quickly nearing Mydei, enough to where he stopped at the glass that separated the both of them - staring down at Mydei who wanted to wilt away even more

"Phainon.. Wait.." Mydei tried to sob out, he couldn't smell them anymore - instead smelling something warm and soft as Phainon slowly slid the glass open for himself, expression almost looking as if he was on the prowl for prey as he neared Mydei, "Your omegas…"

Even if he couldn't smell the omegas on him, even if he had buried it away beneath Mydei's scent and his overwhelming alpha one, they were still at the forefront of Mydei's mind. But Mydei only let out a small whine over the way Phainon moved to join him in the shower, shutting that glass gently again behind himself - trapping Mydei with him in the small shower.

"It's okay Mydei.. My omega is here and needs help right now.." Mydei tried to lean away from him, to act like he didn't want those hands finding their way onto his hips and turning him slightly, "Do you want me to help you..?"

Help him..?

Even as Mydei bit back tears and tried to control his emotions, he couldn't stop his eyes from wandering downwards and onto Phainon's dick that already seemed to be leaking precum yet again.

".. Yes." Mydei choked out, only able to whine louder as he felt that cock instantly starting to slide into him yet again awkwardly from his position in the shower as he leaned on the wall.. Doing doggy here probably was going to feel like hell on Phainon's knees later, but if he felt that way, he said nothing about it.

"You're still in heat.. It's okay to enjoy it and want it.." Phainon cooed to him softly, much too kind and tender sounding for an alpha about to breed an omega once again - already popping the head of his cock inside quickly.

"I'm-" Mydei wanted to say it, to correct Phainon that he wasn't in heat, at least he didn't think so, but as he felt that cock filling himself back up he couldn't do much but whine as his fingers uselessly scratched at the flooring of his shower. Head lowering to sob out a pathetic noise as Phainon immediately pushed into Mydei's core.

"See.. I'm a good alpha.. It's okay, doesn't that feel better?" Phainon murmured, just loud enough to be heard over the sound of water from the shower. "Nice and full again.."

Mydei didn't know how to reply to that, not as he semi-laid there and found himself whimpering again. This was someone else's alpha, he had no right to be doing this, to be forcing Phainon into a position of feeling like he's required to help him. Required to pleasure him throughout his struggles.

Phainon didn't wait this time, instead immediately snapping his hips back and forth to thoroughly pound into Mydei - every slap of their hips and ass meeting making such a loud wet noise due to the water that Mydei found himself even more turned out. Even embarrassed over that getting him going as that monster alpha pounded into him.

"Is this good, Mydei?" Phainon's voice came between those obscene wet slams into Mydei, only furthering Mydei into insanity as he whined over the question, "Are you happy? Is there anything else I can do for you?"

Happy?

Mydei's fingers clawed at the floor again, trying uselessly to get a grip on anything that existed as his body only twitched and clenched with maddening pleasure. It felt so good to be receiving this type of sex, to be so used by Phainon. But happy?

Mydei didn't know, especially as his tears felt so relentless and still flowed freely with every whimper and whine that left his throat as he felt that cock stretching his body to fit it inside.

"See.. Don't worry, I'll be a good alpha, even if I'm not him.. It's okay.." Phainon continued on anyway, not slowing his pace at all as he brutally forced all of himself into Mydei repeatedly. Only drawing out more moans and cries with every thrust into him. Mydei had somewhat come in here to clean himself up, to not get pregnant like Phainon wanted.

And now it felt like the same man was just going to pump him full again - how was he supposed to not be only whining and crying in response with every brutal push into his prostate? But that phrase was grating and gnawing at him.

'I'm not him'.

Who was that? Surely.. As Phainon claimed Mydei again in the most carnal and intimate way.. He didn't mean that other alpha that Mydei had been bedded by.. Surely.. He wasn't thinking they were mates and Mydei was longing for that alpha.. Right?

"I'll take care of you, even if he won't." Phainon practically growled out as he thrusted into him, hands clawing into Mydei's hips to keep him upright as the water only beat down on both of them but Mydei..

Even if he won't.. That was.. Phainon thought Mydei had a mate that was neglecting him..?

Mydei found himself only lowering his head enough to touch the shower floor, giving a small whine as he tried to explain it, "He.."

“Yes?” Phainon pressed Mydei, not slowing at all as he continued his perceived duty of helping a suffering omega, but that only made Mydei sob out a few tears weakly. He had truly taken such horrible advantage of this man.

“It was a service.” Mydei managed to say after a few shuddering breaths, and the effect of what he had said was instantaneous.

“A service..?” Phainon’s thrusting paused for the first time as he echoed those words out, seeming almost baffled by those words and Mydei didn’t dare look at the alpha who had once been so intensely ravaging him carnally.

Mydei gave a whine over the lack of pleasure but fullness he felt before forcing himself to explain further, “A bitching service.. I paid someone to make me an omega..”

“You..” Phainon started, voice sounding strange, choking even before he let out a small garbled noise of frustration, “Paid someone to change your secondary gender?”

“Yes..” Mydei admitted, pressing his head to the floor even more as that cock remained just buried inside of Mydei, unmoving as Phainon held him still. Mydei couldn’t help but to weep more the second he admitted to it.

He was such a fool to do this to himself for a man he had never confessed to, deluding himself into thinking they could possibly be in love one day. Deluding himself that his secondary gender was barring Phainon’s love from him, it wasn’t that. There just never was a chance for Mydei, their differences in hobbies were too great, too much of a rift now was between them.

He was hopeless.

“W.. Why go to that length?” Phainon asked, but it's not like Mydei was going to answer as he only sobbed louder over the question, “Ah, don’t cry more, I’m sorry. I’m sorry..”

“It doesn’t matter now.. It’s done and I’m stuck like this.” Mydei quietly sobbed out, every word broken and pathetic in the way they left his lips. Broken and pathetic just like he was now, an utter fool and a man who had allowed himself to believe such an empty lie told by himself.

How did it end up like this?

“It’s okay.. I’ll take care of you now..” Phainon replied, sounding more quiet than before, and maybe it was just the blood rising to Mydei’s ears or the water hitting them both from the shower, but Mydei couldn’t find himself believing in those words.

He couldn’t; “You can’t..”

“I.. I’ll try my best, Mydei..” Phainon stammered out, trying his best to figure out where he stood and how to speak on it, at least, it felt like that, “I know I wasn’t satisfactory enough today, but I’ll do better I swear.”

Mydei didn’t reply - instead only shaking his head at those words. He didn’t know what this alpha was rambling on about while buried inside Mydei up to the hilt. Wasn’t satisfactory? Mydei was fucked out of his mind until he fell asleep, who wouldn’t feel sated from their heat with that treatment?

“I’ll learn everything you like, I’ll be a good alpha for you if you want.”

Cruel. It was cruel of Phainon to whisper such sweet nothings, only making Mydei laugh out a hollow noise, choked and pained as he tried to not feel so numb over it.

Numb over the only thing he could force himself to reply with; “I refuse..”

Phainon didn’t say anything.

Not instantly at least, instead both of them only sat there in the water filled silence that stretched on between them for a brief second before Phainon chuckled softly, “You.. Haha.. Yeah. I know.”

Something about his tone made Mydei’s heart twist in a dark way, achingly painful before Mydei groaned loudly, partly due to his omega wishing that cock inside of him would start moving - but the reasonable part of him was focused on one major detail; “I can’t steal someone’s alpha from them..”

“.. Steal? From who?” Phainon asked only before giving a nervous laugh over that - one that made Mydei close his eyes tightly, trying to shut that man and his cute laughs out of his mind.

“Mydei, it’s only ever been you.” Mydei froze at that, entire body stiffening as those words entered his ears strangely, “All my ruts were because of you, and the fact I couldn’t have you..”

Phainon sighed, his hands rubbing gentle circles into Mydei’s hips as he seemed to collect his thoughts before continuing on, “I couldn’t get satisfied, my body was going haywire because all I wanted was my beta best friend.”

All his ruts.. Were because of Mydei and wanting Mydei?

“I wanted you everyday of my entire life, and now I finally have you.. And you’re crying on the floor in the shower.” Phainon gave a tired sounding chuckle at that, and Mydei didn’t need to look to know he was shaking his head slowly over that, “Some alpha I am, huh?”

Nothing prepared Mydei for the way Phainon dragged out slowly only to snap his hips back in - thrusting deeply into Mydei and drawing out an embarrassing noise from his throat over the pleasure jolting through him within warning as Phainon returned to pounding into him ruthlessly.

“I really messed up.. And now someone made you an omega instead of me doing that to you..” Phainon only continued to mutter beneath his breath as his hands tightened, taking a firm hold onto Mydei before he gave a quiet hum - and Mydei found himself blinking his eyes over those words. Over all the words Phainon was saying now, really.

“Would you have wanted that? Me to breed you until you became my omega?”

Stupid question, really, considering Mydei became an omega for this man in specific.. Of course he would have wanted that and preferred that, but what was done was done - and now he could only find himself trying to stop his tears. Trying to regain his sanity and he grasped at the floor of the shower uselessly, sniffling a bit with every push that cock gave into him.

“You feel so good..”

“I’m not.. In heat.” Mydei tried to tell Phainon, giving a quiet moan over the way Phainon snapped himself forward at that - forcing Mydei to take all of him inside and squeeze on him in reward for his efforts. A whimper fluttering from Mydei’s lips over the roughness of every action.

“Are you not?” Phainon asked in a tone that told Mydei enough, this bastard knew he wasn’t now, yet he was still pounding away at Mydei, slapping their hips together wetly, “Can I breed you again anyway? Or were.. Are you in the shower to wash it out?”

Phainon sounded sad over the question he asked, as if he had watched someone kick his puppy - or was the kicked puppy. But now Mydei really was beginning to think Phainon was more of a wolf after the amount of times he had been knotted and speared open by his cock.

“Do I need to go buy you some p-”

“Shut up already.. Keep moving.” Mydei growled out, not enjoying the way he had slowed again over his worries with Mydei not wanting to keep the children. If anything - Mydei had been scared it was the other way around.. How stupid were they both?

“Bossy, even while crying..” Phainon sighed out, though he obeyed as he bottomed himself out again, punching a guttural moan from Mydei’s throat instantly with the weight of him all inside, “That’s my Mydei!”

It didn’t last long before with a few more deep thrusts, Phainon sounded nervous again, “But really, do you need me to go get some pills?”

“You talk.. So much during sex.” Mydei wasn’t sure if he wanted to laugh or to cry over it, shaking his soaked hair softly, “No.. If I have children, you can’t ever leave me.. Breed me more..”

Phainon on the other hand did the opposite, completely stopping and burying himself deep inside of Mydei, only to have his voice suddenly come out so painfully hoarse; “W..What?”

Mydei let out a snort, looking over his shoulder to for once eye the alpha that seemed utterly stunned behind him, blue eyes meeting sunset ones before Mydei narrowed his own; “I told you to breed me until I have your child, you fool.”

Mydei jerked slightly when he felt the rush of hot warmth flooding into him, Mydei almost didn’t believe it as he blinked at the turning red in the face alpha pumping inside of him, “You’re.. Cumming?”

Phainon looked uncomfortable before giving a small laugh, one of his hands leaving Mydei’s hip to instead rub the back of his own neck, “Sorry.. That was the hottest thing I’ve ever heard in my life..”

Mydei had to hold his laughter in over that, only fondly knitting his brows together as he shook his head slowly, “At least knot me then..”

“Right- okay, sorry.” Phainon immediately said with a rushed nod of his head before Mydei felt that familiar sear of his body opening for Phainon, spreading a part to make room for this alpha inside of him.

“You feel so good.. I love you, Mydei.” Phainon immediately mumbled out quietly as his knot slipped into Mydei, and embarrassingly, making Mydei groan and cum from it. Fingers once again scratching at the floor uselessly as he faced the front again, lowering his head to moan loudly with his eyes shut.

.. He didn’t dare consider the hot liquid from the shower brushing by him most likely wasn’t only merely water.

“I love you, I love you..” Phainon quietly chanted as he seemed to lean forward, crowding around Mydei as they both stayed under the water. As they both only sat there feeling the effects of their orgasm. Even if Mydei was literally feeling it a bit more and Phainon came inside him deeply and thickly.

“I love you.” Phainon continued, moving to press soft kisses onto Mydei’s spine slowly as he nuzzled against him, “My omega.. Mine.. Only mine..”

“I couldn’t even help myself.. You fell asleep, but I didn’t..” Phainon only continued, full on rambling and babbling at this point, but Mydei didn’t mind as he tried to blink the black stars that were blinding him, trying his best to fight the urge to just crumple and lay in the shower for hours.

Only Phainon certainly wouldn’t allow him to do that now..

“I kept going.. Using your thighs and cumming between them.. Cumming onto my own old clothes you nested with so they smelled more of me..” Mydei blinked over the confession, his.. Thighs? Was that why he woke up to them being so wet and sticky? He had just assumed the cum from his ass leaked onto them but.. Something about that made Mydei huff out a laugh.

This nasty alpha, cumming all over Mydei’s bed to soothe him.. Disgusting, yet oddly enamoring. Mydei was sure he would be pissed when he was in a normal headspace again..

“Anything, for you.. But I’ll be there for your next heat..” Phainon continued, ignoring Mydei’s laughter in favor of his own rambling to calm the omega it seemed, “Not like it matters, you’ll be pregnant. There won’t be another heat for a while..”

He would be pregnant.. Mydei had to will himself not to purr over the thought, instead huffing loudly as his bones seemed to shake from his efforts of the day.

“Carry.. Me to bed..” Was Mydei’s tired demand instead as he thought about it more.. Pregnant with Phainon’s child.. That felt insane, like an odd fever dream, yet.. He wanted it so badly, only praying that Phainon's seed did take inside of him.

"Of course, my love." Phainon murmured, still grinding his hips forward as Mydei heaved out a deep sigh - this man was going to be the death of him, but..

"There's.. Truly no one else in your life?" Mydei asked with another sob escaping him, he felt so very weak and feeble. The weakness may be due to the fact they kept having sex with sleep being the only mercy in Mydei's life in regards to that, but mentally.

Mentally he felt like he had been through every emotion he had ever known in his life all within a day. And got dicked down by the love of his life. No one quite was going through it like him, he had to at least hope so.

"It's only ever been you, Mydei.." Phainon told him, softly and gently as he moved to slowly exit Mydei, sliding his cock out once again before humming lightly. Just for a mere moment before he leaned over Mydei - shutting off the shower water before moving to open the glass.

And Mydei didn't dare watch. Instead remaining there in his doggy position with shaky legs and arms, feeling the seed dribble out of him slowly in an ooze with his own slick mixed into it. Only breathing raggedly as he listened to Phainon moving about, seemingly easily knowing his way around Mydei's bathroom before something very soft touched him.

Only for a brief second before Phainon seemed to rub him down slightly with the towel he had found, gently patting him dry just a bit before humming. And Mydei barely had time to process anything before he was picked up as if he weighed nothing - that wasn't very shocking considering how often Phainon had jokingly picked him up before.

But now.. They had confessed their feelings.. And Mydei really, really, had to try not to cry happy tears over it and stress the alpha that was carrying him in a makeshift bridal carry out even more. Instead leaning into his touch slightly, basking in the way Phainon was so very warm against him and how steady his heartbeat is..

It didn’t last nearly long enough as Phainon dropped him off onto his bed, into the nasty mess of clothes that Mydei now knew the man had cum into.. Disgusting, yet somehow made a piece of Mydei’s brain happy. This omega thing really was making Mydei have a horribly high amount of conflicting emotions now..

Mydei didn’t even move as he sat there, feeling Phainon slide onto the bed behind him with practiced ease, the bed dipping with the new added weight but Mydei could only focus on the sheets and clothes in front of him. It had all been too much, too many fears and emotions, but at least it was merely one night out of the rest of their lives, he supposed..

Though, his thoughts were derailed as a towel immediately was slapped over his head - covering most of his vision as he instinctively gave an annoying huffed out of his nose due to it.

“Can’t have you falling asleep all wet..” Phainon mumbled mainly to himself as his hands worked the towel roughly, a quiet humming immediately leaving his throat as he worked. A soft melody, a sweet one that only lulled Mydei’s eyes closed yet again. It was soothing, the way Phainon was humming and his hands were gently massaging his scalp through the towel.

It was tender, so very sweet when Mydei finally was allowed to enjoy just the simplest of moments with Phainon.. And this was all he had ever wanted.

“Do you truly feel alright now, Mydei?” Phainon asked almost timidly, sounding somewhat nervous as if he hadn’t just been inside Mydei five minutes ago and still had his legs pressed against Mydei’s naked body on the bed.

Mydei could only scoff over it, keeping his eyes closed as he swayed under the grip of those fingers loosely, “Yes, I’m fine.”

“No more heat clouding your mind?” Phainon’s tone sounded light-hearted and teasing, but still so anxious beneath it. And Mydei had half the mind to sniff at the man, but he didn’t know the differences between his scents enough yet to do such a thing..

“No.”

“I’m glad..” Phainon sighed out, truly sounding relieved as his hands still worked the towel into Mydei’s hair slowly, “Can I do something to you?”

“Depends on what it is.”

Phainon’s hands paused their movements in Mydei’s wet hair at those words, instead an index finger pressed itself against the base of the back of his neck - dragging a small circle there. A spot that made Mydei’s eyes open rather quickly with a brow arching upwards over the jarring sensation of how sensitive he was there.

“Right here.. I want to bite you..” Phainon murmured, his voice quiet and soft, almost sounding nervous in his nature. And Mydei could understand the sentiment as he sat there staring at the bedsheets and mess of Phainon’s nasty clothes, his own heart was beating so fast in his chest that he feared for his own health. Blood rushed to his face and ears as he felt that finger only continue to linger.

Continue to make a small circle on the bare flesh there that Phainon left exposed due to Mydei’s hair being pulled to the side purposefully…

“That’s.. A mating bite?” Mydei slowly reasoned out, blinking as his eyes wanted to move to look at Phainon, wanting to look behind him and see what expression that alpha was making over this topic. Instead, a towel only returned to his head as Phainon resumed his rubbing of Mydei’s hair.

Phainon hummed, nimble fingers gently working to squeeze out the wetness in Mydei’s hair soothingly; “So it is.. I want to make you mine and have people know it.”

“You’re a possessive alpha?” Mydei asked curiously as those hands slowed slightly with the question, only before filling the air with an almost anxious sounding laugh.

Maybe for good reason as Phainon sighed.

“I always was possessive towards you, you just never noticed it..” Phainon explained, giving another quiet and clearly pained chuckle, “So many days of rubbing myself all over you, of glaring at other alphas, of glaring at omegas as well..”

Mydei hadn’t noticed that. No, how could he? Phainon always looked rather smiley and happy when they were together, if anything, he assumed everyone loved being around him and hanging out with Phainon. He was so very popular in every friendgroup, the idea of him putting on a show over Mydei..

.. It made Mydei feel almost giddy when he let his secondary gender control his thoughts for more than two seconds at a time.

“All for you to feel like I didn’t love you at all due to my ruts and thinking I couldn’t make you suffer them with me..” Phainon only continued his ramblings, hands seeming more stressed and hurried as worked that towel still. And Mydei was pretty sure it had outlived its purpose, but he didn’t dare upset the alpha’s brooding.

“How stupid was I..? And then you.. You went off and.. And you..”

Ah.

He wasn’t just brooding, it seemed, not as Mydei’s ears pricked over the quiet sniffling that had begun behind him - so clearly evident of the way Phainon was crying. The soothing scent of the alpha in the air quickly bittering, so much that Mydei couldn’t help but scrunch up his noise over it.

“Because I didn’t tell you the cause of my ruts, you thought that.. You had to become an omega to..” Phainon only continued, full on sobbing now as that towel fell from Mydei’s head along with Phainon’s hands following suit. But it’s not like Mydei was going to turn and comfort the alpha - he was still waiting for those fangs to sink into his skin after all..

“There’s no use crying over it now, Phainon..” Mydei chastised lightly, mainly as a joke without any venom within his words, but that only made Phainon sniffle even louder.

“Oh, you cried for hours but now I can’t whimper a little over the lengths my cute mate went to make me look at him?”

Mydei chuckled over the way Phainon sounded so depressed, so upset still but clearly was joking as well with those words, “I’m not your mate yet.”

“.. Right.” Phainon’s reply was a ghost of its former self, sounding as though he had been stabbed and had the knife twisted inside of him roughly.

It made Mydei’s heart ache, just a little as he gave a quiet hum over that sweet reaction from the alpha that seemed to want to be his mate so badly, “I would be, if you stopped crying and bit me already.”

“You spoil me!” Phainon instantly and gleefully seemed to chirp out as he perked up before Mydei immediately felt it - not a moment given for Mydei to even rethink before he felt a hot and slimy tongue slowly roll over his skin there. Making Mydei shiver over it, shiver in anticipation as his omega purred over it, purring over every single slow methodical lick Phainon gave on the skin.

It was almost a tease before Phainon pressed a kiss there as well, “I’ve waited all my life to do this.. Surely you won’t mind me pampering you a little, yeah?”

Mydei had to scoff as he felt that tongue return, only for Phainon to close his lips around the skin tightly - obviously with intentions of giving him as hickey as he sucked at the skin roughly. Mydei jolted as he felt a finger wander its way to his nipple, digging into it yet again and that. That made Mydei scoff.

“Are you trying to turn me on, you bastard?” Mydei growled out, even as a beta his nipples had been sensitive, Phainon, annoyingly, knew that even if he would deny it for his own false innocence. But right now, as that index finger still rubbed and dug as his inverted nipple - he knew this alpha merely wanted more of him.

“Sorry, sorry.. I just want to touch you so much now..” Phainon told him with a small laugh, just before resuming his incessant licking against that one spot while his fingers slowly pinched at the now perky nipples. And Mydei was fighting the urge to elbow the man, eyes narrowing as he tried to focus on the bedsheets, anything but the alpha teasing his nipples.

“Just give me my bite already..” Mydei growled out, shaking his head a tad, and thankfully, that hand did cease its tugging at his nipple. Instead it splayed against the middle of his chest slowly, resting his palm over Mydei’s other breast with a quiet hum.

“My omega is so demanding.. “

“Your omega.. Hurry up and bite me before I get upset and cry again.” Mydei grumbled, and Mydei barely had time to form other thoughts as Phainon’s other free hand quickly moved to grab his chin from behind. Gentle, but very firm as he held onto Mydei awkwardly, clearly holding him still.

It didn’t take but a mere second after that for Phainon to snap down onto his skin after those words - roughly and sharply with a rather guttural groan leaving Mydei’s mouth over the feeling. The odd bond already causing him to feel hot in his face as the realization fully hit him.

He was Phainon’s mate. Wholly, in every way as that alpha nipped his neck tightly, pressing deeper before humming against Mydei’s skin after a few moments. Just to immediately lick at the spot he had just bitten, a lick that sent a heavy shiver down Mydei’s spine.

“Mine.. You’re finally all mine..” Phainon whispered so very quietly, his tongue slowly lapping against Mydei’s neck gently - clearly wiping away whatever blood had started to bead at the surface due to his bite. Only to press another kiss to the skin there, hand on Mydei’s chest only tightening, now in a more.. Possessive and defensive way.

“Do you think you’re pregnant, or should we go another round?” Phainon immediately asked as the hand on Mydei’s chin released him, only to drag a finger down his chest in a slight tease.

One that Mydei huffed a snort over.

“You’re insane. I’m too tired for that.” Mydei mumbled out, shaking his head slowly with a heavy sigh. To be honest, if he wasn’t pregnant after today, he would be extremely shocked over it.. And then something in him knew Phainon would assuredly make sure he got pregnant the second time.

Phainon hummed a soft noise as he bonked his head into the back of Mydei’s own, “You can sleep and I’ll breed you, if you want.”

“I don’t.. Like how that’s almost tempting.” Mydei practically sighed out every single word he said, not daring to consider the omega in himself that purred over the idea of being filled by his alpha.

His alpha.

Phainon really was his now, wasn’t he? That thought alone made Mydei give a small satisfied hum as he leaned into that head pressed against his own. They finally had each other, and that was one of Mydei’s dreams come true..

“Haha, is that permission for me to have fun with you even while you’re asleep, Mydei?” Phainon asked, wholly unaware of the giddy feelings Mydei was currently brewing up and enjoying. But he most assuredly felt the same even without saying it out loud.

“Just don’t wake me up..” Mydei murmured, already feeling himself lulling deeper and deeper into a napping mood as Phainon’s hands returned to his scalp, brushing through his damp hair gently. Soothingly.

“I still wish I had been the one to make you an omega..” Phainon whispered out.

But Mydei only gave a quiet chuckle over that regret, “You’re not going to let that go, are you?”

“Never.”

“Whatever, good night, Phainon.”

“Good night, Mydeimos..”

> good news gang. my court case got dismissed!! > they said there wasn't enough evidence but on god i did that shit 😭😭😭 > anyway!
> omegaverse is beautiful because if your brain says 'stud mydei to an alpha with sex toys and then make phainon bitch him again' legally, there are no rules against that!
> isnt that neat?
> anyway. cw. a lot of breeding talk. a lot. a lot. and phainon being really into bitching mydei lowkey

See the end of the chapter for more notes

Phainon couldn’t get used to this.

Waking up and nosing his way to sniffle at Mydei’s skin in the morning light, moving his body around to scent his omega - every single inch of him.

Mydei was his.

Even in these moments when their bodies were messy tangles together - he could never get over that statement. That fact.

But there was always something that itched his nose - burned into his mind as he rubbed his lips on Mydei’s scent glands, drinking in the deep scent of honey and something sweet he couldn’t quite name that had come with Mydei being bitched.

Being bitched.

But it wasn’t by Phainon either.

And that was what made his skin crawl, burn and ebb whenever he sniffed at his mate, even as the days went by and Mydei didn't turn out to be pregnant from their messy heat induced haze sex. He still…

Felt like he could smell him.

The alpha that had claimed Mydei in such a carnal and feral way.. Like their pheromones were intertwined with Mydei's, so deeply and in a way Phainon would never be able to achieve.

And that?

That easily drove him insane.

Even as he leaned up on his knees and arms, propping himself to stare at Mydei - he couldn't help but feel some type of jealousy that he could never bite down. A bitter thing that always crawled into his throat and threatened to choke him when he thought about it.

Haunting him no matter what he did - no matter how much he scented Mydei and rubbed into him.

It was still there.

Even in these tender moments where Mydei was his, and only his - asleep and only illuminated with the dawn of morning rising through Mydei's bedroom window on both of them..

Phainon swore he could smell that alpha on him.

Fingers brushing back Mydei's bangs softly - dusting them away from his face and making them frame around him elegantly instead. All the while Mydei slept lazily on his back - head tilted to the side as his lips were slightly ajar.

Such a tender thing and sight should be Phainon's only yet he.. He felt like it wasn't somehow.

That someone else was forever burrowed into Mydei's skin so deeply..

“Phainon..?” Mydei murmured drowsily, sounding almost raspy and hoarse in his morning voice, but even that was so sweet and cute to Phainon’s ears as he leaned over his omega that was slowly blinking his eyes open.

Almost looking like he was in a daze as his gold flaked eyes wandered about - staring at the ceiling before tossing a stare at Phainon - all before his nose seemed to twitch. Scrunching up almost.

Phainon couldn’t help but grin at those vibrant eyes - all while still moving his fingers to brush his bangs to the side of Mydei’s face while the omega laid there, “Did I wake you, pretty boy? Go back to bed..”

Mydei said nothing for a few moments, merely laying there and staring upwards at Phainon with a rather blank expression. All before he scrunched his nose once again - more obvious about it this time.

“You’re.. You smell very distressed.”

Ah.

Right.

Mydei could actually easily smell that now and was even starting to be able to tell when Phainon was bothered due to it. Really, Phainon was more than just a little used to being able to not have to care about trying to hide his pheromones around Mydei since he couldn’t smell them..

But now.. He still didn’t care to hide or try to wrangle his scent in, but he still was a bit thrown off every time it did happen.

“I.. I’m alright.” Phainon tried to convince him - a pathetic thing as he forced himself to grin at Mydei, smiling softly at the omega who did not look at all sold on that idea. Especially as his eyes drew into such a tight narrowed expression.

Phainon knew his goose was cooked here..

“You always say that, but it doesn’t just get rid of whatever feeling is making you smell so sour..” Mydei grumbled out, all before giving way to such a large yawn that Phainon found himself balling his hands into fists to try to bite down the urge to kiss the man as he closed his mouth again.

Mydei was seriously too endearingly adorable for his own good without even trying.. Alas, Phainon needed to focus as he knit his brows together with a heavy sigh escaping his lips.

“Mydei I..” And then he immediately trailed off, because he knew what he wanted to do with Mydei. Knew how badly he wanted to do all of it to Mydei, but it..

Did not sound good to say it out loud. Not to his mate that had already bitched himself to try to earn Phainon’s love.

Yet.. Phainon found himself struggling not to be greedy as Mydei merely stared at him with such a tender expression on his face - so soft and welcoming..

His precious omega..

“Just be honest, Phainon..” Mydei told him such a smooth honey voice as he leaned into Phainon’s hand that was still at the side of his face. So kind and gentle in the movement that Phainon almost felt sick for the words that fell out of his mouth in a sputter.

“I want to stud you.”

Well.

Mydei had straightened himself back out over that - no longer leaning into Phainon’s hand so very sweetly. Instead, he was staring Phainon right in his eyes in blatant confusion written on his features.

“.. Pardon me?”

“I want..” Phainon swallowed heavily, trying his best to make his mouth not as dry as it felt right now with his confession, “I want to buy those fleshlights made for studding.. And stud you into being an alpha.”

Silence.

Daunting silence was what greeted Phainon as he blinked his eyes to Mydei, staring into golden ones that seemed to have a range of flicking emotions running through them. All so painfully unreadable to Phainon.

“For what? Do you not want m-”

“I want to bitch you myself.” Phainon swiftly interrupted, not wanting to hear Mydei downplay his own importance to Phainon at all. This was just.. Something else.

He wasn’t even sure if he could possibly explain his own feelings decently enough to Mydei right now..

Especially considering how absolutely flabbergasted his dear mate looked now as he blinked his eyes even more awake - clearly awoken by the shock of it all; “.. Huh.”

Phainon swallowed over that, moving his hand to fiddle with Mydei’s braid absentmindedly; “I want.. To bitch you into an omega myself.”

Mydei didn’t move at those words either, and Phainon found himself staring deep into those sunset golden eyes for answers. None of which were actually there as Mydei languidly raised a brow upwards to his hairline.

“.. Uh huh.” Was the thrilling answer Phainon’s mate gave him in return, and Phainon really really had to fight the urge to bury his nose into Mydei’s neck and whine at him over it.

It was obvious Mydei was more than just a little on the fence over this - but it was driving Phainon crazy. He had to at least ask, even if Mydei said no, he had to at least try and see if his adorable omega would hear him out.

“You’re not pregnant.. So..” Phainon continued, giving a small nod to his own words as he watched Mydei’s jaw twitch over them.

A good twitch?

A bad ‘about to make Phainon sleep on the couch for the next week’ twitch?

Phainon didn’t know, but he was merely stating the obvious here! Mydei wasn’t pregnant, there was no risk of hurting a child..

“.. I’m not pregnant.” Mydei’s deep voice slowly rumbled out in agreement as he gave an equally slow nod - as if he knew he was walking into a mouse trap laid for him.

“So it’s.. The perfect time to make you an alpha, and then.. Uh..”

“Fuck me back into your omega?” Mydei offered to finish Phainon’s sentence for him when words seemed to fail Phainon - and Phainon.. Really wasn’t sure if he appreciated that or not as he forced out a fake cough to clear his throat before flopping onto the bed.

Laying on his own back to copy Mydei - only somewhat aware of the way Mydei shuffled to be on his side now, evidently trying to keep eye contact.

“Ha…Ha.. Don’t say it like that.” Phainon huffed out as his eyes wandered around Mydei’s ceiling, all the while creasing his brows together.

He just.. Wanted to get the scent of that alpha off of Mydei. Forever.

“Is this some sort of fetish you have?”

That question made Phainon immediately flop onto his side to stare at Mydei, completely in awe over the audacity..

“What? No!?” Phainon immediately said, wriggling a little under their shared covers as he groaned out painfully, “I just.. Some random alpha made you an omega.. I want.. To be the one that changed you like you wanted..”

Mydei didn’t even react to that - he just laid there watching Phainon move around like a bug.

“Huh..”

Phainon had to move a hand to rub his own bangs back at that, feeling himself starting to sweat under Mydei's everburning gaze, "It's just.. I'm sorry, it's weird."

He knew it was.

Mydei had made himself an omega for Phainon, he knew that now.. And now Phainon was asking for more from him.. This surely wasn't fair at all..

"It's kind of sweet in a weird way." Mydei eventually mumbled out, sounding like he was growing more and more tired than anything.

Which was perfectly fair considering Phainon had woken him up so early through touching at him and his own scent souring on accident..

But those words..

"Sweet?" Phainon echoed out, feeling more confused than ever before as he tried to understand them. Because honestly, the fact Mydei found this sweet rather than batshit insane was truly a blessing that he had never considered.

Especially as Mydei gave a small snorting noise in amusement over Phainon's blatantly confused and shocked reaction to hearing it was sweet. All before giving a rather drowsy lop-sided smile to the alpha.

"To know that bothers you so much.. My alpha is so territorial over me."

"So..?"

"I guess it's fine, I don't.." Mydei murmured, closing his eyes for a moment before blinking them open - as if he was trying to consider the matter swiftly in his mind after trailing off, "Know how that will physically affect me but.."

"I'll take care of you no matter what!" Phainon immediately beamed out, practically grinning mouth to ears over the idea of being able to take care of Mydei. Even as an omega the man in the past week had still been.. Well.. Mydei.

Refusing to be pampered and borderline growling over the way Phainon was treating him like a precious little flower, all the while quite obviously leaning into the touches. Seeking out the scenting, and curling against Phainon..

Not that Phainon minded!

It was very adorable for him to watch the man try to fight his new instincts that were being hardcoded into him more and more with every passing day of being around his chosen alpha.

“.. For some reason that doesn’t make me feel any better.” Was the less than gentle reply Phainon’s sweet and tender omega gave however, scoffing all the while.

But something here in that reply was so much more important than the actual attempt at harassing his mate.

The very fact that Mydei wasn’t saying no; “So.. Was that a yes?”

“Yes, Phainon. You may.. Uh..” Mydei trailed off, knitting his brows and well.. Phainon didn’t need to have Mydei bring himself to talk about being studded into being bitched again.

This was enough for him!

Phainon practically jolted to being fully awake with that, worming his way to flip back onto his back and fish for his discarded phone at the end of the bed; “Yay! I’ll order your toy.”

“.. Right now?” Mydei’s voice sounded so very tired as he wondered about that, but Phainon found himself laughing over the question.

“I’m so excited, how could I go back to sleep?” Phainon asked as he tapped his passcode into his phone hastily, he had.. Already picked out a few that seemed nice for Mydei’s size before this conversation. He just hadn’t ordered the special ‘fleshlights for studding’ that were in his cart yet..

He would need to go back through them and pick one just right for Mydei.. So naturally, he had to lay on his back and swipe through them.

Mydei didn't feel the same however, huffing over Phainon's abrupt change in mood before rolling over in the bed. Roughly tugging up the blanket back past his shoulders and swallowing Phainon with it as well; "Easily, watch this.."

Phainon blinked over it - eyes moving to watch Mydei's more crumpled form slowly breathe beneath the blankets.

All before he found himself smiling softly, eyes moving back to his phone with a fondness laced in his bones.

"Haha.. Sleep well, Mydei."

"Are you horny, Mydei?" Phainon asked as he rounded into the kitchen, staring at the beautiful omega who shot him a glare. A sharp and pointed thing for a man that was currently cooking - bowl of cracked eggs before him as he leaned over the counter.

"Huh?" Mydei immediately fired back, confusedly.

Naturally so. But Phainon couldn't help but show off the newest ordered and arrived item that had joined his 'gifts for Mydeimos' collection; "Can you get horny? Or at least hard? Your toy came in!"

"Pardon?" Mydei asked, before seemingly puzzling it out as his eyes trailed to the specialty made fleshlight, ".. For studding me?"

Phainon found himself eagerly nodding, "Mhm! It's supposed to feel just like.. Erm."

Mydei still held his stare - stoic and cold as he raised a brow over the way Phainon had so obviously trailed off; “Go on.”

“An.. Omega’s wet ass.” Phainon ashamedly muttered to.. Well.. His sweetened omega that certainly had a wet ass when he was turned on now. Telling him he would be inside something that felt like him..

That was embarrassing, but somehow made Phainon’s own dick twitch at the thought of it. For some weird reason..

“.. Right.” Was all that Mydei replied slowly - staring at Phainon with a small huff of a snort leaving his lips.

As close as a laugh Phainon was going to get it seemed.

But Phainon had other things in mind as he slowly neared his sweet smelling mate, “Listen, I already put the lube in it. You just need to cum in it a lot.”

Mydei’s gaze lingered before darting back to his bowls of contents on the table, huffing over those words; “.. Uh huh. Well, I’m not hard, so maybe later.”

Not hard.

Phainon could fix that, easily! He had a very warm mouth he could offer to his sweet mate, after all!

Phainon hummed over his own thoughts, all before moving Mydei a bit - a gentle prodding to make the omega face him. Not to say Mydei was seemingly pleased by it as his face was wearing a heavy frown as he came nose to nose with Phainon. But that was alright!

Especially as Phainon’s hands effortlessly worked to undo the button on the top of Mydei’s pants - humming as he flitted his gaze downwards to watch his own deft fingers move. All the while amused over the fact Mydei wasn’t moving at all - wasn’t bothered by Phainon bothering him too much it seemed.

“I’ll help fix that then,” Phainon purred out as he stared at his mate with half-lidded eyes, barely aware of the slightest twitch of Mydei’s jaw - as if he was going to argue against such a thing.

But if he was going to, he didn’t do it fast enough, not as Phainon instead dropped to his knees as he tugged Mydei’s pants and boxers down messily with one hand all at once - setting down the toy behind him before truly getting to work.

Only it was a simple thing as he readjusted himself on his knees - moving just a bit to get a decent view of his prize. An ignored part of Mydei, considering the man could get off with his ass alone, Phainon didn’t really get to do this often.

.. Granted they hadn’t been dating nor mates for long, but the sentiment still stood as Phainon brought his lips forward to Mydei’s cock. No fanfair, not licking, just immediately shuffling the flaccid thing into his mouth.

Salty.

To be honest, Phainon wasn’t sure what he had expected - but it was unbelievably salty and Phainon sucked at the tip. Swirling his tongue around it languidly as if just wanting a taste of it, after all, he did just want a taste. Even as his hands found their way to Mydei’s thighs, slowly and tauntingly drawing lines across the milky exposed skin as he crept around to the back of Mydei - he only wanted a taste.

That much was true as he pressed his fingers in between Mydei’s cheeks - humming as Mydei gave a quiet noise of pleasure, a soft thing considering how Phainon wasn’t pushing his fingers in. Only rubbing the outside ring of that flesh, feeling it twitch and want beneath his fingers as it slowly seemed to slick up. Clearly with pure neediness as Phainon bobbed his head slightly.

Not nearly enough as he felt that cock in his mouth hardening up - growing and pushing deeper behind his lips.

Phainon immediately moved away at that, not daring to let it go too far before looking up at Mydei with a small grin; “Naughty. You need to cum in the toy, not in my mouth.”

Stands behind him hugging him while jerking him off

“You bastard..” Mydei growled out, but Phainon didn’t mind that as he removed his rather wet fingers from Mydei’s ass. Humming before bringing them to his lips to taste his omega’s sweet slick - such a sacred thing that he was more than a little happy to call his own.

All before scurrying to pick up that toy again, rising to his feet before moving around Mydei - ignoring those golden eyes as he moved that cooking book and bowl a bit to the side; “You’re the one that agreed to let me stud you!”

Phainon was reminding him, sure, but how could either of them possibly forget as Phainon spun Mydei around once more - gritting his teeth over the sight of his cute mate presenting himself. Slick running down his leg from his hole in pure want and desperation..

And Phainon had to sigh as he boxed Mydei in. A hand moving to rub at Mydei’s tits as he pressed his chest to Mydei’s back - all before sliding that fleshlight onto his beloved omega’s weeping dick.

Phainon didn’t hesitate as he quickly started sliding it back and forth - as abruptly and roughly as possible to make sure Mydei felt good all while slowly grinding himself against Mydei through his own clothes. His own cock now so painfully hard with want for his needy omega, the desire to breed him rising more and more as Mydei fluttered out soft little whines over the pumping on his dick.

“Nice and hard.. Doesn’t this feel good.” Phainon asked - rutting himself against Mydei’s ass as much as he could, letting the omega barely even get a tease of the way he could be riding him right now if he hadn’t agreed to this. And Phainon could tell the teasing was working with how Mydei gave a sharp whine.

So very pathetic before sucking in a deep breath of air; “I’d.. Rather have you in me.”

Phainon would rather be buried inside him as well, that was for sure as he listened to the obscene slicked noises of his hand pumping Mydei’s cock senselessly into that toy. Forcing his omega to fuck it with every movement of his hand - and Phainon found himself having to bite his lips.

Anything to stay sane with how hard he was - how much he also wanted to be thrusting into Mydei and using his hole..

“No can do, it’s the toy for you! Consider yourself grounded from being full.” Phainon teased him, but mainly himself as well. Trying to rein in those thoughts as he moved his nose to sniff at Mydei’s scent glands - licking at his skin as he heard those sweet cries continuously leave Mydei’s lips tenderly.

“.. Insufferable man.” Was the not so soft or tender reply Phainon got in return as he paused his hips - instead resting the bulge in his pants a top Mydei’s plump ass. More than just a little happy he was taller than the man nowadays. That was for sure.

“But you love me!” Phainon told him, hand still jaggedly moving with the sounds of whimpers leaving Mydei’s lips - wet slapping of that toy sliding Mydei’s cock in and out of it.

A cute thing, considering Mydei would never actually feel the real thing - he had given that role to Phainon.. And Phainon missed it so very much, especially as Mydei gave a rough whine that tore from his throat over it all.

“Stop-”

“Good boy.. Cumming into it so quickly.. See? It feels so good inside of you..” Phainon teased, hand still jerking back and forth as he trapped Mydei there - trapped him between the pleasure of the toy and Phainon’s own body.

“Don’t call that thing me!” Mydei growled out, chastising him - but Phainon’s eyes were busy watching his beloved mate quiver. Shaking hopelessly against Phainon’s body as he clearly orgasmed into the toy.

Phainon couldn’t bring himself to stop his hand from moving - drinking in the way he could feel his sweet mate shuddering under him, trying to steady himself as his hands tightened on the counter. Tightened to try to get a grip all the while Phainon hummed, hummed over the way he could feel just how wet Mydei was as he started grinding himself against the man.

Savoring the sweet enticing scent of an omega trying to lure him in - desperate to be bred, all the while Mydei whined over the thrusting. Over that toy still moving back and forth against his dick repeatedly.

And Phainon found himself trying to look at the sight of it - trying to look at the way Mydei was cumming into the toy, slightly backing away to look from the side. Marveling over the white that was leaking out of the opening on it with every movement of Phainon’s hand. Leaking and sputtering to no longer clean kitchen floor messily.

Phainon purred over the sight, only before yanking it off of Mydei - freeing that cock that was clearly done pumping into the toy with an amused noise leaving his lips as more white dripping to the floor.

A waste.

But it’s not like his cum would be used for breeding anyway.

Phainon instead hummed over the sight of that weeping wet cock - coated in his own cum and the lube Phainon had slicked it up with beforehand.

“Alright! Now we just have to do this to you every two to three hours for the next two weeks and you should be an alpha!” Phainon informed him as he moved away, painfully aware of the ache throbbing in his own pants tightly, and the wetspot of his beloved omega’s slick rubbed into him.

He for sure needed to jack off in the shower.. Or.. Well..

His eyes wandered over to the wet with cum soaked toy in his hand curiously, all before flitting his eyes back up to the omega that still hadn’t really moved. Still bracing himself up with the counter as he shot a deep glare to Phainon at his side.

“Two to.. What? There’s no way I can live through that?” Mydei growled out, and Phainon couldn’t help but laugh over that.

“You’ll be fine, silly.”

He would be fine..

It was to make him ready for being an alpha, after all, training his dick to hold enough cum to pump an omega full and breed them with his pups. Mydei never would, of course, considering Phainon would be knotting him right back to being an omega - even if it took several days in bed nonstop.

But oh well.

Mydei hung his head at that, a beautiful sight as Phainon moved a few feet more to take it in - tilting his head to stare at the way Mydei was raggedly breathing. His now flaccid cock still dripping his own white liquids onto the floor and his pants nastily now.

“You’ll milk me dry..” Mydei grumbled out, not daring to look at Phainon - but Phainon didn’t mind as he enjoyed the heavy movements of Mydei’s chest. Heavy movements over clearly not being fully sated.

“Just remember, you can’t use your hole, alright?” Phainon told Mydei with a tease, watching those fierce eyes jerk to look at him - clearly in a silent threat.

All before Phainon turned away, eyes focusing on that toy in his own hands.

“And drink lots of fluids!”

“Morning, Mydei..” Phainon hushedly whispered, crawling into bed once again to face his sweet sleepy mate - one that didn’t really stir even as Phainon dropped a hand into Mydei’s warm boxers.

Even if Mydei could sleep in today - he still needed his daily morning orgasm into the toy, and Phainon didn’t dare miss a day as he lovingly thumbed over the very soft cock.

But even that was an adorable thing, the way Mydei moved slightly over it - just enough to lean forward with a small whine over Phainon full-on stroking him now. Doing his best to push Mydei into hardness as Mydei practically curled into him - top of his head resting into Phainon’s shoulder as he kept his eyes shut.

“Still sleepy? It’s alright.. It’s just your morning orgasm..” Phainon whispered to him softly, moving to fish out that now regularly used toy he had been sneaking into bed for Mydei, “Rest up, I’ll take care of it.”

Phainon wasted no time gently tugging Mydei’s boxers down, just enough to expose Mydei’s dick from the fabric as he pushed that toy onto Mydei beneath the covers. Humming over the quiet whine that left Mydei’s lips over either the chill of the layer of lube Phainon had coated it with, or the pleasure of being inside of it.

Whatever it was, Phainon found himself tangling their legs together - anything to be closer to his mate as his hand started pumping the fleshlight slowly.

“So cute.. I wish I could give you everything you want..” Phainon murmured as Mydei nuzzled into him even more - scent deepening as he tried to woo the alpha in his bed. Tried to woo Phainon into plowing him. And how Phainon wished he could.

Instead, he moved his free hand to rub circles into Mydei's back all the while lazily pumping his cock into that toy. Nose moving to sniff at the man pressing into him needily in his drowsy state.

Clearly awake - but choosing to let this happen and lean into his alpha's touches in the early morning.. So sweet with his quiet muffled whines and ever so little sway of his hips into the toy's pace.

"Rubbing on me in your drowsy state like this.." Phainon whispered with a soft laugh - enjoying the way Mydei's legs were creeping to his own thighs. Trying to rut into him, trying to force him to be hard and use his omega to help himself..

"My poor sweet pent up omega.." Phainon continued over that - not even fighting back as Mydei eventually found his way between Phainon's legs. Grinding his leg lazily against Phainon's crotch in a sloppy movement, obviously trying to match Phainon's, but more dazed and sluggish in his still sleepy state.

"Phainon.." Mydei eventually whined out, a sweet and timid thing - so needy that Phainon had to fight back his own instincts that immediately flared up. The desire to hold Mydei down and breed him, the desire to make sure he was pregnant this time, the desire to satisfy whatever made Mydei's voice so high-strung.

Yet, he couldn't as he nosed himself more into Mydei's hair - breathing in the deep scent there all while choking back his own greedy whine. The whine of an alpha that wanted this omega so badly, an omega that wanted him just as bad as that leg continued to roll against him so cruelly.

"It's okay.. Just cum nicely into this and you'll be free to sleep in more." Phainon instructed him, roughly jerking the toy now with his own rising frustration. Trying to stop the way his own hips were hungrily moving to rut against Mydei's leg, seeking out more of that pleasure sparking up his own spine through his boxers as his dick hardened..

This guy..

“I want you..” Mydei mumbled, sweetly into Phainon’s chest as he seemed to try to nuzzle even closer - rubbing his head against him languidly.

Phainon had to breathe shallowly over that, trying not to let his breath stutter as he took in the scent of his needy mate. A mate that wanted to be bred by him.. And he was denying him..

Phainon really could die - but he refused to slow his hand, instead focusing on drinking in the adorable noises of Mydei groaning over the wet sloppy noises of the toy pumping his orgasm from him.

“No can do, partner.. You said you’d let me stud you.. Be a good boy and cum from just this toy, okay?” Phainon tried to tell him equally as sweetly as his mate had begged to be filled, “I want to be inside you badly too, don’t get it wrong..”

Of course he did, how could he not as his dick twitched in pure lust every time Mydei huffed out a small whining moan of pleasure, still sounding someone slurred and sleepy. Every sound went straight to giving him a thick heady boner along with Mydei’s movements to rub him with his leg in their bed.

“Whining so sweetly.. Cute..” Phainon raggedly managed to choke out - voice feeling strained as he moved his own hips to meet that well-toned leg rubbing him. He hadn’t nearly considered how painful this would be for him as well..

Every moan that left Mydei’s throat as he latched onto Phainon went straight to clouding his mind along with that honey-thick scent, a scent of an omega wanting their mate so badly. Trying desperately to get their alpha to fill them..

And Phainon wanted to, of course..

Of course.. He did..

Alas, all he could do was lick his teeth and grit and groan over it, all before moving on to tease Mydei’s whimpering moans and whines.

“My poor omega.. If you had been a good boy and gotten pregnant, you could have been enjoying me as you pleased..” Those words were true.

If Mydei was nice and pregnant, working on getting a beautiful precious baby bump - Phainon wouldn’t have wanted to do this to him. Why would he? He would never risk hurting their child, and Mydei hadn’t seemed very against this..

So instead, Mydei was being studded - that much was deadset by now as Mydei shuddered and barked out a loud high-strung moan into Phainon’s chest. Mydei’s hips stalled, a clear sign that he was releasing himself into the toy. Studding himself even more into the warmth of it.

“Cumming already?” Phainon teased, but it truly wasn’t that hard to believe Mydei was cumming easily from using such a toy on his dick. Omegas weren’t made to be the ones pumping into people.. Their cocks were more like adornments than anything else, just a way to know when your omega was truly at their limit when they no longer were able to cum from being knotted..

Tired and milked senseless as they laid there with a weeping and neglected cock..

.. Phainon really missed knotting Mydei.

Phainon had to swallow down those memories, instead moving to press a kiss to Mydei’s head as he sniffed the lust and sex in the air, “You’re so pretty as an omega.. So sweet and tasty.”

Sex with a toy, but the smell of his omega’s slick was enough to get Phainon almost purring alone. So heavy in the air as he was desperately trying to get Phainon’s cock inside of him.

Not that it was happening, though.

Phainon had to pull that toy off of his precious mate - equally pulling himself away to sit up in bed awkwardly. Shuffling a bit to readjust his hardon as he blinked at a clearly perturbed Mydei still laying there, golden eyes peering upwards at the sitting up Phainon.

“See? Wasn’t that fun?” Phainon asked with a lop-sided smile as he moved to look at the toy. At the absolute mess that was in it.

Mydei was starting to cum in larger amounts..

Mydei seemed clueless on that matter however, instead deeply sighing before speaking in a worn out voice; “You’re seriously.. Going to piss me off at this rate.”

“You came so much though, that means you're healthy!” Phainon pointed out innocently, doing his best to ignore the scowl that was clearly growing on Mydei’s face over those words as Phainon shook the toy slowly. Eyes moving to peer into the toy blankly..

“Not like it's useful cum though..” Phainon teased softly as he pressed a kiss to the now somewhat shuddering Mydei - still quivering from his orgasm.

But it wasn’t like Phainon was wrong, that cum in the toy would never be used to breed. After all, Mydei would become an alpha and then Phainon would make sure he never got to actually use any of his dick to be useful in breeding.. A few knots to put him right back into the secondary gender that he wanted to be..

“Go the hell back to sleep.” Mydei growled out in reply, but Phainon couldn’t go to sleep yet.. He needed to clean out Mydei’s well loved toy before later..

The most he could do was curl around his sweet omega and sniff at him while he sat there - taking in that scent that he was deluding himself into believing was growing weaker with every passing day..

“Hehe..”

Phainon peeked his head around the corner - blinking at the view of his beloved mate lounging on the couch of their now shared apartment's living room. The man was clearly working on something - reading glasses on his nose as his pen easily glided across the tablet he did all his animations on.

Not really a man that people would suspect drew cute little animal animations in his free time, but that made Phainon swoon even harder over Mydei every time he thought about it. Even more impressive was the fact that Mydei was still in school alongside Phainon, and had enough time for that hobby.

Though, was it still his hobby if he got paid for it like it was his actual job already? If anything, Phainon was almost jealous of Mydei's many habits.. He certainly couldn't draw as well as Mydei - let alone be paid for any of his hobbies right now..

.. Still. As his hand tightened on that familiar sex toy in his hand - he had a goal here.

"Mydeimos.." Phainon called as he moved his hands behind his back, trying his best to conceal Mydei's fun adventure planned for today as he tiptoed into the living room.

"Mm?" Mydei enthusiastically replied, not even looking away from his tablet in hand as he stayed laid out on the couch on his back - lazily moving to draw whatever it was.

But that was fine! Mydei didn't need to move as Phainon lowered himself onto the floor beside Mydei's knees on the couch. The perfect angle and position for.. Well, basically jerking off his mate.

"Are you working?" Phainon asked sweetly as he dropped the fleshlight behind him - just before moving to Mydei's underwear hem with a hum.

".. Yes." Mydei grumbled out, pausing for a second as Phainon tugged his boxers down to easily expose Mydei's privates, "Not that you seem to care..”

Care?

Phainon cared a lot, thank you very much! Just as his hand moved to stroke at that very flaccid and not at all horny cock, he gave a small laugh. Pumping it rather quickly and with a sinister purpose as he looked at Mydei’s face, taking in the way those vibrant and vivid eyes had narrowed harshly.

Yet he didn’t move away or fight it, if anything - he seemed to have readjusted himself slightly, clearly more than just a little eager for the free orgasm he was being delivered in a bit while he worked. Hand still moving to evidently focus on his art.

Somehow.

“Time to be milked, sweetie!” Phainon told him much too tenderly for a man that was studding his own omega with a toy, squeezing onto Mydei’s shaft just a bit in a tease as he grinned at Mydei. Blinking at the way the omega was now seemingly trying to ignore him - clearly trying to just go back to his art.

All while sighing; “This has to be some weird kink you have..”

A kink..

It probably was someone’s kink, but really, Phainon just wanted every single piece of Mydei to be his, and only his. And the fact he had been bitched by someone else wasn’t exempt from those feelings.

“Nope, I just really want to make you mine.” Phainon argued, humming as he kept jerking Mydei roughly. Thumbing over his slit to wet his own hand to help the glide.

“I’m-” Mydei tried to choke out, sounding more and more strained as Phainon could feel the omega stiffening up in his hand deliciously, “I’m flaccid and you’re-”

“That’s fine. With enough stroking inside it you’ll start getting hard!” Phainon hummed out, laughing as he instead moved to replace his hand with the lubed up fleshlight now that Mydei was semi-hard. Hard enough to slide into that toy and fuck it as Phainon jerked his hand back and forth with a fondness as he watched Mydei.

Watching the way Mydei’s breath had changed, the way he seemed to be moving less - drawing less. Obviously more concerned with the pleasure being drawn out through his veins as his breath stuttered and struggled more and more as Phainon jammed his cock in and out of it.

“You age me.” Mydei growled out, clearly working on giving up with drawing as Phainon kept going - drinking in the obscene and filthy wet noises of Mydei’s cock going in and out of the toy. Lube gushing out of it and down Mydei’s own balls and pubic hair.

A view Phainon hadn’t really been able to watch this closely as he leaned a bit to stare at the stutter in Mydei’s hips.

“Feels good doesn’t it?” Phainon innocently asked as he watched the sight on display - his beautiful mate becoming so disheveled quickly every time Phainon forced the fleshlight down on him in an abrupt fashion. Eyes only able to watch the way Mydei’s knuckles holding his tablet were turning white from holding it so tightly.

Trying his best not to give Phainon the satisfaction it seemed, but it’s not like that mattered as Mydei began to move his hips upwards in stuttering movements. So clearly seeking out more of the pleasure that toy offered to him.

“Good boy.. Keep rolling your hips into it. You’re so pretty.” Phainon egged him on - almost hypnotized byu the sight of Mydei being so into it, trying his best to fuck himself into the toy nastily.

“You talk so much.” Was all Mydei offered in retort as his voice sounded so hollow and forced. Pained and struggling to find any ground as Phainon kept forcing that toy to suck all of his dick into the silicone.

But those words were enough as he gave a small laugh, still watching the wet display unfolding as his own dick twitched against his legs with want for his omega..

“Only for my sweet beta-turned-omega-turned-alpha.” Phainon argued back, tone much too sweet and tender for the words he was actually saying.

Especially considering the way Mydei was so eagerly jerking up to meet the toy - enjoying the warmth of it so blatantly much.. Phainon was almost growing jealous of his sweet omega, over just how much fun he was having, over just how much he wanted to be inside Mydei or the toy as well..

Could both of them fit into the toy?

He doubted it.. And yet.. He wanted to frot against Mydei in the slick warmth there so badly..

“What nonsense is that..” Mydei growled out, clearly unaware of his alpha’s spiraling thoughts as he kept jerking up to meet the toy greedily. Every movement making Phainon lick his own lips with growing want.

“It’s just what you are! So good for me..” Phainon innocent explained, after all, he wasn’t wrong as he slowed his hand slightly - enjoying the sight of Mydei just fucking it more than anything. Wishing he was buried into the omega’s ass while he fucked that toy uselessly.

“I just want to go back to working on my art..” Mydei argued back, which didn’t line up with how heavily he was grunting and moaning - nor with how hard he was slapping his hips forward to slide himself into that fleshlight on their couch as Phainon moved it languidly up and down.

“Do you miss having me inside of you? I miss being inside you..” Phainon asked sweetly, because he certainly did miss being buried into the man. Dreaming of the day Mydei was studded so he could claim that tight warm hole for himself again..

Knotting him, again and again..

“Rediculous.” Mydei mumbled back breathily, though it’s not like it mattered with how heavy the scent of his erection was in the air. An addicting thing, one that always made Phainon feel like he was going to go insane the more he sniffed at it.

“I tried this toy the other day, you know?” Phainon continued on regardless, trying his best to ignore his thoughts or the way Mydei’s slick was gathering on the couch as his hips kept jerking up into that toy.

“Huh?”

“It doesn’t feel nearly as good as you.. It only made me more upset that I couldn't have sex with you..” Phainon rambled on, humming a bit before he gave a soft laugh over how much he missed his omega’s warmth, “But if I don’t do this, I’ll think about this for the rest of our lives together..”

Mydei’s hips stuttered slightly over that - a movement that Phainon found himself humming over, humming over the way he seemed to like that. Liked the idea of being together forever..

But Phainon had other plans if Mydei liked being talked to that much.

“I miss my sweet omega.. But I need you to be an alpha, and then it’ll be over..” Phainon found himself muttering, promising him sweet nothings because he truly meant those words, “I’ll knot you so much.. You won’t be able to move for days, I promise..”

He would drag him back onto his knot, again and again, pumping him full to where there would be no other option for Mydei but to be bred into pregnancy. Roughly, brutally, and just like the omega wanted beneath his skin.

“I’ll keep going even while your legs shake, even after you beg me to stop, I’ll keep pushing into you and knotting you.” Phainon purred out his words - still watching the way Mydei had slowed dramatically, making Phainon go back to pumping him with the toy more than Mydei’s own efforts were, “Even if you pass out, I’ll keep pumping my knots into you.”

Mydei groaned over that, such a breathy thing as his hips stalled and Phainon moved his hand to fully bury his cock in the fleshlight. Eyes watching as thick white milky liquid spilled out of it in a trickle, sputtering more and more as Phainon physically watched Mydei's cock pump into it.

Fascinating sight really as he watched his mate breed that toy pathetically; "The idea of being knotted while asleep excites you, huh? Cumming already?"

Mydei didn't reply, instead giving a garbled out whine as he continued spilling into that toy - something that Phainon found himself staring at as white flowed out of the rim of the toy. That slit seemingly spitting out the semen that was flowing into it.

Phainon found himself transfixed on it, "Cute.. I miss it too.."

He did.

He missed being inside Mydei, making this happen from his ass being rawed alone.. The sight was too delectable, too much.

He wanted to be inside of it with Mydei, coating Mydei's cock with his own cum in the toy..

"My sweet mate.." Phainon murmured, slowly moving that toy to watch the white flow out of it messily - biting back a laugh over the mess he had made on the couch, "Letting me do this to you.. I'll spoil you so much in reward."

All before moving the toy and dropping it to the floor - nastily moving to pull Mydei's boxers back up like he wasn't soaked in his own cum and slick. Easily making it uncomfortable for Mydei, that much was obvious as Mydei cut a glare to him around his tablet.

".. I'm going back to drawing."

“Mydei!” Phainon called as he trotted to his beautiful mate - one whose scent was slowly and continuously fading more and more into something deeper. But that was fine. Every scent of Mydei’s was more than just a little addicting to his nose.

Especially as his dick was already throbbing over the idea of both of them squeezing into that toy in his hand - a hand that Mydei immediately turned and flicked his eyes too. Not even seeming surprised as Phainon got closer and closer to the man who seemed to have once had a route in mind.

“Time for your milking, sweet man.” Phainon practically purred out, already closing the distance in the hallway to his beloved - all before moving his hand to tug off his boxers. Thankfully, Mydei didn’t frequently wear pants around the house. Or else he really would have struggled a lot more often while carrying the fleshlight..

“.. You’re hard already?” Mydei noted, and Phainon couldn’t help but give a lop-sided smile over that, a sweet little thing as he moved to tug his own boxers down enough to expose himself to match Mydei in the lukewarm air of their home.

And Mydei hadn’t moved a muscle over it all - still staring at Phainon almost blankly as Phainon wrapped his free hand around that flaccid cock. Stroking it lovingly while straightening himself out. All to push their bodies together more - closer to rub his own cock in his hand as well, pressing against Mydei’s and drinking in the feeling of that warm dick stiffening against his already full-on boner.

“Let’s both use it.. Together.” Phainon hummed out, watching his hand more than anything, waiting eagerly for Mydei to match him in hardness.

Not a hard thing to achieve it seemed, especially considering how interested Mydei sounded in this matter; “.. Can we both fit?”

Fit?

Not well, but Phainon wasn’t against making them both fit - nice and snug rubbing against each other. Even if it was painful, he knew his sweet mate would drink that slight tinge of pain in greedily. Mydei was a masochist, after all..

“It’ll be tight, but that’ll make it feel so good, won’t it?” Phainon asked with an air of innocence as he blinked to his sweet omega. One that, arguably, was probably less omega nowadays than alpha. Scent still turning and muddying slowly throughout every passing day that Phainon did this to him.

And that was a delicious thing..

Mydei was unaware of those thoughts, instead blinking downwards to Phainon’s hand wrapped around both of their cocks, jerking them off quickly, “Will it?”

“Mhm.. Rubbing against each other in such a tight hole..” Phainon breathed out, very aware of the way those golden eyes flitted back to Phainon’s own face - and even more aware of the way Mydei’s dick twitched in his own hand over Phainon’s voice, “Doesn’t it sound good, Mydei?”

“.. It does.” Mydei agreed in a rather quiet tone - like he was unsure of it.

But that had to be a lie considering how much Mydei’s dick was leaking and beading out precum, practically weeping for more attention with every movement of Phainon’s hand.

“Good boy..” Phainon murmured as he moved even closer - humming over the difference in their cocks. He was much bigger and longer than Mydei, but that was fine.. It would feel good for Mydei no matter if it was only just halfway on him.

And Phainon couldn’t find it in himself to waste time as he held both their cocks together, lowering the tip of that fleshlight onto his own cock head - and then onto Mydei’s.

Tight.

Horribly tight.

But the way it forced their cocks together wetly, pressing them together made Phainon pant out a breath, especially as he forced them both deeper into that wet warmth.

It was nothing like an omega like the advertisements said, no twitching insides that were so eager to get bred and milk the cum out of his cock - but the warmth of Mydei's own dick pressed against him was nice enough. Especially as he looked at his mate - taking in the way Mydei was wholly focused on where they were both buried inside that toy, eyes half-lidded in pure lust as he stared at the sight.

Such a naughty greedy omega..

That's all Phainon could think as he slid the toy down - forcing them both deeper until there was nothing more to give.

"There.." Phainon hummed as they both were buried deep inside of it - the slit so tight against him that his legs felt weak, "Isn't the tightness good?"

"Mm.. " Was Mydei's thrilling answer, but a betraying one as his hands were already on the sleeves of Phainon's shirt as an anchor, holding onto him for dear life almost as he leaned into Phainon. Such a sweet gesture, really, so clearly in pleasure that he needed help to stand up..

Not that Phainon minded as he started moving that toy - drinking in the feeling of Mydei's head of his cock rubbing into his own alongside the ridges of the toy. Every rough movement easily made Mydei give a small whine - and other things that were so much more impressive to Phainon..

"I can feel you twitching against me.." Phainon told him, licking his own lips as he kept thrusting both of them in and out of that tight toy that was swallowing them both up and sputtering out slick with them both forcing it open, "That's so erotic.."

It was - Mydei was so twitchy inside of there that Phainon found it almost endearingly adorable. Especially how Mydei still seemed so needy like an omega, so wanting to breed or be bred as he pressed his head into Phainon’s shoulder to give muffled whines. The scent of erection hanging heavy in the air.

“Can you feel that?” Phainon asked as he moved his hips a little, forcing his cocks to press more and more as he started swelling up slowly, every thrust going straight into his desire to breed the man leaning into him, “My knot forming?”

Mydei made a garbled sound, one that Phainon could understand as he continued pushing and pulling that fleshlight onto both their cocks - feeling the way they both were twitching inside of it. The way Mydei seemed so vocal right now, breathing and panting as he moved even closer - hands searchingly moving to Phainon’s back to grasp at his shirt with a small whine as his hips bucked into the toy slightly. Rubbing and pressing harshly into Phainon’s own cock and forcing a moan from Phainon’s own lips to tumble out.

Phainon had to try to steady himself, breathily panting as he grinned to his needy mate, “I wish I could bury it inside of you, breeding you and locking my seed in..”

Phainon hummed over it - moving that toy roughly as he forced them both to almost bottom out in it. Running out of space as his own dick pressed into the roof of it before sliding it back up - drinking in the feeling of his tip and slit rubbing into that spot deliciously.

“But this toy will have to do.. I’ll show you what a true alpha can do with this thing..” Phainon continued on, feeling his knot beginning to throb as he stared at his mate. The person he would most assuredly rather stuff full of his knot. Again and again.

“You talk so much..” Was Mydei’s breathy reply between his own pants and groans of pleasure leaking from his lips. And Phainon couldn’t help but laugh at that, enjoying the way Mydei was swaying his hips just a little - just enough to grind their cocks together in time with Phainon’s hand. So obviously seeking out even more pleasure to drink in as he fucked into the toy.

“We’ve been over that before, you know?” Phainon teased, fully knowing Mydei said this often when they had sex like this - but he couldn’t help it.

He knew Mydei enjoyed the dirty talk, and Phainon surely enjoyed saying all these sinful promises to his always willing mate..

Only, Mydei snapped a hand to Phainon’s wrist loosely - a cute thing considering he wasn’t holding on nearly enough to dissuade Phainon for still thrusting that toy up and down both their lengths.

“Phainon..”

Such a breathy and weak word to be uttered from Mydei’s mouth - and Phainon couldn’t help but purr over the sound of how broken he seemed already. Struggling every time that toy sank down onto his cock again.

“Going to cum already?” Phainon asked, only pausing slightly as he thought about it more, “Is your body that sensitive now, Mydei?”

It made sense.

To go from a beta to an omega to an alpha in such a short time span - his body assuredly was going through so many things. Phainon almost wondered how he was feeling inside, how his organs were feeling as he most likely still had a womb nestled instead of him regardless of being an alpha or not now.

.. Not like he expected Mydei to be able to feel his organs, but if Phainon pressed deep enough.. He was sure he could probably feel the precious womb kiss against his tip.

Phainon had to swallow harshly, trying to regain control over his spiraling thoughts of breeding Mydei while he was an alpha, “Going through all these changes is making you so sensitive to even the smallest of rubs.. It’s so cute.”

Only.

Mydei twitched over that - and then an oozing flood of warmth against Phainon's cock made him shudder slightly with a groan leaving his lips.

"Oh.. You're cumming. Stay inside." Phainon demanded through a pant, feeling that warm liquid gushing into the toy - against his own cock. Sputtering out and down both their shafts as Phainon kept moving the toy. Breathing in so deeply as that warmth rubbed up and down Phainon's length.

"It's-" Mydei choked out, hands gripping harshly into Phainon's shirt as Phainon showed not signs of pausing at all, "That's too much I-"

"Stay inside. Over stimulation won't kill you.." Phainon interrupted, purring out his words as Mydei's cock still seemed to throb against his own - sputtering more and more of that hot liquid onto the both of them messily.

And Phainon found himself joining him with a quivering hand, groaning as he lowered his head to sniff at Mydei. To sniff for the lingering sweet smell that lurked on him that was almost gone.

He wanted to breed the man so badly - every wet pump into that toy as his hand still moved only reminded him that he wanted to be buried into him..

"There.. See? Now I'm breeding it too.." Phainon murmured out, feeling his own hot white mess drenching the both of their cocks as well deliciously, "Coating you in my cum nicely as well.."

Not like it mattered much as he slowly moved it off of Mydei's dick - angling himself to watch the white mess that coated his now semi-limp dick.

Phainon had other things to attend to though, instead pushing that toy back onto himself languidly, "Now then.."

"What are you doing?" Mydei immediately asked - and Phainon had to look up, and had to watch the way Mydei's eyes were staring at the toy. Staring at the fat round knot that was struggling to enter that toy.

“Knotting it. Since I can’t knot my cute omega, you can stand there and watch me knot this.” Phainon purred out as he popped his swelling knot into it, groaning over the way his body instinctually flooded the toy with more semen - doing his best to breed to fake omega that had just taken his knot.

Such a silly thing, especially considering it was too much for a toy - too much as white poured from the top slit of it messily.

“Ah.. It’s leaking out.” Phainon noted, still holding the toy on his own cock - though his eyes were fixed on Mydei, keenly peering at the way Mydei was still watching. Watching the thick drops of thick milk trickle to the floor, trickle to Phainon’s own thighs.

An absolute mess of breeding, and none of it made it inside of Mydei..

“.. Not the first place you’ve leaked mine or your cum onto the carpet.” Mydei grumbled out - sounding less like he was actually upset over it before he huffed out a loud sigh.

Phainon had to give a laugh over that, rocking his hips slightly as he still felt his cock pumping into that toy and messily spilling out around his cock, “I miss it being buried inside you.. Such a waste inside this.”

Mydei stood there for a moment before shaking his head - eyes meeting Phainon’s before moving to completely tug off his own underwear to clean his own dick. All before turning away from Phainon and leaving him with his knot lodged into that toy tightly. Almost painfully so when he thought about how rigid the toy was.

Especially as he got an eyeful of that ass walking away from him - a much warmer and more pliant hole that practically was made to be pumped full by Phainon.

.. And yet Phainon was still in that toy painfully stuck on his own cock due to the consequences of his own horny actions.

“.. I’m going back to making myself lunch.”

“Haha..”

“Your scent is weird.” Phainon found himself saying out loud as he leaned against Mydei in the kitchen - leaning to sniff at him more and take in that scent that was clouding his once murky one. Clouding his new sweet one.

Completely replaced with something more.. Woody. Foreign to Phainon’s nose - so much that his skin pricked over it with annoyance.

A feeling he knew too well, a feeling he couldn’t mistake at all as his eyes moved to glance at Mydei. Staring him down as the man swiftly moved away from him to continue putting up his groceries.

An alpha.

There was no mistaking the way Phainon felt threatened - territorial over Mydei being here in a way he hadn’t felt before. It was because his body was assuming Mydei of all people was an intruding alpha..

He had to try to stop the smug smirk on his lips as Mydei gave him a pointed glare over his scent being pointed out.

“.. And whose fault is that?” Mydei asked, and while it surely is all Phainon’s fault, he couldn’t help but sniffle over the accusation a little fakely. A little dramatically over his mate being so snippy at him.

Even if Phainon knew why.

Mydei surely had some issues creeping up his spine about Phainon’s scent being all over his home now - it probably wasn’t soothing at all to the poor newly studded alpha. His own home had been made into a nightmare of Phainon’s fellow alpha scent..

.. Not that it mattered, Phainon shifted uncomfortably under that gaze - already feeling himself already half hard over the idea of wrestling Mydei to bed to knot him a few times.

Surely it wouldn’t be that hard - he doubted Mydei would already be a territorial furious alpha, but the idea was almost making Phainon’s head spin over what a fun game it could be sexually.

The idea of an alpha Mydei submitting to him.. Sweaty and panting.. Whimpering and whining every time Phainon’s new knots were shoved into him - slowly bitching him right back to being an alpha with Phainon’s seed..

Phainon had to swallow and shove it from his mind; “How do you feel?”

Mydei didn’t miss a beat with his reply however as he went back to putting up the new jug of milk he had bought, “Irritated.”

“Over what?” Phainon innocently asked, very aware of the way Mydei was giving off pheromones in waves. Distressed ones. Ones that were sour and bitter, an alpha having his territory intruded on.

Cute, really.

.. Cute that Mydei’s instincts saw Phainon as an intruder now, and not the man that had just been pumping him full of knots only a handful of days ago.

“.. You.” Was the simple answer from Mydei - and the one Phainon wholly expected.

After all, he had been around enough angry alphas to know he was the cause..

“Mm..” Phainon hummed as he leaned against the doorframe of the kitchen - staring at his beloved mate who now most likely had a mess of emotions brewing inside of him.

It’s not like Phainon didn’t expect it, though.

All night long, Mydei had been jerking from Phainon's gentle touches. Rolling away from him. Borderline growling at him in his sleep.. All to immediately get up and leave for groceries in the morning, leaving Phainon alone to bask in the scent of a furious alpha permeating their home.

And for some reason, it only made Phainon more and more excited as he watched that blond man move around, "You're still mine, aren't you?"

Mydei hesitated, just a bit, just enough to make Phainon tilt his head curiously - wondering what cute emotions the newly made alpha was feeling over submitting to another alpha already; "..Yes."

Phainon had to fight back the urge to grin over that - grin over the way Mydei was clearly heavily debating his answer before he had replied; "But so grouchy now.. How do you feel physically?"

Mydei was always a bit grouchy - rough around the edges but softer beneath it all. A very sweet man at the core of things when he wasn't busy being stoic and numb in his mood.

"You stink."

Well.

That was certainly less than 'very sweet' with the current situation, leaving Phainon blinking at his stunning and rather jaw-dropping alpha boyfriend with raised bros. Mainly due to how brutally honest he had been.

"Huh?" Was Phainon's intelligent reply, watching as Mydei crossed his arms with such a heavy huffing noise leaving his throat in clear annoyance with his now fellow alpha.

"Your smell is bothering me, is that the answer you want?" Mydei snapped at him, and that made Phainon tilt his head a bit. Just a tad before pushing forward, forcing himself towards his clearly annoyed mate in pure wonder as he blinked at the golden haired man.

“You do also smell weird..” Phainon hummed as he moved closely - amused over the way Mydei moved away ever-so-slightly. Not enough as Phainon forced himself closer, immediately sniffing at Mydei’s scent glands boldly, “How does this make you feel?”

Phainon’s voice was husky, laced with desire as he pressed a leg between Mydei’s own, seeking more and more of that who was now tense as Phainon arms encircled him in an embrace. A gentle thing before moving his hand to rub at Mydei’s breast teasingly over his shirt, all while rubbing his leg against the now-assumed-alpha’s crotch languidly.

“.. I don’t know.” Mydei eventually managed, and Phainon couldn’t stop himself from nipping at alpha’s ear teasingly - just a quick thing as Mydei immediately jerked away from him. All while forcing himself to rub on Phainon’s intruding leg between his own leg.

And Phainon grinned over that as his hand left Mydei’s chest; “Are you turned on by it?”

Mydei studied him meticulously for a brief moment, blinking and then heavily narrowing his eyes. All before pulling a hand up to idly play with his braid at the side of his head, “Well, yes, but I-”

“Slick?” Phainon asked unceremoniously, leaning forward before closing the distance once more with a fondness creeping into his features as he watched Mydei’s face twist with emotions flickering. Each one seemed so cutely unique to Mydei himself, one that was clearly baffled, and then one of pure confusion that he settled on.

“Huh?” Was the word that matched that precious expression on his features, a simple thing, but enough for Phainon to pucker his lips just a tad.

“Quasi-related to it all: Are you leaking slick? Wanting me inside of you?” Phainon continued prodding, very entranced in the sight of Mydei constantly seeming to have to switch his expressions.

… Seemingly not very good at being stoic today - was it due to all his new senses?

Poor thing.

Phainon wanted to help him so badly.

"'Quasi'..?" Mydei's confused expression made its appearance over that one again before opting to ignore that word apparently; ".. No slick."

No slick, but as Phainon pressed his leg back into Mydei's crotch - he could easily feel a bulge greeting him. Getting stiffer with every testing little nudge Phainon offered to Mydei..

"Ah.. My dear Mydeimos, are you an alpha?" Phainon asked innocently, but he knew the answer as Mydei's scent now smelled so heavily of an alpha now - that familiar sweet tone was buried beneath the wet woody smell of the man now permeating him in waves, "Let's check."

Phainon moved immediately to undo his mate's pants - a practiced act with both of his hands, swiftly undoing the button and the zipper before tugging them down easily. Only to copy with his boxers just enough to expose Mydei's half hard dick already.

"What-"

"The easiest way to check is to rub you out like this.." Phainon hummed as he quickly pumped his hand, tightening and squeezing on Mydei's shaft as he quickly moved up and down, "Let's see if you have a nice knot to give."

Mydei didn't argue, didn't fight back - instead he seemed to narrow his brows - all while swaying his hips to meet that hand greedily.

"You-" Mydei choked out, before clearing his own throat, "You're so handy with me lately."

Mm..

Well, Phainon did have permission from his mate after all - meeting Mydei's golden gaze with a smug grin on his lips; "You said I could be. Something something 'free-use'..? Remember?"

Of course Mydei had agreed to that when he was an omega - something about enjoying being full and pumped full of Phainon's warmth and being bred.. But Phainon was just paraphrasing here!

"So cute, you're getting so hard here. If you're an alpha-" Phainon instead hummed as he moved his free hand to the base of Mydei's shaft - squeezing roughly right where an alpha's knot should be, "Show me your knot against my hand.."

Phainon continued his pumping with one hand - all while softly rubbing the base slowly, massaging to try to egg on Mydei's first knot.

And it didn't take long before he found himself purring, purring over the way Mydei's cock was slowly growing a bulb with every weak breathy pant that man gave.

"Oh.. Look at this Mydei.. A knot.." Phainon murmured with a fond fascination creeping into his words - all before squeezing his hand slowly, feeling that bulge twitch in his hand. Mydei's knot.. "You're an alpha.."

"Isn't that-" Mydei gave an odd noise over that squeeze - probably of pleasure as he sucked in a breath as well, shrinking more and more into the wall as Phainon crowded into him, "What you wanted?"

What he wanted?

Right.

This was all to please Phainon - all to sate his desire to make such a sacred thing his own.

All to let Phainon bitch him this time..

"Mhm.. Such a good boy." Phainon felt almost delirious as he rubbed his tongue across his teeth behind his lips - wondering just what all Mydei felt like now, emotions and physically, "Becoming an alpha for me.."

"I'm so turned on.." Phainon confessed as his dick was now throbbing painfully in his pants - absolutely leaking precum down his own thigh as he imagined being able to finally push himself into Mydei's hole - knotting him again and again and stealing his alpha virginity away from him.

"You for sure have some underlying fetish for bitching." Mydei growled out, and that had Phainon bark out a laugh over it.

"I don't! I swear it.. I just like you so much Mydei.."

He was pretty sure, at least, but the more he thought about it - the more he desperately wanted to bitch him. Wanted to press him into the sheets and force knot after knot into the alpha while he squirmed and his body tried to adapt to his secondary gender changing yet again. Every knot brutally reminding Mydei of his true nature..

"Let's go to bed.." Phainon purred out, swiftly snapping himself out of his thoughts - after all, why get lost in a day dream when he could do such a thing to the real Mydei that was in front of him? No longer distracted by groceries as an excuse, either.

And Phainon could feel it.

His own dick aching and twitching - desire creeping into his senses and clouding them easily. He wanted to breed this alpha.. Pump him full of his knots..

"Bed?" Mydei innocently asked, much too innocent for a man who knew the entire reason of why he had been studded in the first place.

"I need to breed you.." Phainon answered softly, swiftly taking the alpha's hand into his own - marveling over how easily Mydei was allowing himself to be tugged along to their bedroom. Even moving to messily step out of his own pants with an annoyed noise as Phainon tugged him along.

"That's-"

"Don't argue Mydeimos.." Phainon cooed at him, teasingly, while also harshly laced with his own lust as he gripped Mydei's hand so tightly into his own, "Deep down you want to be knotted and forced into the bed beneath me, right? Don’t let your new silly instincts argue with your true self.”

Mydei didn’t reply to that as they entered their bedroom they had been sharing since Mydei’s heat. And Phainon didn’t mind as he flitted his eyes to Mydei, all before tossing his head to the side in a nod: “Underwear off. On the bed, pretty.”

That was a curious thing as Mydei’s lips quivered, a look of furiousness overcoming his features for just the briefest moment before he closed his eyes and moved past Phainon. And Phainon found his hands twitching over that, twitching over the way Mydei had looked like he wanted to snarl at him.

To deny following an alpha’s demands.

.. Phainon had to bring a hand up to his face over that - feeling the way his cheeks were burning with pure want and heat towards Mydei.

He desperately wanted to push this man down beneath him and show him his role in bed even as an alpha.

Instead, as his eyes dared to watch Mydei slowly remove his clothes as crawl onto their bed, he moved to get something else; “Ah! Can’t forget the toy.. Just in case..”

And the lube he had been abusing with the toy - this time with intentions of putting it into Mydei himself and onto his own cock. A curious thing, considering Phainon had never had sex with someone that.. Didn’t have slick inside of them already.

Phainon had to dispel his thoughts, instead moving to join Mydei on the bed with a hum over the sight.

No matter how many times he saw Mydei naked - he never quite got over it.

Those crimson tattoos that trailed all over his body, flowing across the curves of his body in an addicting pattern. All to be matched with still remarkably supple breasts if he truly was an alpha now - still perky and meaty, all while his body was so very toned.

Something to grab everywhere Phainon looked.

“Come on.. Flop over onto your tummy.. I’ll fix it all for you.” Phainon purred out - and the way Mydei’s eyes narrowed into such a harsh glare made his dick twitch even more in his pants. Aching to put that alpha in his place - aching to be buried inside of him and pumping him right back to being his breedable omega.

Though, Mydei was always breedable in his opinion. Even when he was a beta, Phainon could have figured out a way to breed him full of children if either of them had been honest with each other.. After all, Phainon had spent many nights masturbating while thinking of doing just that to Mydei.

Mydei made an odd noise, all before tossing easily onto his stomach. A practiced act considering Mydei loved to sleep on his stomach in the first place. Being speared open in this position was probably his preferred position if any.

But Phainon had to tease him anyway as he put the lube and fleshlight down on the bed beside Mydei, all while humming to move and sit himself down on Mydei’s legs sprawled out behind him: “Growling at me but obeying.. That’s my Mydeimos!”

“Shut up.” Came Mydei’s instantly angry reply, a cute thing, really - considering it was already somewhat muffled through him pressing his head onto the pillow.

Phainon tutted over that, amused over his mate’s sweet growls that really meant nothing as he fully lowered himself to rest on Mydei’s legs. Trapped him there, all while humming to pour some cold lube onto his fingers.

Phainon hummed as he smeared it around - eyes focused wholly on the ass being presented to him to earnestly. Raised just a little off the bed most likely due to Mydei’s own erection, but that was fine. Especially as Phainon placed a hand to Mydei’s cheek to spread it apart gently. All before rubbing his index and middle finger over that perky pink ringed hole.

A place he missed so much that he could even feel himself leaking more from excitement into his own boxers. Not even pressed in, merely doing small circles on that soft tight skin and he was feeling this excited over it..

“Wow.. Even this spot of yours is so firm now again - stop tensing up so much.” Phainon murmured, amused over how Mydei’s hole was fluttering shyly - tensing and clenching on nothing with every small rub Phainon gave with the lube.

It was quite the show to watch, all before he plunged a finger into that warmth - marveling over how reactive Mydei’s body was. Especially as Mydei’s hands gripped into the sheets from just one finger testingly dipping into his body.

.. Was he that sensitive here now as an alpha that just one finger had his legs quiver beneath Phainon?

“It feels weird.” Mydei growled over the intrusion, and that made Phainon lick his own lips before twisting his finger, jabbing it in and out slowly before sliding the second to join the first.

“It’s just my fingers, Mydei.. How weird can it feel? I’ve been dick deep inside you here before..” Phainon argued with a small laugh, eyes still watching the way that muscle clung to his fingers every time he pulled them out to push them back in. All before scissoring them just a bit as he rubbed those inner walls of Mydei. Drinking in every twitch of that hole that he could see.

Especially as Mydei let out a small frustrated groan; “.. That feels like an eternity ago.”

It did.

Even Phainon had to agree about that as he continued his movements, slow and steady for a seemingly tight virgin alpha ass..

“So whiny. Do you miss your fleshlight?” Phainon teased, wondering if Mydei really did want to knot it again.

.. That was fine - after all, Phainon had every intention of letting his sweet omega experience at least one knot and have his cock milked for all it was worth as an alpha. Even if it was going to be uselessly sputtered into a tight fleshlight.

“Shut up. You’re really-”

Mydei didn’t seem content with him not finishing his thoughts however; “Say it.”

“Your sweet first knot is being wasted.. No breeding for my cute alpha mate.” Phainon mumbled, a complete lie, considering he was pleased about it.

He didn’t want Mydei to breed anyone at all.

Mydei scoffed over that though in return, “Yeah. You are annoying.”

“Just for that, I’m done loosening you up.” Phainon hissed out as he slid his fingers out quickly, all before awkwardly moving to tear off his own boxers - groaning slightly as his throbbing cock was freed from confinement, “I’ll just enter you now. Nice and slow.”

Phainon moved to pour lubed onto his own shaft silently, staring at the way Mydei was still unmoving under him - completely laid flat on his tummy and allowing Phainon to take his time it seemed.

Even if he was foregoing the whole fingering Mydei’s ass to be ready for taking in cock situation.. Which he really shouldn’t be skipping considering the man no longer was an omega who desperately wanted to be bred.

.. Now he was an alpha who desperately wanted to be bred, probably.

“That’s how I preferred it, anyway.” Mydei growled out, and Phainon had to give another chuckle over that as his hand continued to move - rubbing in the lube and nicely coating himself. Thankful there was no use for a condom considering he wanted to impregnate this man..

“You masochist..” Phainon hummed, all before moving closer to Mydei - boxing him in and trapped his legs beneath him again. Just to guide his cock to that hole that seemed to twitch in anticipation as soon as he rubbed his slit against it. Slapping at it a few times in pure awe over it.

But he was never one for being patient when it came to Mydei of all things, and just was true even now as he pressed his tip into that hole - a groan tearing from his lips over how warm it was immediately inside of Mydei. Not nearly as wet as an omega, and so tight it was almost painful.

His breath felt like it was being robbed from him as just the head of his cock popped inside - instantly making himself bend over slightly and whine over just how much Mydei was clenching onto him.

“You’re so tight.. “ Phainon breathed out - trying to steady himself as his eyes trailed the beautiful naked man’s back before him. Steadily moving up and down, and that was insane considering Phainon himself was feeling so shaky from the tip being inside Mydei.

Every inch he pushed into Mydei made his head swim - half way in was when he found himself almost drooling over how tight it was. It.. Was almost like..

“It’s like you’re a virgin here again..” Phainon murmured, it truly felt like Mydei’s body had made him a virgin again as an alpha, “So tight..”

Those words left in him a pant as he moved a hand to spread Mydei’s ass again - eyes staring at the way he could physically see Mydei’s insides clenching onto him. Watching his body move and shudder as Phainon didn’t move - merely stayed there “Stop.. Talking so much..” Mydei equally as breathy replied, and that made Phainon sway his hips slightly - just a bit to force himself shallowly in and out of that twitching and squeezing hole. Humming over the way Mydei seemed to grip at the bed even more - body shaking every few moments as Phainon pushed his cock testingly deeper into him.

“You seem out of breath just from having me barely enter you..” Phainon noted as he tilted his head, hands now massaging at Mydei’s ass cheeks soothingly - spreading them apart every few seconds to drink in the hissing noise Mydei made over the stretch of it, “How does it feel? You’ve been an alpha, beta, and omega now. How does it feel to have your virginity as an alpha taken by me?”

That’s what this was.

Phainon was claiming him in a truly carnal way. And that was an addicting thought for him as he gritted his teeth and pushed himself deeper - speared on by his own words and desire to steal this man for himself. The desire to mark every part of him and being Phainon’s mate in such a deep connection..

“You’re so-” Mydei growled out, choking as Phainon sank into him more, almost snapping his hips forward to sheathe himself fully inside - but he was being polite and remained slow, “Insufferable!”

Insufferable.

That was such a cute word from Mydei as Phainon found himself still plunging deeper into him. Feeling more and more of that warmth enveloped him so dreadfully tightly. Until he couldn’t anymore - bottoming out as he found himself balls deep into the man. And then he sat there, humming over the way Mydei twitched over that.

Watching as Mydei moved a bit. Wiggling under him, wiggling away from him just a bit - just enough to slide Phainon out of him a little.

“C’mon! Don’t squirm, Mydei..” Phainon told him with a chuckle - moving his hands to Mydei’s hips to instead pull him back, forcing himself deeper back into the man and tearing a groan from Mydei over the forced plowing motion.

“It’s uncomfortable!” Mydei whined, and Phainon found himself easily laughing over that again - grinding his hips forward and into the whiny alpha that was now trapped beneath him. Legs crossing over Mydei’s own to make sure he didn’t try to leave again forcefully.

“Nonsense.. You enjoyed this so much as omega.. Your secondary gender is just lying to you.” Phainon pointed out with a quiet hum leaving his lips again over the whining his sweet Mydeimos was giving to him, “Just try to stay still and let me knot you again and again tonight.”

So much whining and acting like he wasn’t pleased by this - growling and gripping into the sheets. Grasping for anything.

Phainon almost felt bad about it, almost. The fact Mydei started moving his own hips against Phainon made him think otherwise on his feelings - watching as Mydei obviously rolled himself for more. Seeking out pleasure from that cock lodged into him and refusing to leave his insides.

And who was Phainon to refuse?

He couldn’t, instead immediately moving to slowly pull out and roughly, plunge back in - licking his lips over the yelped out moan that Mydei gave over it. Feeling spurred on more than ever over that whine and the shudder that ran through Mydei’s body as he repeated the action. Forcing himself to go balls deep every time he shoved himself into Mydei, solely to watch Mydei convulse under him.

Every quick movement of his hips earned a small whimpering noise to fall from Mydei’s lips, garbled and so very delirious sounding. So much so that Phainon couldn’t really understand what Mydei was mumbling out as his head seemed to dip forward and lay into the pillow.

Shamefully muffling his cute punched out moans, but also the gibberish that was leaving his mouth every time Phainon thrusted into that tight twitching ass.

But one word was perfectly audible to his ears; “Phainon..!”

“See? Feels good doesn’t it?” Phainon asked in a purr, speeding up his pace as he drank in those little whines now leaving Mydei’s mouth over the cock rubbing into his prostate repeatedly - no longer squirming and now fully letting Phainon do just what they had planned to do from day one of studding him.

“More..” Was another audible word, and Phainon found himself readjusting at that, leaning over Mydei more to pound into him breathily. Feeling the sparks of his own pleasure mounting so quickly as he pushed into his sweet mate’s virgin alpha hole, spearing him apart and forcing those insides to squeeze onto him in reward.

So sweet..

Phainon’s veins were on fire as he moved, sniffing at the air to find only a fellow alpha’s scent.. He needed to fix that.

Easy thing to do, especially as he pushed himself to bottom out into Mydei again, grinning over the new thing stopping him as he rubbed the bulge against Mydei’s hole.

“My knots swelling up, feel it?” Phainon asked, pressing it against Mydei - very aware of the way there was no possibility Mydei couldn’t feel it, “I’m so eager to start making you my omega again..”

His words were purred out seductively, a sweet promise before he fully pulled out of Mydei - drinking in the small whine that Mydei gave over being empty again. Even as an alpha, it seemed he still liked to be full - and Phainon was more than a little happy to indulge him as he moved a hand to pump his own cock lazily while moving away from Mydei.

“Get on your knees.. Let’s do doggy style..” Phainon told him, watching the way Mydei seemed to mutter something under his breath - but still slowly pulled himself up, legs trembling under the new position and the most likely dull ache of his insides being pulled apart.

But Phainon had a reason for this as he moved back to Mydei, pressing himself back inside with a snap of his hips to tear out a whine from his cute mate. Pounding into that needy and sloppy hole filled with lube now, feeling himself nearing more and more to his release.

Yet.. He pushed himself to lean over Mydei - hand moving to Mydei's neck to brush away lush hair that was hiding the back of his neck away as Phainon hips kept going. Kept pushing pleasure into Mydei and himself with every rough plunge back into that twitching wet warmth.

Phainon leaned to lick at that now exposed neck - jolting slightly over the way Mydei jerked with it. Pulling himself forward, and being instantly punished as Phainon met that movement with another rough thrust into him.

"Stop!" Mydei sweetly cried, a quiet thing as his head hung down - and it took Phainon just a mere second to realize what exactly Mydei meant over that. Why he had yelled stop all while moving to meet Phainon's cock and make him go as deep as possible into him every time.

The lick.

"Is your neck sensitive?" Phainon puzzled out, moving to press a sweet kiss to that exposed nape, "Poor sweet alpha.."

Of course.

That was a lie.

Phainon couldn't help himself as he pressed another chaste kiss there, only to snarl slightly and immediately bite down into that flesh - tearing into it and drinking the tangy metallic flavor of Mydei's blood in his mouth. A familiar taste, but a less bonding one as the alpha below him growled over the bite.

A useless noise, considering Mydei's own moans from the cock pounding into him immediately distracted his growling.

"Phainon!" Mydei cried out over the bite, a bit slow due to his breathy whines and clenching onto Phainon's length, rolling his hips all the same.

Phainon chuckled over it, running his tongue over the wound to lap up the blood before leaning back again; “Just marking my territory.. Even if you’re an alpha for a few more knottings, you’re still mine.”

Even if Mydei’s instincts weren’t being honest, his true feelings were.

And his body especially was as it convulsed over those words - twitching and squeezing onto his cock that was still jackhammering into Mydei.

“Tightening over that? Even as an alpha?” Phainon asked, practically purring over the way this alpha was so honest about being eager to be bred by him, “My best friend is too sweet for me..”

Best friend. Boyfriend. Lover. Mate.

All of those were reserved for only Mydei now, forever and always. And Phainon was a little glad to remedy his feelings towards this situation - though..

“I’m going to knot you now, alright?” Phainon informed him in a voice as sweet as honey, feeling his knot throbbing with every push into Mydei, drinking in the way Mydei himself wiggled over that awkwardly, “Don’t squirm over that.. It’ll be quick.”

Phainon had to grin over the sight of Mydei’s hands gripping the bed - a small whimper leaving the alpha’s lips as Phainon testingly pushed his knot against that ring of muscle. Drinking in the way Mydei clenched onto his cock, clearly trying his best to prepare for the intrusion that was going to be pressed into him.

But Phainon couldn’t help but watch the sight unfold, a disheveled Mydei panting over a knot bumping into his hole, grasping for an anchor against the bedsheets. Phainon found himself gripping onto Mydei’s hips as the alpha tried to lean away slightly.

So very naughty.

Phainon knew the perfect punishment, of course, licking his lips as he swayed his hips backwards - and then teasingly side to side. Rubbing those insides slowly before his fingers dug into Mydei's skin on his legs, holding him in place roughly. So harshly to where he knew he would leave bruises in his hands' wake.

But he didn't care.

Not as he slammed his hips forward, matching the way he yanked Mydei's own backwards to pop that knot abruptly past that layer of skin, and Phainon couldn't stop the groan that tore from his lips over the tightness of a shuddering and whining Mydei.

Phainon had to pant over it - over how shaky his legs were as he felt his cock starting its pumping inside of Mydei. Breeding that alpha. Bitching that alpha more and more with every bit of cum that shot inside of that squirming and squeezing hole.

"You really.. Do feel like a virgin down here.." Phainon found himself breathily laughing out, basking in the way Mydei seemed to have crumpled down more over the impact - completely allowing his front half to lay on the bed while his raised behind was speared open and stuck on Phainon's knot.

"Aw.. You didn't cum with me.. My poor sweet alpha mate.. Is my knot not enough to sate you?" Phainon asked as he rolled his hips forward - still feeling his cock twitching and breeding Mydei. As if his body was finally pleased to be back inside his precious omega, even if he wasn't an omega currently - he would be soon.

And that thought was all the more delicious, making Phainon lick at his lips as he grinded his knot into the man, "I'll just have to keep going until your body remembers how much you love being filled with me like this."

"Surely it can't take that long, four.. Five knots, maybe?" Phainon continued, mainly to himself. But Mydei replied anyway with a soft little whimper, one that only turned on Phainon more as he rolled his hips to try to push his knot deeper into the alpha, “Don’t whine, it’s alright.. I’ll give you more than that even if you don’t need them.”

It was a promise.

He would knot Mydei daily for the rest of their lives if his sweet greedy omega wanted that. Even when he was nice and round with their children, Phainon wouldn’t mind Mydei napping on his lap with Phainon’s knot buried inside..

“Here..” Phainon murmured regardless of his thoughts as he reached around slowly, moving to grab that rather neglected toy before uncapping the lube. Rather amused over the way Mydei didn’t even attempt to watch, still just laying there and accepting his breeding with heavy pants leaving his body as Phainon stared at him.

But that was fine.

Phainon moved his hand to that sweet neglected cock - rubbing up Mydei’s length to find that knot at the base still so enlarged and most likely aching to be shoved into a sweet omega.

Cute.

And so very useless as Phainon grabbed it tightly - pushing himself into Mydei a little, as if to show what that knot would never have as he was lodged into Mydei deeply..

Until Phainon sighed, moving that fleshlight around Mydei’s body to thrust it back onto Mydei’s cock - drinking in the loud moaned out whine; “Phainon!”

That never got old.

That deep normally rumbly and melodious voice moaning and whining his name like he was going into heat was enough to make Phainon cum instantly every time.

All Phainon did was hold the toy there - outside of that.. He pushed himself into Mydei repeatedly. Sure.. He was stuck inside, breeding and pumping into Mydei, but every time he shoved his hips into Mydei, he forced Mydei to thrust into that toy.

And the whines that was causing to fall from Mydei's lips were enough to make Phainon

"I'm helping you cum.. Go on.." Phainon told him, pushing their bodies together to make that whimpering alpha beneath him fuck that toy, "Good boy. Thrusting in time with me pushing into you.."

Phainon hummed as he kept his pace deep and slow - watching the way Mydei was quivering while holding himself up. Head hung low as he groaned over every push Phainon made - every pull he gave Mydei that forced that knot to slip around ever-so-slightly inside of his tight insides.

It was endearing, in a way. The way Mydei whined every time Phainon gave a rough thrust, forcing Mydei to thrust his own cock into that fleshlight alongside the movement. Thrusting both sides of the poor alpha for pleasure..

But..

"You need to be bitched, huh?" Phainon purred, moving his hand a little to help Mydei cum as the fleshlight now pumped, "Can't even use a toy correctly without me forcing you to thrust down into it, such a pathetic alpha."

Every word out of his lips were dark and low, laced with something Phainon wasn't even sure himself was just pure raw possession towards Mydei. Or something much more unique to the two of them as he kept swaying his hips to force his knot to tease at Mydei's hole from the inside, wet and messy as white liquid beaded out every time he forced that knot just a bit deeper into his mate.

But Phainon found himself almost yelping over it, yelping as Mydei's insides suddenly squeezed and tightened onto his whole dick. Almost painfully, but the reason for it was obvious and Mydei gave a breathy weak whine - one that Phainon met him with his own chuckle as he stopped pumping that fleshlight up and down Mydei's cock.

"Awh, you're cumming too now?" Phainon asked, feeling that white liquid seep onto his hand that was holding the toy - wet and searingly hot. Alpha seed begging to be forced into an omega.. It never would be.

"Phainon, don't-"

Phainon didn't hear him out - of course he didn't, not as he shoved that toy to be deeper on Mydei, forcing his knot inside of it roughly.

"Ah.. It slipped.." Phainon purred out, removing his hand from holding the toy now that he knew fully well Mydei was stuck lodged into it - pumping his cum into it messily as well, "Well, your first and only knot as an alpha is being spent breeding a toy uselessly."

Mydei didn't reply at that - at least, nothing that was audible or a language Phainon spoke as the alpha gave a low growl.

A growl that made the hairs on Phainon's neck stand on end - a growl of a possessive alpha..

A confused, precious alpha, who truly thought his first knot was being spent inside of something that was real. Delusional..

"Does it feel good to pump it full? To feel your knot swell inside the closest thing you'll ever have to someone on your own cock?" Phainon found himself hissing out his tease, grinning all the while over the way Mydei's instincts truly were going haywire now, "All the while being stuck on my own knot, being slowly bitched right back into an omega.."

Mydei shuddered at that - such an obvious movement ransacking his body before he gave a low groaning noise of it.

"It-" That rumbly voice trying to choke out, trying to find his words all while pumping seed into the toy lodged onto his own cock, "It does.."

Phainon found himself more than pleased over that, amused even over his sweet alpha Mydei enjoying breeding a toy uselessly. Phainon found himself grinding into Mydei as he prayed his own knot would subside. As much as he was eager to have his cum locked inside Mydei - he wanted to force this man to take more of it, not just have it buried in him.

More breedings. More seeding.

“I thought about it, you know..” Phainon murmured with his own thoughts rounding back to his earlier considerations of Mydei’s unique body currently, “Your body probably still has a womb.. I’m probably going to pump you so full of children all while you’re growling at me as an alpha.”

That was delicious enough.

An alpha beneath him that was so willingly studded into that row - now growling and snarling while willingly staying like this. Willingly waiting to be bitched by the true alpha in their relationship..

“Pushing my seed into you, knotting you repeatedly until you’re my sweet pregnant omega..”

“It’s too tight..” Mydei eventually whined out, clearly focused more on that toy stuck on his cock than Phainon’s words as he practically whimpered. Especially as Phainon moved his hand to testingly rub that fleshlight - snorting out a laugh over how snug it was onto his cock.

How wet it was from the cum seeping out of the top of it, overflowing from an alpha’s attempt to breed it.

“Mhm.. That toy doesn’t feel nearly as nice as you do..” Phainon admitted, though he was pretty sure he had already told Mydei that. But now it was much different as he swayed his hips to feel those insides instantly respond and clench around his still throbbing and aching knot buried warmly, “Twitching and milking every drop from me.. Taking my knot in so nicely..”

“I’m almost sad for you that you’ll never experience this feeling..” Phainon purred out in a tease, he was truly only almost sorry.

Mydei was his mate, after all. And as his mate, he had willingly taken the role of being the omega without even asking Phainon.. Mydei wanted to be the one being bred like this, taking knots and being pumped full of cum.. He wanted to be bitched again.

“I don’t.. Want to.” Mydei breathily replied, making Phainon blink at his own thoughts confusedly, eyes darting to look at the back of the alpha’s blond hair in a slight daze over his own conflicting answer.

But it’s not like Mydei could hear his thoughts..

“Hmm?” Was what Phainon decided to say instead, tilting his head to the side to feel his own bangs feather and frame around his rather sweaty face now. Hot and sticky with sweat due to his efforts..

“I want..” Mydei tried to mutter, seeming like his voice was hoarse as he made a garbled noise, “To be your omega.. I want to be the only one you feel this with..”

Oh..

Phainon knew that, but it was different to hear his intoxicating mate admit his thoughts. Different to hear that confession ring into his ears all while Phainon’s knot was slowly going down.

Deflating enough to pull out.

“.. My sweet omega.. I’ll bitch you so thoroughly, studding won’t even be possible anymore..” Phainon promised as he slid his hips backwards - roughly enough to pop his knot out. Not fully deflated, but enough to easily leave Mydei’s hole with a huff of a whine leaving Mydei’s throat over the stretch.

“Even if I pass out.. Keep knotting me.” Mydei growled back, “Just like you promised.”

“Just like I promised!” Phainon agreed as he snapped his hips forward - drawing out a yelped out moan from Mydei and a twitch of his body. Shuddering over the new pleasure all while still having that fleshlight trapped on his cock.

Phainon wanted to mock him for it, mock how every time he caught a glimpse of that toy there was so much white leaking out - spilling out from an alpha’s first sloppy breeding.

But his thoughts were never said as Mydei spoke first.

“Finally..” Mydei mumbled out, hollowly laughing all the while, “Knot me until I’m slick again, you irritable and insatiable alpha..”

Phainon found himself purring over that, roughly pounding into the needy alpha that wanted to be bred, that wanted to be bitched and was waiting on Phainon to give him what he needed. To give him his knots and correct his secondary gender he had willingly let Phainon change.

“Not as much bark as I expected from you being an alpha..” Phainon found himself teasing as he kept thrusting, grinning smugly over how much Mydei kept grabbing at the bed, “Is it because I immediately started knotting you? Your body remembers how much you like it?”

Mydei only gave a whimpering noise over that, and Phainon didn’t really mind it as he kept pushing himself into that tight hole. Feeling it clench and squeeze onto him in reward of passing his prostate with his tip every time so sweetly.

Only.

“This stupid toy!” Mydei growled out, making Phainon blink over it - only for a mere second before giving a laugh and continuing his pace of fucking Mydei. Humming over the fact he had forgotten that thing was still stuck on his knot. Still aching and lodged onto the poor throbbing thing.

“Hurts, doesn’t it?” Phainon teased, licking his lips at the thought of it aching Mydei’s poor cock, “But you like it to hurt during sex a little, right?”

Phainon didn’t find it in him to slow again, especially considering it didn’t seem like Mydei wanted him to stop either - hips moving to meet with Phainon’s cock, greedily taking everything he could get. Forcing Phainon to push as deep as possible every single thrust.

And who was Phainon to deny his sweet mate - slamming his body against Mydei’s own to jackhammer his cock into those tight insides. Absolutely coated in Phainon’s own cum, seeping out with every deep thrust Phainon rewarded his mate with for his efforts.

“So sweet how you keep raising your hips to meet mine.. Needy for cock, even as an alpha..” Phainon found himself chuckling out breathily, hands focusing on keeping Mydei nice and on his cock.

But Mydei equally seemed focused on that, pressing himself against Phainon every time he could to bounce on him pounding a bit. Just for those delicious shallow thrusts from the impact before the deeper one.

“You’re making a mess on our bed, by the way.” Phainon informed him with a laugh, grinning as he peaked to look at the mess of liquid stains on their bed from that toy reaching capacity, “Cumming so much with your useless little alpha knot.. Breeding that toy full, huh?”

“How did you enjoy being an alpha for the one day in your life?” Phainon asked, all while moving Mydei’s hips for him - enjoying the slight bouncing rub against his shaft as Mydei’s ass met Phainon’s hips, “Were the smells and new emotions fun?”

“Horrible.” Mydei instantly growled out, making Phainon chuckle over that reaction. That bitter sounding view, a breathy thing as his insides were still being rearranged to fit Phainon’s dick inside.. But..

“Mm.. Don’t like feeling territorial, huh?” Phainon asked, genuinely curious, after all.. His sweet mate would be bitched back to the secondary gender he belonged to quickly. Phainon would see to that himself.

Only, Phainon tilted his head, watching the way Mydei shook his head with a choked out whine. Clearly trying his best to reply all while Phainon just continued to help himself out - plunging into that warmth offered to him, basking in the way Mydei kept meeting him halfway. Sinking his hips back to force Phainon into him..

“I.. Don’t like your scent as an alpha..” Mydei confessed, groaning as Phainon rubbed into his prostate again rather obviously with how his body spasmed and shook just a tad, “It’s upsetting.”

That added up.

An alpha smelling another alpha all over his home must have been infuriating for his new instincts…

“Aw.. My poor honest Mydeimos..” Phainon purred out, slamming himself in deep to effortlessly punch out a gasped whine from Mydei, “I’m sorry.. I’ll fix you soon..”

That was a promise. Especially as Phainon moved his hands to Mydei’s hips - digging his fingers into the skin there before pressing that knot against Mydei’s hole. Pushing it in slower this time, deliberately wanting to hear the way it broke Mydei.

His cries and whines as his alpha body tried to adapt to a knotting. Tried to adapt to his new role in bed already being taken away with that knot popping into him. Cock twitching as his orgasm immediately slipped inside - yanking a groan from Phainon’s lips over the way Mydei clenched down to greet him.

“See.. Another knot buried inside of you.” Phainon told him, though, it’s not like Mydei didn’t know as he gave a small noise in reply. A scoff, probably, but Phainon wasn’t too sure as his adrenaline was spiking, vision blurring with his orgasm still being pumped into Mydei’s insides.

His sweet Mydei..

Phainon’s fingers tightened into Mydei’s hips - a whine leaving his throat over how much he loved this man.

Though, he did lean slightly, blinking at the sight below - the white sticky mess on the seats with that fleshlight now laying there. A trail of white leaking from the slit at the top where Mydei had knotted it, only to leave a messy puddle where all his cum was wasted.

“Oh! Your toy slipped off!” Phainon purred out, “Your poor knot has stopped swelling, do you wan-”

“You put that back on me and I will start mauling you.” Mydei immediately interrupted - though his voice sounded so.. Disorientated, not quite normal for Mydei that Phainon found himself straightening out, swaying slightly as he stared at the golden head of hair that was laying in front of him pathetically.

“Haha.. Okay.. No more toys for my sweet Mydeimos tonight..” Phainon conceded, staring at the sight of the struggling alpha still shaking beneath him innocently, “How are you feeling?”

“.. Like I’ve had two knots shoved up my ass, what do you mean how am I feeling?” Mydei growled out, and Phainon had to bite his tongue over the fact there was one lodged into him right now that was still shooting more cum deeply to bitch him as they spoke.

Phainon instead tilted his head, eyes trailing to look at that bite on Mydei’s neck - staring at that red and blond hair..

“Mm..” Phainon hummed, pleased with the sight of Mydei bent and being bred repeatedly again by him, “But you like knots being shoved up your ass. I meant physically.”

Right.

Well, someone was being a grouch about this, it seemed..

“Okay. Mentally, you know what I mean.” Phainon corrected himself with a roll of his eyes dramatically, a wasted thing considering Mydei hadn’t given him a glance this whole time. Merely entrusting Phainon completely to bring him the pleasure he wanted.. And his own hips, Phainon guessed.

Especially considering as an alpha Mydei still hadn’t given his own cock any attention, no stroke or rubbing, still just.. Getting off through his ass being knotted and pounded repeatedly.. An omega at heart.

“Tired.” Was Mydei’s thrilling reply, yet one Phainon had somehow expected..

“Tired?”

Mydei huffed over that, wiggling slightly - only a little considering his ass was stuck on Phainon’s heady knot that was intent on breeding him, “My body aches in ways I haven’t even encountered from leg day at the gym..”

“In a good way..?” Phainon offered, and that immediately received a loud groan from Mydei.

“No.. I want to lay down and nap..”

Lay down and nap..?

Phainon had to tilt his head over that, staring at Mydei’s heavy back - those red spiraling tattoos that tore across it beautifully..

He found himself licking his lips, “You can if you want. I’ll keep pumping you full of my knots until you’re an omega again..”

And with that, he tugged his knot out - not deflated too much, but enough to pull it free from breeding Mydei. Enough to start going again, enough to push his beloved into the bed and keep slamming his fuck shaft into him - not even caring if his knot was still making him spurt out cum sometimes with the thrusts.

That was fine.

The more messy and sloppy breeding the better, the obscene slapping wet noises was enough to drive Phainon insane alone. That, along with Mydei grabbing for an anchor again, loud moans leaving his lips over the new pounding pace Phainon had chosen.

“Are you-” Mydei tried to choke out, words seeming to fail him as he gave a small wail over Phainon’s refusal to stop, “In a rut? How can you even keep getting all these knots..?”

A rut?

He probably was always in a rut when Mydei was involved, always willing to knot that man and hear these deep guttural noises of pleasure. Noises only he was allowed to hear now, sacred and something to cherish every time he earned one through dicking Mydei down relentlessly.

“I need to keep going..” Phainon explained, as if that helped at all, thrusting his hips forward like a desperate beast seeking solace, “You just feel so good..”

It was true. Mydei felt so good it was making Phainon find it harder to stop than to keep going.

However, Mydei only replied with weak moans, muffled as he turned his head into the pillow again - seemingly giving up on questioning how Phainon had the stamina to keep fucking him senseless. But Phainon found that all the more charming..

“A virgin that was made solely for me to claim..” Phainon purred out, practically trying to sweet talk the man he was already pounding into the sheets. Trying to make sure his body never forgot who truly made him their omega.

“I’m not-” Mydei tried to choke out - strained and a struggle as he twitched under Phainon’s ceaseless slapping into him, repeatedly bottoming out and ripping moans from Mydei, “I’m not a virgin! You’ve had sex with me yourself before!”

He had.

But this was different, Mydei was no longer producing slick, the most lube they had now was the cum Phainon kept pumping into him.. This was different from Mydei as an omega.

Phainon would know.. He had already fucked both til they were drunk from sex already.

“It’s so tight.. There’s no way you’re not a virgin as an alpha down here..” Phainon pointed out, moving a hand to grip at Mydei’s ass to spread him slightly again. To take in that now red and twitching from repeated pounding ring of muscle that was snugly hugging on his cock. Practically begging him not to leave with how tightly it clenched onto him every time he withdrew to his tip..

“You’re losing it..” Mydei grumbled out, and that was particularly lucid for a man whose legs kept shaking every time Phainon shoved fully into him and stayed there. Marveling at the sight of Mydei breaking down more and more when Phainon decided to fill him and pause there..

Phainon kept himself buried - cherishing the gentle sound of Mydei using that time to heavily suck in air.. A cute thing as Phainon cupped his hand around, tenderly grazing his fingers up that ignored cock up he found that bulb again..

Still an alpha.

Still needing Phainon to bitch him.

“You’re hard again as well.. With another knot there..” Phainon told Mydei, ignoring his own thoughts as he started his pace right back up. Spurred on more by that knot daring to form again while being knotted himself.

A useless thing, but an easy way to know Phainon needed to keep knotting his darling Mydeimos..

“How could I not be?!” Mydei shot back, and Phainon had no answer as he kept fucking into him - slamming his own dick in and out to try to aim for Mydei’s prostate. Drinking in the way Mydei easily told him every time he hit it - body spasming and convulsing alongside those sweet mewls of moans leaving Mydei’s throat.

Adorable, really.. His mate was really adorable.

“Stop that!”

“I’m gonna cum, Mydei!” Phainon didn’t wait for a reply, snapping his hips forward with a guttural moan ripping out of his throat as he shoved his knot into Mydei again. Cumming right along with it.

Hand pumping at Mydei’s dick stuttering with the way Mydei’s insides spasmed - tattling on the way Mydei was about to join him. Phainon purred over it, feeling his alpha almost thrilled to keep showing another alpha his place beneath him as his hand kept pumping and palming Mydei’s cock ruthlessly.

“Stop-”

Phainon didn’t listen to Mydei, of course not - not as he quickly snapped his hand downwards to grab his knot. Gripping onto it harshly, tightly - all to hum in amusement as he felt that cock pumping more. And Phainon couldn’t stop himself from angling himself in a way to watch him cum. Watching the absolute mess Mydei was making.

All while his knot throbbed in Phainon’s hand - swelling up much to Phainon’s amusement as he continued watching this poor alpha try to breed his hand. Shooting out streaks of white onto their bed in a rhythm..

“What a mess you’re making..” Phainon laughed over the sight, staring at the way it was puddling up only to seep into their bed. All while Mydei whined - hips moving slightly, so obvious and desperate as he tried to fuck into Phainon's hand more as it stayed holding his knot tightly.

"Good boy.. Just like that.. Keep cumming." Phainon cooed out, amused as his eyes only remained watching - feeling his own dick twitching inside of Mydei over the sight of his poor omega trying to be a good alpha.

"Bitching you is a mercy.. Can't even fuck a fleshlight right, and trying to breed my hand.." Phainon hummed over the display of that weeping cock still messily spilling out all of his seed onto their bed, "We were born to be mates so I could take care of all the breeding for you, even letting you feel what your knot could have felt like.."

His words about bitching didn't really matter considering the fact Mydei didn't want to ever be an alpha anyway - he truly was born to be Phainon's mate. Born to be his lover and always together with him, that was their lovelife.. That's all Phainon had ever wanted.

A simple thing as Phainon straightened himself out slightly, moving his hand from gripping that knot to instead idly pump at Mydei's dick. Drinking in the way his insides convulsed over the clear pleasure he felt of his orgasm being ridden out and helped like that. A mess of fevered whimpers spilled from Mydei's lips in praise and Phainon..

Phainon felt his alpha purr over it.

"You'll notice inside of you.. It's wet, soaked in cum.." Phainon told him, grinding into Mydei as if making some of his cum spill out and down Mydei's thighs messily would help prove his point, "That's what you prefer, isn't it? Being bred while your dick is useless, right, my dear omega?"

"Yes!" Mydei immediately answered, and that went straight to Phainon's dick - twitching with greed even though he had just cum and knotted his sweet Mydeimos..

"Good boy." Phainon purred out, feeling so deeply pleased over this alpha giving in to him. Giving in and completely surrendering that he was made to be bred, even if an alpha, made to be Phainon’s and bear his children.. How could Phainon not grind into him hungrily? Licking his lips in sheer want towards the man so desperate to be bitched.

Well..?

“Mydei!?” Phainon cried as the man went completely slack beneath him into the cold puddle of his own cum, robbing Phainon’s dick of that velvety tight warmth that had been milking him in favor of the cold air as Mydei crumbled onto the bed. Knot popping out in a way that had to be just as painful for Mydei as it was for Phainon as his cum sputtered out messily.

“That hurt, you know?!” Phainon hissed as he blinked as his own white liquid coated cock, offing downwards at the messy sight of the same liquid flowing out of Mydei.

Such a waste.

But the more important thing was the lack of reply from Mydeimos as he darted his eyes upwards, staring at his sweet mate.

His unmoving mate, aside from his steady breathing making his chest rise and fall in a pattern.

“.. Mydei?” Phainon asked more timidly, moving slightly to look at Mydei more - to try to look at his face. To look and see if his precious mate truly had passed out from getting pounded so much.

Though..

“Mydei, you..” Phainon trailed off, feeling himself give way to a quiet chuckle - not wanting to disturb Mydeimos, “Being bred as an alpha is horrible and fatiguing, I’m sure..”

Though, it didn’t matter. Not as Phainon gently turned Mydei onto his side - blinking at the way his head barely moved. But that was fine.

Phainon didn’t need Mydei’s upper half to follow commands right now, not as he took Mydei’s leg and placed it onto his shoulder - slotting himself easily between Mydei thighs with a hum.

Phainon was a good mate, of course he would keep going like they both had wanted, guiding his dick back into that soaked with cum hole - and groaning over the little whimper that left Mydei’s lips as Phainon immediately bottomed out again. Snapping his hips to push himself all the way back into that warmth.

Hands trailing to hold onto that leg with a lick of his lips as he lowered his own ass to rest on Mydei’s other leg. Trapping him there to take the pleasure even if he awoke..

Phainon was slower with this fucking - more deliberate as he pushed into Mydei, pulling out to his tip only to sink back in so painfully slowly. Feeling every bump inside of his precious mate that rubbed his cock nicely, mapping out every inch of his insides with every push into him.

Drinking in the way Mydei’s body reacted on its own, squeezing onto him every time he plunged against that prostate - sweetly giving Mydei sparks of pleasure. Gentle emotions as Mydei ghosted out whimpers over it even in his sleep.

Pleasant music to Phainon’s ears as he stared at his sleeping mate, pressing a kiss to that toned leg he was holding up - and was rather glad how flexible Mydei was.. Especially considering this position didn’t wake him all while Phainon was slowly fucking him, nearing his own orgasm again rather quickly.

It was hard not to, Mydei’s whimpers in his sleep were so little, quiet and precious things, that Phainon’s knot ached every time one escaped Mydei’s throat. Phainon could feel himself getting addicted to this, addicted to soft slow sex with Mydei.. Maybe even a little addicted to having sex with Mydei while he was out cold.

Phainon hugged Mydei’s leg to his chest, slowly pushing his knot into that pliant twitching hole once more. Groaning over the way Mydei didn’t stir at all as that knot popped into him again, “You feel so good. Even while asleep..”

Even while Mydei was asleep, he couldn’t help but ramble as he felt himself pumping more into Mydei, “Tight and drenched with my own cum.. Just right..”

Just how his mate should be - constantly full of Phainon’s cum to get him pregnant. Bent on breeding him again and again, the bitching was just a bonus at this point.

A sick, perverse bonus and fantasy to force Mydei’s secondary gender into being his and only his omega. An omega that only knew his cock.

He sat there on his knees for a few moments, feeling his cock twitching in those rather less reactive insides - swaying slightly regardless to rub into them while cumming. But it wasn’t the same. Good, but not the same.

“Good night, Mydei.. I’d rather you be awake for most of this..” Phainon murmured, angling himself awkwardly to shuffle oddly into bed behind Mydei, flopping down languidly while still very lodged inside of Mydei. Knot not deflating, and certainly not done breeding his perfect mate..

He knew he had promised to keep going when Mydei had fallen asleep - but he liked Mydei awake. Liked listening to him whine and growl over it all, his cute asleep noises were good. But if Phainon had the choice, the most he could do was snuggle into Mydei and let sleep take him - humming over the way his knot was still throbbing inside Mydei.

It didn’t take but a short rest before Phainon rubbed his head forward in the early morning - not daring to open his eyes to greet the day.. He was still so tired after all.. But there was something else, twitching and squirming that Phainon couldn’t help but sway his hips into. Yawning as he pressed himself deeper into that wet warmth around his dick.

All while bear-hugging his beloved mate from behind, a perfect dream, he would say as he roughly jutted his hips up - seeking more of that warmth that was enveloping and twitching deliciously onto his cock. Squeezing onto him with every thrust Phainon gave into it.

Whatever he was pressing himself into in his dream was clearly struggling - that much was obvious as Phainon could feel their breath stuttering with every rough thrust. Every deep pound into the wet warmth that was hugging and clenching on his shaft..

“Phainon.. Are..” Mydei asked, a quiet voice, but Phainon knew it anywhere as he pushed himself deeper into that twitching velvet locked around his shaft, “You still asleep?”

It felt too good.. He didn’t want to wake up and lose it - not as he let himself whine softly before humming over his mate trying to rouse him, “Mm..”

If he was having a wet dream, let him..

Phainon couldn’t stop his hips - seeking out more and more of that velvet that was squeezing onto him, savoring every time it spasmed and clenched onto him. Trying its best to milk his orgasm from him, it seemed..

“You-” Phainon jerked his hips up over hearing Mydei trying to rouse him again, twitching wildly as he felt that warmth convulse around him over the movement. He didn’t want to greet the day, he wanted to knot this warmth that was on his cock already, and wanted to pump it full as a good morning..

“Ah!” Came the moan from his mate, a moan that made Phainon hum over it - this wasn’t a dream, was it? He was surely inside Mydei, and that thought made his grip tighten. Forcing Mydei to stay nice and still in his hold as he slowly rutted into him in bed, shallowly thrusting in and out all while yawning tiredly.

“It’s early, Mydei.. Go back to bed..” His own voice was laced with drowsiness, still so sleepy as he kept chasing that warmth. Not allowing his mate to wiggle out of his arms as he kept going, feeling his knot forming again.

Right.

Knotting.

He wanted to knot Mydei again and again, even if he wasn't fully awake. His instincts alone knew to breed this man full of his pups..

"How could I-" Mydei sharply hissed in reply, "With you thrusting into me like this?!"

That was a good question.. Phainon found himself only pushing himself deeper into Mydei to withdraw himself - smiling fondly as he kept his eyes closed.

Merely basking in the tight warmth of his mate's precious body being offered to him for his use. Such a sweet man to be ready to take a pounding right when waking up..

"Mm?" Phainon innocently asked, feeling his cock throb over the idea of breeding Mydei right now - enough that it wasn't really hard to cum in his sleepy state, "I'll stop then.."

"Wait-"

Phainon jerked his hips up, slamming himself fully inside to start spilling semen into his mate as he blinked his eyes open to the light morning. Staring at the back of Mydei's hair - at the way his body was shuddering while Phainon was orgasming inside of him, pumping him full of all his knot had to give.

"You bastard.." Mydei groaned out, and Phainon chuckled over that, nosing himself closer to sniff at Mydei. Not an omega, but not nearly as alpha smelling as before - clearly already being whittled down from having a knot lodged into him all night long.

Phainon himself could get addicted to having himself knot deep inside Mydei nightly as well. Only moving to let go of his deep hug to thread his fingers through Mydei's hair gently, grinding his hips into Mydei as those inside twitched and eagerly milked him for every drop..

"So warm.. Feels so good this early.." Phainon murmured, rubbing his head against Mydei softly, tenderly as felt more sated than before.

Granted, he was asleep when he started thrusting into Mydei, but now he was way more ready for bedtime..

Mydei on the other hand, growled at that statement, "You never even pulled out! Fucking me in your sleep is insane, Phainon!"

Was it?

Phainon thought it was kind of nice, almost like having a wet dream only his precious mate was ready to receive everything he wanted to give him in the dream. Barely even trying to escape the thrusting..

Mydei certainly had wanted it just as much as Phainon had.

"Shh.. Let's go back to sleep."

"You mutt-" Mydei grumbled out, lacking any true venom in those words, "Waking up just to knot me again.. I was going to make breakfast for us."

His adorable caring mate, gentle and kind… He was made to be such a doting omega.. All the more reason for Phainon to keep pounding him, "You're better here keeping me warm.."

".. Not like I have a choice now until your knot goes down.." Mydei forfeited with a loud scoff leaving his throat, leaning into Phainon just a bit more. And that made Phainon return his arms to holding onto Mydei tightly, "Don't hold me so tight. I can't leave anyway.."

"What if you try to wiggle away again once it's down? I need to knot you more.." Phainon instantly countered, pressing himself as close as he could as he stared at the side of Mydei, blinking over the way they hadn't even used blankets last night.

No use, he guessed, considering how exhausted they were and how.. Stuck they were all night long.

“You knotted me enough for one day..” Mydei tried to argue back, but it was such a weak thing Phainon found himself laughing over it. As if Mydei was trying to convince himself as well of why he shouldn’t be pumped all day long with knots.

“Mm.. We can have breakfast and then I’ll bend you against the wall if you want..” Phainon murmured, thinking of all the different positions he could knot Mydei.. On the couch with Mydei on top.. Standing against the wall, yanking his arms to keep him speared on Phainon’s cock..

On the table..

“.. So you’ll let me make breakfast after this knot if I let you knot me after we eat?” Mydei asked, oblivious to those inner thoughts Phainon was having of day dreaming all the different ways to stuff knots and cum into his sweet mate..

His mate that was slowly being bitched by him once again, making Phainon purr at his realization, dick throbbing inside that warm hole as he rubbed himself into Mydei. His sweet Mydei that let him claim him in such a brutal way..

.. Such an enabler, really.

But that was his Mydeimos.

“Mm.. Or you sit on my lap while we eat and I knot you during breakfast..” Phainon offered, returning to his thoughts of all the different ways and positions he would like to stuff knots into Mydei in. After all, he had thought about this the entire time studding him.

The idea of sitting at the table with his beautiful mate stuck on his cock, being bred thoroughly all while they ate was such an addicting one..One that had haunted him ever since they ate together while studding Mydei..

“You’re disgusting and foulbrained.” Mydei growled, though Phainon knew that tone - the tone of his best friend that was trying his best not to grin over the idea. Especially considering Mydei’s insides twitched with Phainon’s words, squeezing on him in a confession of his body’s own making.

“You’re the one that twitched inside when I said the idea..”

“.. You know what..” Mydei grumbled out, and Phainon hummed over it, nuzzling his head forward to breathe in the man’s still somewhat woody scent. Now once again with the smallest undertone of sweetness, a smell that made Phainon’s hips jut upwards into that warmth deeper. Whining as it twitched around him wetly.

Mydei didn’t seem bothered however, huffing out a laugh as he finished his own thought; “Deal.”

Chapter End Notes

mydei got pregnant. the end.
as usual i probably forgot some tags but i never remember all the freak shit i put in these. a demon (phainon) takes control of me and the kinks just happen idk
